About The Cover

Chandler, Arizona illustrator Jim Oakes captures the Cardinal franchise's 100-year anniversary on this year's media guide cover with a collage of memories identified below.

1. John "Paddy" Driscoll — A Cardinal from 1920-25, the team's head coach in 1921-22, and a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He is remembered as perhaps the greatest practitioner of the lost art of drop-kicking.

2. Jim Conzelman — Pro Football Hall of Fame member and the Cardinals' head coach from 1940-42 and '46-48, a span that included the team's 1947 NFL championship.

3. Ernie Nevers — A Cardinal from 1929-31, '39, the team's three-time head coach (1929-30, '31, '39), and a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, pictured in Chicago's old Comiskey Park. His six rushing touchdowns vs. the Chicago Bears on November 28, 1929 remain the NFL single-game record.

4. Charles W. Bidwill, Sr. — Cardinal owner and member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame who is credited with molding the Cardinals' 1947 team that won the NFL championship just months after his death and helping shepherd the NFL through the Great Depression.

5. Game Program — Circa 1940.

6. Players On Bench — Circa 1940s.

7. Scorecard — 1921 game against the Akron Professionals.

8. Charley Trippi — A Cardinal from 1947-55 and a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

9. Antique Football — Sporting the Cardinals' 100th anniversary logo.

10. Chicago Cardinals Logo.

11. Game Program — 1939 game with the crosstown rival Chicago Bears.

12. Chicago Newspaper Article — Trumpeting the Cardinals' 1947 NFL championship.

13. Charley Johnson — The muddled quarterback called signals for the Cardinals from 1961-69 and remains one of only three Cards to throw for over 10,000 passing yards. He also set the club record twice with six single-game touchdown passes.

14. Pro Football Illustrated Magazine — 1948 cover.

15. Ollie Matson — The electrifying Cardinal running back from 1952-58 boasts the distinction of being traded to the L.A. Rams for nine players in 1959.

16. Early Braintrust — From left, William V. Bidwill, Jim Conzelman, and Charles W. "Stormy" Bidwill, Jr. in 1947.

17. Player — Artwork circa 1930s.

18. Western Union Telegram — 1940 telegram to Cardinal owner Charles W. Bidwill, Sr. from the sports editor of the Milwaukee Journal.

19. Jim Hart — The Cardinals' quarterback from 1966-83 who still holds most of the team's career passing records, including yards (34,639), attempts (5,096), completions (2,590), and touchdowns (209).

20. Larry Wilson — 1960-72, current team vice president, a Pro football Hall of Fame member, and a member of the NFL all-time team.

21. Busch Memorial Stadium — The Cardinals' St. Louis home from 1966-87.

22. Billboard — A St. Louis billboard congratulating the 1964 Cardinals for their berth in post-season play.

23. Headline — 1964 Playoff Bowl win.

24. Offensive Line — The Cardinals' offensive line of the 1970s—Dan Dierdorf, Conrad Dobler, Tom Banks, and Bob Young, from left—was considered the NFL's best.

25. Neil Lomax — The Cardinals' quarterback from 1981-88, Lomax figured to threaten Jim Hart's team career passing records until injury cut short his impressive career.

26. Larry Centers — The current Cardinal fullback, a two-time Pro Bowl selection, has become a fan favorite while earning his spurs as the NFL's top pass-catching running back.

27. Aeneas Williams — One of the NFL's top cover corners, Williams is a four-time Pro Bowler whose six career interception returns for touchdowns already make him the Cardinal career leader.

Covering The Cardinals

Game Day

Credential Requests

Members of the news media who have not been issued season press credentials should request single-game credentials in writing on appropriate letterhead at least seven days in advance of the desired game. Mail or FAX requests to Paul Jensen, Director of Public Relations, P.O. Box 888, Phoenix, AZ 85001-0888. All credentials are issued to individuals. Credentials are not transferable!

(Public Relations FAX: 602/379-1821)

Credential Delivery

Credentials will be delivered in the most expeditious manner. They will be mailed as time allows. Otherwise, they may be claimed at the Cardinals' public relations office at the team's training facility in south Tempe, Arizona during normal working hours, or with proper identification at the "will call" window located in the south end of Sun Devil Stadium (Fifth Street) on game days. "Will call" opens three hours prior to kickoff.

Media Stadium Entrance

The media entrance to Sun Devil Stadium is located at the southwest corner above the television parking pad for press already holding credentials. Media members who must claim credentials at "will call" may enter the stadium in the vicinity of the ticket office located at the south end of Sun Devil Stadium off Fifth Street.

Photographers

Sideline photography in the National Football League is limited to working media on specific assignment for a recognized sports publication or news service. No free-lance photographers will be accommodated. No one except network television and authorized game personnel will be admitted to the field without a camera. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and behind the broken lines that surround the entire perimeter of the playing field. All credentialed grips and messengers must remain on the perimeter of the playing field.

Telephones

The Cardinals provide numerous telephone extensions from the Arizona State University telephone system throughout the press box at Sun Devil Stadium. Media outlets desiring dedicated lines should place orders by contacting U.S. West Communications, 602/630-6314, for lines, and AT&T, 1-800-555-8111, for instruments.

Locker Room Access/Post-Game Interviews

Members of the media wishing to conduct post-game interviews in the home and visiting locker rooms will be given access to players and coaches after the suggested "cooling-off" period following the conclusion of the game. Access is available only to individuals holding working credentials and a locker room pass which is distributed in the press box during the fourth quarter. Head Coach Vince Tobin and selected players will hold their post-game press conferences in an interview room located directly across the hall from the Cardinals' locker room. An interview tent has been erected outside the back door of the visiting locker room for post-game interviews.

Locker Room Locations

Both locker rooms are located in a separate building outside the north end of Sun Devil Stadium. The Arizona dressing room is the first room on the right; the visitors' dressing room is at the end of the hallway.

Press Box/Locker Room Routing

To reach the locker rooms from the press box, media must take the elevator to the main concourse level. There is no suitable path to walk to ground level from the press box. Emerging from the elevator at ground level, proceed north (left) along the stadium concourse. Walk to field level through the stands. Members of the media will be permitted to view the conclusion of the game from inside the field fence at the northwest corner of the field. They will be allowed to proceed to the dressing rooms after the game participants have exited the playing field. Media members are asked not to attempt to interview game participants—players and coaches—as they exit the field.

Parking

Press parking at Sun Devil Stadium is located in two places. Some media members will be accommodated with parking immediately southwest of the stadium along the railroad tracks. Other media parking will be offered in the A.S.U. parking garage just south of the stadium on the south side of Fifth Street.

FAX Service

Media needing FAX service should contact a member of the Cardinal public relations staff prior to the game to fill out a simple form outlining their needs. A $10 fee is charged for long-distance FAXing.

During The Week

General Protocol

For the Cardinals' public relations office to better serve media needs, all members of the print and electronic press are asked to stop in the public relations office upon arrival at the training facility. All photographers must notify the public relations office of their presence prior to gaining access to the practice field.

Player Interviews

During the regular-season work week, Cardinal players typically are available to the media in the locker room during their lunch period. There is no media access to players on Tuesdays, their off day. Additional interview access also is available outside the locker room after the daily workouts and during prearranged appointments made through the public relations department.

Vince Tobin Interviews

Cardinal Head Coach Vince Tobin is available to the media as he leaves the practice field following each day's workout. On Tuesdays, the players' off day, Tobin conducts an interview session at approximately noon in the public relations department.

Assistant Coaches/Staff Interviews

Interviews with Cardinal assistant coaches and other members of the organization should be arranged through the public relations office.

Opponent Coach/Player Interviews

The head coach and a player from the Cardinals' upcoming opponent are interviewed via conference call midweek, usually Wednesday. Contact the Cardinals' public relations office each week to verify times.

William V. Bidwill

William V. Bidwill's association with the Cardinals began as a child ball boy on Chicago's South Side and continues today as owner and president.

The 67-year-old Chicago native presides over the oldest continuously-operated professional football franchise that dates to 1898. The Cardinals and the Chicago Bears are the two charter members of the National Football League (1920).

The Cardinals have remained in the Bidwill family since William's father, Charles, a prominent Chicago sports figure and member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, purchased the team in 1932. Charles ran the club until his death in the Cardinals' NFL championship year of 1947. His wife, Violet, guided the franchise's fortunes for the next 15 years, followed jointly by sons William and Charles, Jr. (Stormy). William became sole owner in 1972.

Named a Cardinal vice president during his undergraduate days at Georgetown University, William Bidwill returned to Chicago from the Navy in 1956 to begin assisting family interests that included football. When the Cardinals moved to St. Louis in 1960, Bidwill returned to the organization on a full-time basis.

Bidwill remains involved in all areas of the Cardinals' day-to-day operation. He operates the organization in south Tempe, Arizona from its award-winning training facility the team has called home since construction was completed in September, 1990.

He has been credited with his leading role in bringing Super Bowl XXX to Arizona on January 28, 1996. He also was a pivotal voice in Arizona's original award of Super Bowl XXVII.

An active supporter of various civic and charitable organizations and endeavors, Bidwill directed the formation of Cardinal Charities, the team's organization dedicated to supporting worthy Arizona causes, shortly after the Cardinals arrived in the state.

He sits on the Arizona Board of Directors of Boys and Girls Hope.

Bidwill currently is seated on three NFL committees—Broadcasting Committee, Retirement Board Trustees (Bert Bell and Pete Rozelle Plans), and the Realignment Committee.

Bidwill and his wife, Nancy, are the parents of five children. ■

Michael Bidwill

VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL COUNSEL

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

Michael Bidwill was named the Arizona Cardinals' vice president and general counsel in November of 1996 following six years as an assistant U.S. attorney in Arizona.

Besides his role as the team's chief legal officer, Bidwill has been serving as the club's liaison with community and government leaders and agencies, including the East Valley Partnership, to develop a convention and tourism center in the East Valley area of Phoenix (southeast suburbs). It would serve as a catalyst for a major redevelopment project to include a multipurpose facility that would list the Cardinals among its tenants.

Bidwill also has assumed responsibility for overseeing many of the team's administrative functions and departments in the areas of broadcasting, charities, community relations, marketing, public relations, sales, and tickets.

During his six years as a federal prosecutor in Phoenix, Bidwill specialized in homicide and domestic abuse cases. He also directed three task forces, including the FBI's new gang task force on the Navajo Indian Reservation in northeast Arizona.

He received seven letters of commendation from various law enforcement officials, including U.S. Attorney General Janet Reno.

Additionally, Bidwill served as a lecturer at many Department of Justice and Department of Interior seminars and as a guest lecturer at Stanford Law School in the spring of 1996.

During his six years as a federal prosecutor, Bidwill remained involved with the Cardinals by tracking opponent offensive and defensive trends and schemes from the coaches' booth during games. He also participated in the interview process that led to Vince Tobin's selection as the team's head coach in February of 1996.

Bidwill's charity activities include serving on the Board of Directors of NFL Charities and on advisory committees for the Catholic Diocese of Phoenix and the East Valley Boys and Girls Clubs.

Bidwill's civic activities include serving on the boards of the Arizona Chamber of Commerce, Tempe Chamber of Commerce, and Tempe Sports Authority.

He holds a 1987 bachelor of science degree in finance from St. Louis University and a 1990 law degree from Catholic University Law School in Washington, D.C.

While a student in the nation's capital, he also served terms as president and secretary of the university's Sports Law Society.

Bidwill, who is single, was born December 6, 1964 in St. Louis, Missouri and resides in Tempe, Arizona. ■

Larry Wilson

VICE PRESIDENT

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

Larry Wilson, one of the greatest defensive backs in NFL history, has enjoyed a career that spans 39 years as a player and front-office executive.

A 1978 inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Wilson received another milestone honor in 1994 when he was named to the NFL's all-time team commemorating the league's 75th anniversary.

A legendary defensive back for the Cardinals during their first 13 seasons in St. Louis and one of only four players in franchise history to have his jersey retired, the 60-year-old Wilson's NFL career began with 13 seasons (1960–72) as a player and has continued with a variety of administrative posts.

Wilson started his climb up the team's organizational ladder as director of professional scouting (1973–76) and director of professional personnel (1977–88). He also guided the team as interim head coach for the final three games of the 1979 season, earning credit for victories over the San Francisco 49ers and New York Giants.

His current duties include responsibility for Cardinal Charities, special events, team travel, and training camp at Northern Arizona University in Flagstaff, Arizona.

During the Cardinals' inaugural season in Phoenix in 1988, Wilson was appointed vice president and general manager to guide the franchise's football fortunes as it entered a new era in Arizona, a position he held through the 1993 season. During that span, Wilson hired a new head coach (Joe Bugel) and director of college scouting (Bob Ackles), played an active part in planning the Cardinals' state-of-the-art training facility, took a prominent role in the team's draft decision making, and implemented an aggressive approach to free agency.

As a player, Wilson reached legendary status as a hard-hitting six-time all-pro and eight-time Pro Bowl free safety, appearing in 169 NFL games—all as a Cardinal—from 1960–72.

His name is referenced throughout the Cardinal record book. He still owns club records for career interceptions (52), career interception yardage (800), and single-game interception return yardage (115).

His 96-yard interception return for a touchdown against Cleveland on December 19, 1965 remains the longest in Cardinal history and his 91-yard interception for a touchdown the following year against Philadelphia remains third on the same list. He led the Cardinals in interceptions six times and intercepted three passes in a single game twice.

In 1966, he enjoyed one of his finest seasons with an NFL-leading 10 interceptions, including three in one game against the Chicago Bears on October 31, while tying a league record by intercepting a pass in seven consecutive games.

Wilson also holds the Cardinal record for longest fumble return, an 88-yard jaunt for a touchdown at Green Bay on December 21, 1969. It was one of two career fumbles he returned for touchdowns and one of 12 career fumbles he recovered, the latter ranking fifth in Card annals.

Born in Rigby, Idaho, Wilson was a running back at the University of Utah. He was recruited to the Salt Lake City school by Ute assistant coach Andy Everest, father of Cardinal special-teams coach Al Everest.

Wilson was selected by the Cardinals in the seventh round of the 1960 NFL Draft. After converting to the defensive backfield due to injuries, Wilson and coach Chuck Drulis innovated one of today's most potent and exciting aspects of defensive football—the safety blitz.

Wilson and his wife, Nancy, reside in Scottsdale, Arizona. ■

Bob Ferguson

VICE PRESIDENT-
PLAYER PERSONNEL

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

Bob Ferguson was promoted to vice president-player personnel on February 4, 1997 after serving one year as assistant to the president.

Ferguson has responsibility for overseeing the Cardinals' college and professional scouting, contract negotiations, drafting, and player acquisitions and development.

Ferguson, 47, a 21-year veteran of various National Football League positions, has formed his philosophies from an impressive list of NFL head coaches with whom he has worked—Chuck Knox, Tom Landry, Marv Levy, Jack Patera, Wade Phillips, Mike Shanahan, and Bill Walsh.

He joined the Cardinals in February of 1996 following three seasons as director of player personnel for the Denver Broncos.

Prior to his tenure in Denver, Ferguson held various personnel positions with the Buffalo Bills for eight seasons, including assistant general manager/director of pro personnel in 1989.

The Federal Way, Washington native began his NFL career with the Seattle Seahawks as director of sales and special events from 1975–79 before moving into a scouting combine serving Buffalo, Dallas, San Francisco, and Seattle as an area scout from 1981–83.

He joined the Cowboys from 1984–85 to handle performance testing before moving to Buffalo.

Ferguson lettered three times at linebacker at the University of Washington, garnering second team all-Pac-8 Conference accolades as a junior and senior. He earned a 1973 bachelor's degree in radio/television communications from the Seattle school before free-agent tryouts with the San Diego Chargers (1973), Los Angeles Rams ('74), and Portland Storm of the World Football League ('74).

Ferguson and his wife, Colleen, have three daughters—Vanessa, Nathalie, and Allison. ■

Rod Graves

ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

Rod Graves begins his second season with the Cardinals as assistant to the president after 13 years in various personnel capacities with the Chicago Bears.

Graves, who joined the team in June of 1997, was appointed to assume responsibility for the administration of the team's scouting department in May of 1998.

In his current capacity, Graves, 39, now oversees the Cardinals' college and professional scouting efforts while continuing to assist in salary-cap management, contract negotiations, and other business aspects of the football operation.

A native of Houston, Texas, Graves began his career in professional football personnel work in 1982 as a regional scout for the Philadelphia Stars of the United States Football League. It was then he first crossed paths with Cardinals' Head Coach Vince Tobin, the Stars' defensive coordinator. In 1983, Graves was promoted to assistant director of player personnel.

He joined the National Football League in 1984 as a regional scout for the Chicago Bears, a position he held until promoted to director of college scouting in 1993, then director of player personnel in 1994.

During his tenure with the Bears, he worked for Bill Tobin, the team's director of player personnel and older brother of the Cards' head coach, along with four current Arizona assistant coaches—defensive coordinator Dave McGinnis, wide receivers coach Vic Rapp, running backs coach Johnny Roland, and quarterbacks coach Geep Chryst.

Graves, who holds a bachelor's degree in economics from Texas Tech, is the son of the late Jackie Graves, the former assistant director of player personnel for the Philadelphia Eagles.

He has been a member of the NFL College Advisory Committee and the NFL World League Committee since 1995.

Graves resides in Phoenix. ■

Keith Kidd

PRO PERSONNEL ASSISTANT

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

Keith Kidd, 34, begins his eighth year with the Cardinals' organization.

Kidd began serving in a professional personnel capacity in 1994 following three campaigns as a staff administrative assistant.

In 1997, Kidd added advance NFL scouting to his list of responsibilities that includes handling the recruitment of free agents under the NFL's collective bargaining agreement, overseeing the team's evaluation of professional players, NFL Europe assessment, and input into personnel decisions concerning the club's acquisition of veteran talent through free agency, trades, and waivers.

He also shares contract negotiation responsibilities with Assistant to the President Rod Graves and Vice President-Player Personnel Bob Ferguson.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Kidd coached defensive backs for two seasons (1989-90) at Arizona State under Head Coach Larry Marmie, the Cardinals' defensive backs coach. Before joining the A.S.U. staff, Kidd coached tight ends at Eastern Kentucky in 1987-88 under his father, Head Coach Roy Kidd, when the Colonels finished as an NCAA Division I-AA playoff semifinalist.

Raised in a football family, Kidd credits much of his football knowledge to his father, who leads all Division I-AA coaches with a .726 (280-103-8) career winning percentage. The senior Kidd, E.K.U.'s head coach the past 34 years, also is the third winningest coach among active NCAA Division I and I-AA coaches, trailing only Penn State's Joe Paterno (298) and Florida State's Bobby Bowden (281).

The long-time head coach is the 1998 president of the American Football Coaches Association.

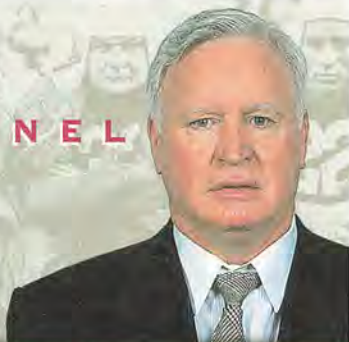

Born August 8, 1964 in Richmond, Kentucky, Kidd received his bachelor's degree in administration and master's degree in sports administration from Eastern Kentucky.

Kidd's brother, Marc, is executive vice president with Lexington, Kentucky-based Host Communications.

Kidd and his wife, Laura, reside in Phoenix with their son, Kody (May 8, 1997). ■

Jim Stanley

PRO PERSONNEL ASSISTANT

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

Jim Stanley, the former head coach of the Michigan Panthers (USFL) and Oklahoma State University (O.S.U.), begins his third season in pro personnel after coaching the Cardinals' defensive line in 1995.

Stanley, a 13-year NFL coaching veteran, joined the Cardinals in 1995 following six seasons with the Houston Oilers, including 1993 when the Oilers set a club record with 52 quarterback sacks and ranked first in the NFL in both rushing defense (79.6 yards per game) and interceptions (26). Houston logged 50 sacks in 1992.

Before joining the Oilers, Stanley served as defensive coordinator for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1986.

From 1983-84, he compiled a 22-14 record as head coach of the Panthers, a span that included a 12-6 mark, the USFL championship, and league coach-of-the-year honors in 1983.

He spent 1979 and '82 as defensive line coach for the New York Giants and Atlanta Falcons, respectively.

As the six-year (1973-78) head coach at O.S.U., the Cowboys posted a 35-33-2 composite record and earned bowl victories in 1974 (Fiesta) and '76 (Tangerine). The latter 9-3 squad was Big Eight Conference co-champion. During his Stillwater stay, he also was selected to coach in the East-West Shrine Game (1973), the Hula Bowl (1977), and the Japan Bowl (1977).

Prior to his promotion to the Oklahoma State head-coaching position, Stanley was the Cowboys' defensive coordinator/assistant head coach for the 1972 season in his second stint at O.S.U..

Earlier, he was defensive coordinator for the Canadian Football League's Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1971-72), the U.S. Naval Academy, (1969-70), and Oklahoma State (1963-68).

His first two college coaching positions were as an assistant at Southern Methodist (1961) and Texas-El Paso (1962).

Stanley began his coaching career in the Amarillo, Texas high school system from 1959-60.

As a player, Stanley was a three-year starter at Texas A&M under legendary Head Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. He played offense (guard) and defense (tackle) for the Aggies who went undefeated in 1956.

Born June 22, 1934 in Lynch, Kentucky, Stanley and his wife, Sylvia, have four grown children—daughters Rhonda and Starlyn, and sons Mark and Matthew. ■

Long-time Cardinal scout Bo Bolinger, a 27-year member of the Cardinals' organization and the team's director of college scouting since 1994, assumed the new title of senior scout in May of 1998.

In his current capacity, Bolinger, a former all-America guard at Oklahoma, will evaluate college talent nationally.

Bolinger primarily had been responsible for collegiate scouting in the West during his early days on the Cards' staff.

Before joining the Cardinals in 1971, Bolinger coached on the collegiate level for 11 years and spent two seasons as offensive line coach with the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League.

A 1956 draft choice of the Chicago Cardinals, Bolinger played nine games of the 1956 season for the CFL Edmonton Eskimos before returning to his alma mater, the University of Oklahoma, as a graduate assistant.

After spending the 1957 season as head coach at Miami (Okla.) High School, Bolinger coached the offensive and defensive lines at the University of Denver from 1958-60. He accepted the defensive coordinator's post at Tulsa the following season, handling that role for two years.

In 1963, he moved to New Mexico as offensive and defensive coordinator. After five years with the Lobos, Bolinger spent one season (1968) as offensive coordinator at Utah State before joining the CFL.

As a collegian at Oklahoma, Bolinger earned consensus all-America recognition in 1955 when he captained the Sooners' national championship team that led the nation in rushing and total offense. Bolinger finished ninth in the Heisman Trophy balloting in 1955. He also was named all-Big Eight Conference twice.

Bolinger holds a bachelor's degree in history from Oklahoma.

The 65-year-old Bolinger, a native of Muskogee, Oklahoma, and his wife, Barbara, reside in Tempe, Arizona. They have three grown daughters—Sharon, Susan, and Sandra—and four grandchildren. ■

Jim Carmody

SCOUT

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

Jim Carmody, the former head coach at Southern Mississippi and a veteran of more than 30 years of coaching at various colleges and the NFL, enters his fourth season as a regional scout for the Cardinals.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Carmody, 59, completed a three-year (1992–94) stay as assistant head coach and defensive line coach at Mississippi in 1994 in his second stint at Ole Miss.

Before rejoining the Rebel staff, Carmody was assistant head coach and secondary coach at Mississippi College for the 1991 season.

A graduate of Copiah-Lincoln Junior College and Tulane University, Carmody launched his collegiate coaching career as an offensive and defensive line coach at Tulane from 1961–62. He served as freshmen coach at Kentucky in 1963, followed by a three-year tenure as defensive line coach at Mississippi State from 1964–66.

He coached inside linebackers and the defensive line at North Carolina from 1967–73, and the defensive line (1974–77) at Ole Miss before the Rebels promoted him to defensive coordinator (1975–77). He later spent 1978–80 at Southern Mississippi as defensive coordinator and assistant head coach.

Following the 1981 campaign as defensive line coach for the Buffalo Bills, Carmody was named head coach at Southern Mississippi in 1982. In six seasons at the Hattiesburg, Mississippi school, Carmody's teams posted a 37–29 composite record, five winning seasons, and a 6–3 slate against in-state rivals Mississippi and Mississippi State.

He returned to the Mississippi State staff in December, 1988, serving two seasons (1989–90) as defensive coordinator and defensive line coach, before going to Mississippi College.

In October, 1993, he was inducted into the Copiah-Lincoln Junior College Hall of Fame.

Born in Shreveport, La. and reared in New Orleans, Carmody is married to the former Earlyn "Noonie" Regouffre, also of New Orleans. They are the parents of four sons—Steve, Brian, Keith, and Chris. ■ Jerry Hardaway returned to the Cardinals' organization in 1996 after a one-year hiatus (1995) as an area scout for the expansion Carolina Panthers.

Hardaway, 46, who has coached extensively at the collegiate and high school levels, begins his 10th season with the Cardinals.

He coached running backs and the defensive secondary during a three-year tenure at the University of California (1984-86) where he was utilized in national recruiting efforts.

Prior to joining the Cal staff, Hardaway spent six seasons (1978-83) under legendary Head Coach Eddie Robinson as running backs and special teams coach at Grambling State. During Hardaway's stay, the Tigers registered a 49-14-4 composite record and four conference championships.

Hardaway began his collegiate coaching career at Memphis State where he tutored tight ends, offensive tackles, and special teams from 1975-77.

He also coached on the high school level, serving as head coach of Bolton H.S. in Memphis-Arlington, Tennessee in 1974 and head coach and athletic director at his alma mater, Salesian Prep, in Richmond, California prior to joining the Cardinals the first time.

As a player, Hardaway lettered as a fullback and tight end at Southern Illinois University (S.I.U.) where he was named co-captain in 1973.

Hardaway, born in Memphis, Tennessee but reared in Richmond, California, graduated from S.I.U. with a bachelor's degree in speech education in 1974. He also earned a master's degree in sports administration from Grambling State in 1979.

He and his wife, Lisa, have a son, Jason (11), and a daughter, Jheri (9). They reside in Cary, N.C. ■

Bob Mazie

SCOUT

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

Bob Mazie, with 34 years of experience in football, primarily on the college level, begins his fifth year as a regional scout for the Cardinals.

Mazie started his coaching career on the high school level in Pittsburgh, Pa. from 1958-63 where he developed future NFL players Francis Peay and Larry Brown.

Mazie broke into the college ranks from 1965-66 as an assistant coach at Southwestern Oklahoma State, the first of two stints at the Weatherford, Oklahoma school, prior to a five-year tour (1967-71) at Southern Illinois as offensive line coach where he tutored future NFL players Lionel Antoine and Carl Mauck. The latter was the Cards' offensive line coach from 1996-97.

Mazie left S.I.U. to become assistant athletic director and head football coach at Kutztown (Pa.) State, providing the school its first winning season in several years with a 6-4 record in 1971. At Kutztown, he coached future Dallas Cowboy running back Doug Dennison.

The University of Dayton was Mazie's next stop from 1972-75, first as a staff assistant, then as offensive coordinator. During his time directing the offense, the Flyers set several school passing records, including a single-season record of 1,992 passing yards.

Mazie returned to Southwestern Oklahoma State as head coach in 1978, compiling a 38-38-2 (.500) composite slate over eight seasons. Overall, the squad led the Oklahoma Intercollegiate Conference in defense six times (1978-79, '82-83, '85). Mazie was named the league's coach-of-the-year in 1985. One of his standout Bulldog players was future Cardinal punter Carl Birdsong.

Born March 29, 1938 in Pittsburgh, Pa., Mazie played collegiately at Waynesburg (Pa.) College, where he was a four-year letterman, senior captain, and all-conference tight end and defensive end while earning his bachelor's degree in social studies and history in 1957.

He later continued his education and playing career, captaining the Wheeling Ironmen of the Continental Football League in 1961-62 and completing a master's degree in education at Southwestern Oklahoma State in 1965.

Mazie and his wife, Inez, who reside in The Woodlands, Texas, are the parents of four daughters and a son. They have 11 grandchildren. ■

Cole Proctor

SCOUT

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

Cole Proctor joined the Arizona Cardinals as a regional scout in 1994 with 24 seasons of college coaching experience on his resume.

Most recently the head coach at Morehead (Ky.) State from 1989–93, Proctor was named Ohio Valley Conference coach-of-the-year in 1990 when M.S.U.'s defense ranked eighth nationally and led the nation with 117 tackles for loss and 53 quarterback sacks.

Proctor returned to M.S.U. from the position of assistant coach at Utah, where he had served since December, 1986. Prior to joining the Utah staff, he spent one season as an assistant coach at Iowa State.

He spent five seasons (1981–85) at San Diego State (SDSU) as an assistant coach after two seasons (1979–80) as an assistant coach at East Tennessee State. At SDSU, Proctor recruited and coached many athletes who later played in the NFL, most notably tight end Rob Awalt, the former Cardinal who was named NFC rookie-of-the-year in 1987, and Sean McNanie, a Card defensive end in 1988.

Proctor had a successful tenure as head football coach and athletic director at Lees-McRae (N.C.) College for three years (1976–78). Prior to assuming the helm of the Lees-McRae program, he spent three years as head football coach at Keene (N.H.) High School and Chatham (N.J.) Township High School where he was named New Jersey coach-of-the-year by the Newark Star-Ledger.

Proctor was an assistant at Gardner-Webb for three seasons (1969–71) prior to one campaign (1968) as an assistant at Lees-McRae.

During the 1967–68 academic year, Proctor served as a graduate assistant at Morehead State.

Proctor earned a bachelor's degree with an area of concentration in health, physical education, and recreation from Morehead State in 1967, then earned a master's degree in physical education from the same school in 1968.

Born in Meriden, Connecticut, Proctor and his wife, Marti, reside in Phoenix. They have two grown children, Susan and Tom, and one grandchild. ■

John Omohundro

HEAD TRAINER

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

John Omohundro begins his 32nd season with the Cardinals and his 28th campaign as the team's head certified athletic trainer. Only Fred Zamberletti (Vikings) and Kent Falb (Lions) boast longer NFL tenures than Omohundro.

Omohundro and his assistants, Jim Shearer and Jeff Herndon, enjoyed a memorable 1993 season when they were named the National Football League's athletic training staff-of-the-year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS). They were recognized for that achievement at the annual Ed Block Courage Awards Dinner in Baltimore.

During high school, Omohundro's career in athletics and life-long love affair with baseball began wholesomely as the winner of a contest to become bat boy for the Pacific Coast League Salt Lake City Bees in his hometown. Omohundro soon became a jack-of-all-trades around the Bees' clubhouse in the late 1950s and early '60s with future major leaguers like Gene Freese, Dick Hall, and Dick Stuart, performing as a clubhouse assistant, traveling secretary, and assistant trainer for future San Francisco Giants head trainer Al Wylder.

Omohundro began his undergraduate studies while serving as head trainer at the College of Southern Utah from 1961-62. He spent 1962-65 in Laramie, Wyoming at the University of Wyoming, serving as a student athletic trainer during his undergraduate studies. After earning his bachelor's degree in physical education/allied health sciences in 1965, Omohundro remained as a graduate assistant trainer.

He also served six years as a sergeant in the U.S. Army Reserve as a senior medical specialist, including one stint on active duty from January-June, 1967 before beginning his long association with the Cardinals in time for the 1967 football season.

He served as the team's assistant trainer for four seasons (1967-70) before his promotion to head trainer in 1971.

Omohundro has taken an active role in his professional associations throughout his career. He served PFATS as secretary/treasurer from 1976-82, followed by a two-year term as the National Football Conference representative. He also is the former chairman of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) Ethics Committee. In 1993, NATA named Omohundro recipient of its 25-year distinguished service award. Omohundro also is a former chairman of the Missouri State Athletic Trainer Advisory Committee.

Omohundro is a member of the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame, and a member of the International Narcotics Officers' Association.

Omohundro, 55, wife, Martha, sons John (24) and Jim (22), and daughter Neely (17), reside in Tempe, Arizona. ■

Jim Shearer

ASSISTANT
TRAINER

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

Jim "The Machine" Shearer enters his 25th year with the Cardinals, assisting in all aspects of the athletic training and medical areas.

Shearer, fellow assistant certified athletic trainer Jeff Herndon, and head trainer John Omohundro were named the National Football League's 1993 athletic training staff-of-the-year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS) and recognized for that achievement at the annual Ed Block Courage Awards Dinner.

A graduate of the University of Wyoming with a bachelor's degree in physical education, Shearer worked in Gillette, Wyoming as the city's assistant recreation director and head trainer at Gillette High School before returning to Wyoming as a graduate assistant trainer in 1973-74. He joined the Cardinals in 1974.

Born in Worland, Wyoming, Shearer and his wife, Nelma, have a son, Christopher (21), and a daughter, Sarah (17). They reside in Tempe, Arizona. ■

Jeff Herndon

TRAINER

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

Jeff Herndon enters his 13th season on the Cardinals' athletic training staff.

Herndon, fellow assistant certified athletic trainer Jim Shearer, and head certified athletic trainer John Omohundro were named the National Football League's 1993 athletic training staff-of-the-year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS) and recognized for that achievement at the annual Ed Block Courage Awards Dinner.

Herndon earned a master's degree in physical education from Syracuse University in 1985 after completing his undergraduate work at the University of Missouri.

A native of Boone County, Missouri, the 37-year-old Herndon first worked with the Cardinals during the 1984 and '85 preseason training camps. He followed that initiation as athletic trainer at Tascosa High School in Amarillo, Texas from 1985-86 before rejoining the Cardinals in 1986.

Herndon and his wife, Gail, reside in Gilbert, Arizona with their daughter, Elisabeth Marie (5). ■

Benny Greenberg

VIDEO DIRECTOR

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

The 1998 season marks Benny Greenberg's 33rd year of affiliation with the Cardinals as the team's video director.

A St. Louis native who spent his entire life in the Gateway City before the Cardinals' move to Arizona in 1988, Greenberg, 72, owned and operated photography stores until the team's move to Arizona in addition to his film and video duties with the Cardinals that include videotaping games and practices.

Greenberg also worked as a cameraman for St.

Louis television stations, positions he held concurrently with part-time work for the Cardinals that began in 1966. He joined the Cards on a full-time basis in 1970.

He studied mechanical engineering at Washington University in St. Louis for three years in the 1940s.

Greenberg and his wife, Bebe, reside in Scottsdale, Arizona.

They have two grown sons, Mark and Barry, and two grandchildren. ■

Mark Ahlemeier

EQUIPMENT MGR.

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

Mark Ahlemeier enters his 12th season as the Cardinals' equipment manager after succeeding 21-year equipment manager Bill Simmons in April, 1987. He had served as Simmons' assistant for six years.

Ahlemeier, 40, was born in St. Charles, Mo.

and raised in nearby Woodson Terrace. He attended Ritenour High School and Florissant Valley College in St. Louis.

He and his wife, Patti, have three children—daughters Mandy (11) and Molly (2), and son Mark (7). They live in Tempe, Arizona. ■

Steve Christensen

ASSISTANT
EQUIPMENT MGR.

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

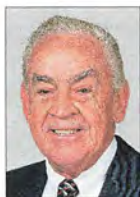

Steve Christensen enters his 11th year as the Cardinals' assistant equipment manager, assisting department head Mark Ahlemeier in all phases of the team's logistical and equipment preparations.

Born in St. Cloud, Minnesota, Christensen attended Bozeman (Mont.) High School before enrolling at New Mexico State University and later Western Montana College to study art education.

After working at both schools as a student equipment manager, the 39-year-old Christensen was appointed to the equipment staff at Arizona State University as an assistant in 1982. He remained with the Sun Devils until joining the Cardinals in June of 1988 shortly after the team's arrival in Arizona.

The father of one daughter, Kelsey (6), Christensen resides in Chandler. ■

Coaches

Vince Tobin

HEAD COACH

Small-town roots. Big-time success. That's Arizona Cardinals Head Coach Vince Tobin.

A product of the small northwest Missouri farming community of Burlington Junction—population 634—Tobin was named the Cardinals' 35th head coach on February 7, 1996.

He arrived in the Grand Canyon State for his first head-coaching position in 1996 armed with respect around the National Football League after coordinating two of the league's finest defenses at Indianapolis and Chicago.

His dossier also included Midwestern breadbasket values—humility, dignity, family, character, dedication, work ethic, and religion.

He emerged from his first season as a head coach with his reputation and integrity intact after first reviving the 4-12 Cardinal squad he inherited, then rallying it from the growing pains of an 0-3 start to a 7-9 season with improvement and promise in evidence in every direction.

Tobin's character and grace were sorely tested in 1997 when his second Cardinal squad lost six of nine games decided in the final minute or overtime en route to an exciting but exasperating 4-12 record.

Small-Town Roots

Tobin learned life lessons as only a farm can teach. He milked cows before dawn. He baled hay. He tended cattle. He slept in an unheated bedroom. He and his six brothers and sisters never missed church. Chores preceded sports and other activities in the family pecking order.

Burlington Junction's streets did not have names. It didn't have high school football, either, so Tobin and his older brother by two years, Bill, former front-office executive with the Chicago Bears and Indianapolis Colts, commuted over 30 miles round trip to attend Maryville High School—the Spoofohounds—in order to participate in the sport that would shape both lives as adults.

Mizzou

Both eventually earned scholarships to the University of Missouri — Bill as a star running back, Vince as an undersized, overachieving defensive back.

The future Cardinal head coach arrived in Columbia, Missouri in 1961 on a partial football scholarship. After Mizzou varsity Head Coach Dan Devine watched Tobin tackle Kansas Jayhawk running back and future NFL Hall of Famer Gale Sayers three times in the open field during a freshmen game, Tobin had earned a full scholarship.

He also learned how to win. During his four seasons in the Missouri program, the Tigers posted a 28-9-4 composite record. As a starter in 1963 and '64, Tobin helped Mizzou post back-to-back 7-3 and 6-3-1 campaigns, respectively, while earning a bachelor's degree in education.

After contemplating the priesthood, Tobin opted for a coaching career, beginning his 29-year journey to the Cardinals at his alma mater in 1965 as a graduate assistant, a position that also eventually led to a master's degree in guidance and counseling. He remained at Missouri as a defensive assistant through the 1976 season, serving as defensive coordinator the final six years.

Coaching stops in the Canadian Football League (British Columbia Lions, 1977-82), the U.S. Football League (Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars, 1983-85), and the National Football League (Chicago Bears, 1986-92; Indianapolis Colts, 1994-95) followed. All told, he served as a defensive coordinator for 18 professional seasons. His teams produced non-losing records in 16 of those 18 campaigns.

Tobin's CFL defenses ranked second overall during his six-year tenure. His USFL schemes helped the Stars rank first defensively in 1983 and '84 and second in '85 while allowing the fewest points all three seasons. En route, the Stars, coached by Jim Mora, future head coach of the New Orleans Saints and Indianapolis Colts, reached the USFL championship game each season, winning the title the final two times.

Da Bears

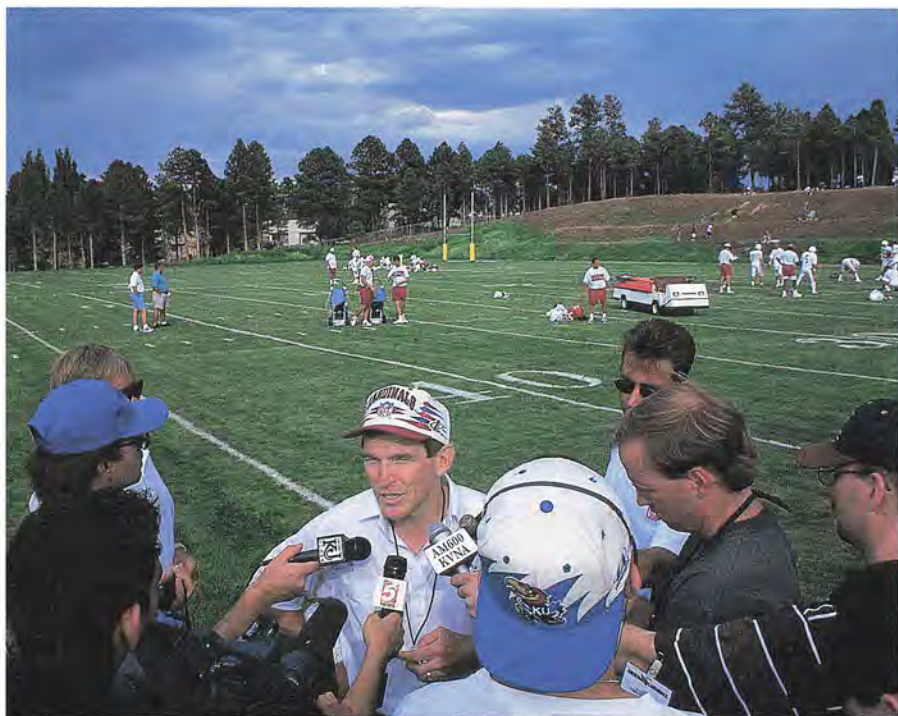

As Chicago's defensive coordinator, Tobin tutored a Bears' defense that set an NFL record for fewest points in a 16-game season (187, 1986). His '86 Chicago unit topped the league by allowing just 258 yards total offense per contest. The 1987 Bears ranked first in rushing defense (94.2) while holding six opponents under 10 points. The 1988 Bears surrendered the league's fewest points (215) and sported the best rushing defense (82.9). Tobin also earned victories over Tampa Bay and Washington in '88 as Chicago's interim head coach for the ailing Mike Ditka.

The Colts

Tobin worked his magic again in Indianapolis in 1994-95, overseeing a Colt defense that was a principal cog in an Indianapolis resurgence. The Colts finished 9-7 during the 1995 regular season before defeating San Diego (35-20) and Kansas City (10-7) in the first two rounds of post-season play. They narrowly missed a trip to Super Bowl XXX at Sun Devil Stadium in a 20-16 loss to Pittsburgh in the AFC Championship Game.

Tobin earned credit for rebuilding the Colts' defense. The 1993 unit he inherited ranked last (28th) in overall defense. Tobin's first Indianapolis group improved to 20th in 1994 and tied for seventh with Carolina in 1995 at 314.2 yards per game.

In the four seasons prior to Tobin's arrival, the Colts' defense finished 24th or lower against the run. In 1994, Tobin's first Indianapolis defense ranked 12th against the rush, then improved further to sixth in 1995 at 91.1 yards per game, the second lowest figure in team history. It also was just the third time in Colt history the opposition averaged less than 100 yards per game on the ground.

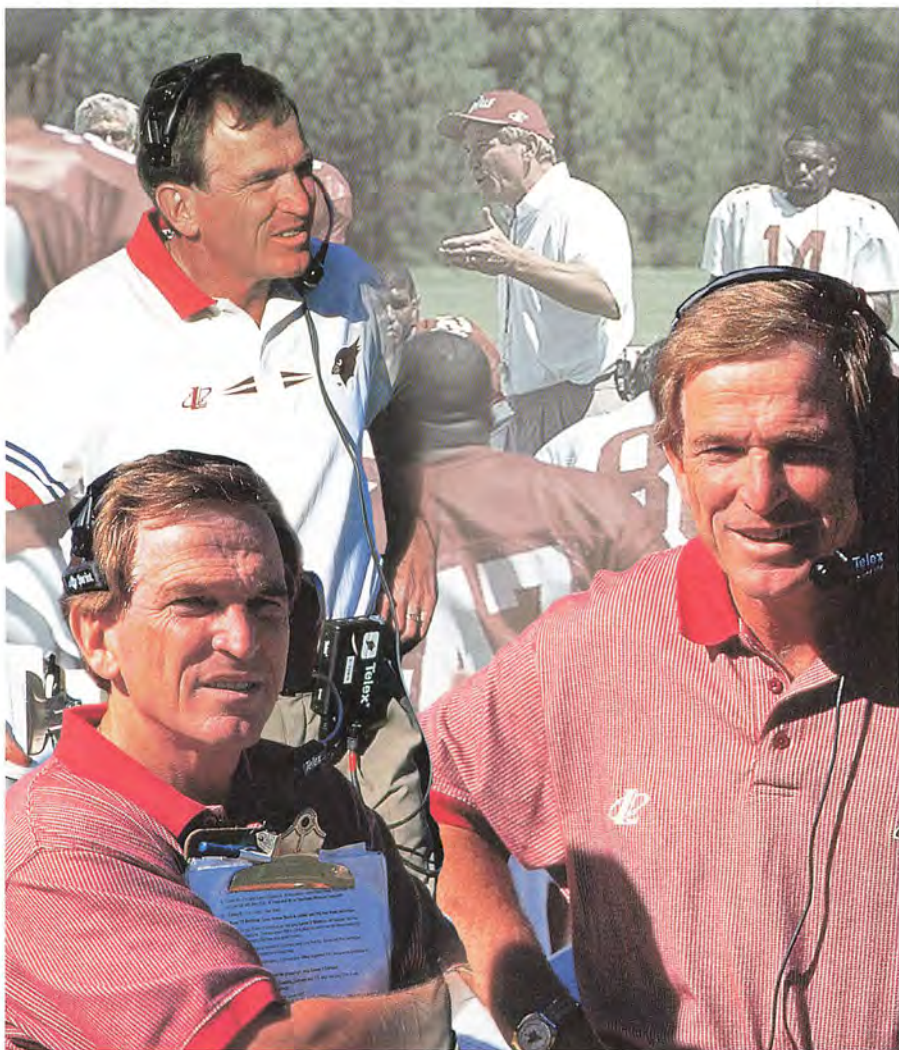

In scoring defense, the Colts improved to 14th (tie) and fifth (19.8), respectively, in 1994 and '95 after ranking 27th in 1993.

Over the last two seasons in Indianapolis, Tobin's defensive unit did not allow an individual to rush for 100 yards in 24 consecutive games (final 13 games of 1994, first 11 games of 1995).

His 1994 Colt defense also boasted the lowest red-zone touchdown percentage (40) in the NFL and did not allow a touchdown at home in the final three games of the season.

Personal

Born September 29, 1943, Tobin is married to the former Kathy Kautzman of Sidney, Montana. They have two children—son Ryan (Aug. 4, 1979), a freshman at the University of Colorado, and daughter Shannon (Dec. 28, 1981), a high-school student at Xavier Prep in Phoenix. ■

Dave McGinnis

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

Dave McGinnis, a 25-year coaching veteran, begins his third year as the Cardinals' defensive coordinator in his third stint on a Vince Tobin coaching staff.

McGinnis' first year at the Cardinals' defensive controls produced a unit that climbed from 26th overall in 1995 to 21st in 1996, allowed nine fewer touchdowns, and fought its way from last in the NFL against the run (140.6 yards per game) in '95 to 21st (116.4) in '96. In addition, Card opponents gained almost one full yard less per rushing attempt than in 1995 (4.5–3.6) as eight of 16 Card opponents failed to crack 100 yards rushing.

The Cards' third-down success on defense last year was noteworthy. Arizona's defenders held opponents to just 76 third-down conversions, second in the NFC to Tampa Bay (75), and allowed only one conversion in 27 third-and-long (11 or more yards) tries.

Consequently, the '97 Cardinal defense forced more punts—94—than all but three other teams (Detroit-97, Dallas-95, and Washington-95), and 36 percent more than in 1996 (69 punts).

In addition, Arizona's defense yielded only 4.85 yards per pass on third down, an improvement of over a yard and one-half compared to 1996 (6.46 yards per third-down passing play).

McGinnis spent 10 seasons (1986–95) as linebackers coach with the Chicago Bears, a span that included nine playoff games. In his decade with the Bears, the Chicago defense ranked among the top six teams in fewest yards allowed seven times as McGinnis was part of a defensive staff that led the NFL in fewest points allowed in 1986 (NFL-record low of 187) and 1988 and ranked first or second in total defense from 1986–88.

In addition, McGinnis coached Pro Bowl players at all three linebacker positions—outside linebackers Otis Wilson and Wilber Marshall, and middle linebacker Mike Singletary, a 1998 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee who made the Pro Bowl every season under McGinnis' tutelage.

The two players—Dante Jones and Joe Cain—who replaced Singletary following his retirement led the Bears in tackles the next three seasons.

Prior to joining the Bears, McGinnis spent 13 years coaching at the major-college level. His first assignment was as freshmen coach at his alma mater, Texas Christian, in 1973–74. In 1975, he moved to Missouri to coach the linebackers and secondary for Tobin, the Tigers' defensive coordinator. After spending the 1978–81 seasons at Indiana State as secondary coach, McGinnis returned to T.C.U. in 1982 for one season as defensive backfield coach before joining Kansas State as defensive ends and linebackers coach from 1983–85.

McGinnis was a three-time letterman (1970–72) and two-year starter (1971–72) at defensive back at T.C.U. where he earned academic all-Southwest Conference honors twice (1971–72). His five interceptions as a junior tied for the conference lead.

He holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from Texas Christian.

Born August 7, 1951 in Independence, Kansas, McGinnis attended Snyder (Tex.) High School. He resides in Phoenix with his wife, Kim. ■

Marc Trestman

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

Marc Trestman begins his first season as the Arizona Cardinals' offensive coordinator.

Trestman, 42, owns a dossier of 10 seasons in the National Football League with Detroit (1997), San Francisco (1995–96), Minnesota (1985–86, '90–91), Cleveland (1988–89), and Tampa Bay (1987).

During his two seasons as offensive coordinator for San Francisco under Head Coach George Seifert (1995–96), the 49ers' offense featured the NFL's highest-rated quarterback in Steve Young and the league's leading receiver in Jerry Rice. In 1995, Trestman guided a 49ers offense that led the NFL in scoring and passing, and ranked second in total offense.

Trestman began his professional coaching career as the offensive backfield coach on Bud Grant's staff in Minnesota in 1985. After two years with the Vikings, he joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as quarterbacks coach before moving to Cleveland where he coached quarterbacks in 1988 and was promoted to offensive coordinator in 1989.

Trestman rejoined the Vikings in 1990 for a two-year stint as quarterbacks coach, then left football from 1992–94 to pursue a career in the investment banking business before accepting Seifert's invitation from Seifert to join the 49ers.

A native of St. Louis Park, Minnesota, Trestman began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at the University of Miami (Fla.) in 1982 while attending law school. During his first season with the Hurricanes, he worked with two redshirt quarterbacks—Bernie Kosar and Vinny Testaverde. The following season he was promoted to quarterbacks coach when the Hurricanes won the national championship.

Trestman played quarterback at the University of Minnesota from 1974–76 after earning high school all-America honors. After completing his college career at Moorhead (Minn.) State University, he signed as a free agent defensive back with the Minnesota Vikings in 1978 and '79. The Vikings released him during training camp both seasons.

An owner of a bachelor's degree in political science from Minnesota, Trestman also earned a Juris Doctor degree from Miami.

Trestman, his wife Cindy, and their two daughters, Sarahanne (6) and Chloe (4), reside in Phoenix. ■

Geep Chryst

QUARTERBACKS

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

George Patrick "Geep" Chryst, the Cardinals' tight ends and quality control coach the past two seasons, was named quarterbacks coach in February of 1998.

The 36-year-old Chryst joined Head Coach Vince Tobin's staff in 1996 following five seasons with the Chicago Bears (1991-95) as director of research/quality control.

Chryst began his coaching career at the University of Wisconsin-Platteville (1987), joined the staff at Wisconsin for one season (1988), then moved to Wyoming to coach the offensive line (1989) and quarterbacks (1990).

In 1991, he was the wide receivers/running backs coach for the Orlando Thunder of the World League before beginning his first season with the Bears. In the spring of 1992, however, he took a 15-day hiatus from Chicago to long snap in three playoff games for short-handed Orlando after being out of uniform for eight years. He used his $7,000 World League playoff money to buy his wife, Shelley, an engagement ring.

His tutoring of Arizona tight ends Pat Carter and rookie Johnny McWilliams paid dividends in 1996. Carter's 26 receptions for 329 yards marked the best production by a Cardinal tight end since Rob Awalt's 33 receptions for 360 yards in 1989. McWilliams authored the best single-game effort by a rookie tight end in the NFL last year with five pass receptions for 54 yards and a touchdown at Washington, November 10.

Last season, first-year Cardinal tight end Chris Gledney caught four touchdown passes, the most by an Arizona tight end since 1988.

A 1984 Princeton graduate with a bachelor's degree in history, Chryst also holds a master's degree in educational administration from Wisconsin. A three-year starter at linebacker as a Princeton undergraduate, Chryst also played baseball for two years.

He was born into an athletic family on June 25, 1962 in Madison, Wisconsin. His father, George, was the successful head football coach at Wisconsin-Platteville from 1980-92. He was instrumental in the formation of the Wisconsin "Cheese League," the annual influx of NFL training camps to Wisconsin colleges, when he enticed the Chicago Bears to begin training at the Platteville campus in 1984. In 1980, George Chryst's first season as head coach, Platteville staged the greatest comeback in NCAA history, overcoming a 33-0 deficit to defeat Wisconsin-Eau Claire 52-43 for the Wisconsin State University Conference championship.

Brother Paul currently is the offensive coordinator at Oregon State. Brother Rick is assistant commissioner of the Atlantic Coast Conference. Sisters Cathy and Dolly were track stars in college; the former was an AAU sprint champion, the latter competed at the University of Wisconsin.

Chryst's unique nickname is a truncation of the initials adorning his first Christmas stocking—"G.P." Chryst.

Chryst's wife Shelley was a scholarship volleyball player at Wyoming and played professionally in the two-player sand version (Women's Professional Volleyball Association) in 1994. She also was assistant volleyball coach at Northwestern (1994) and Wisconsin-Milwaukee (1995).

They are the parents of son Keller (Nov. 17, 1995) and daughter Gillian (July 14, 1997). The family resides in Phoenix. ■

Al Everest

SPECIAL TEAMS

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

Cardinals' special teams coach Alan "Al" Everest took a circuitous route to his first coaching position in the National Football League.

The product of a football family, Everest arrived in Arizona for the 1996 season with 24 years of coaching experience on various levels and venues—the Canadian Football League (CFL), Italian Professional Football League, Arena Football League (AFL), and the Pro Spring Football League (PSFL)—as well as domestic and foreign experience at the college and high school levels.

Arizona's special teams improved markedly in 1996. Kicker Kevin Butler, signed at mid-season, set a franchise single-season field-goal accuracy record of 82.4 percent (14-17). Punter Jeff Feagles matched his 43.8-yard average that sent him to the Pro Bowl in 1995, and rookie Leeland McElroy's 54 kickoff returns for 1,148 yards ranked second in Cardinal history.

Cardinal special teams again were a team positive in 1997. Kevin Williams shined as the club's punt and kickoff returner. His 59 kickoff returns for 1,458 yards both established team records. That spelled a 24.7-yard average return, the best by a regular Card kick returner since 1975. Williams also set a Card single-season record with 1,920 combined kick return yards.

Feagles ranked second in the NFL in net punting average (36.8 yards), and his 44.3-yard gross average was the Cards' best since 1991.

Kicker Joe Nedney, another mid-season addition, recorded 16 touchbacks (35 kickoffs) to better the combined Arizona team total of 11 the previous three seasons.

Everest served as special-teams coordinator for Head Coach Jack Pardee of the CFL Birmingham Barracudas in 1995. His special-teams units ranked among league leaders and were instrumental in the club's 10-8 record and a berth in the CFL playoffs in their inaugural season.

During four years (1988-90, 1993) at the professional level in Italy, Everest, the defensive coordinator, helped lead the Legnano Frogs to two national championships in three Italian title-game appearances and a combined record of 57-9. The Frogs won the European championship in 1989. Everest spent a fifth season in Italy as head coach of the Pesaro Angels in 1991.

Everest began coaching in 1972 as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Southern Methodist, under defensive coordinator Bum Phillips. After two seasons as a graduate assistant at North Texas (1973-74) and as defensive backs coach at Cameron (Okla.) University (1974-75), Everest spent the next five years as athletic director at the American School Foundation in Mexico City where he developed the largest and most successful athletic program in the world for an accredited institution outside the United States. He served as head football coach, posting a 46-7 composite record and winning one national championship.

Seven seasons (1981-87) as head baseball coach at U.S. International, where he led the school to its first winning season at the NCAA Division I level, and his tour in the Italian Football League preceded his involvement in the Pro Spring Football League, the first (1991) as a league talent scout under Walt Michaels, the second (1992) as secondary coach for Arkansas Miners Head Coach Darryl Rogers, the former head coach at Arizona State University.

When the PSFL folded in 1992, Everest served as offensive coordinator on Head Coach Dick Nolan's staff with the San Antonio Force of the AFL.

Everest spent the next two seasons (1993-94) at Colony High School in Lewisville, Texas, helping lead the school to its first undefeated season and playoff appearance.

Everest's father, Andy, coached football for over 40 years, including three years with his son in Italy. In addition to American collegiate stops at Stanford, Utah, California-Santa Barbara, Southern Methodist, and North Texas, the elder Everest also served as athletic director for three years and as an assistant on Head Coach Phillips' staff with the New Orleans Saints. The senior Everest also recruited future Cardinal Hall of Fame safety Larry Wilson to Utah.

Everest's two brothers—Tom (Cal Poly) and Andy (North Texas)—also played college football.

Born August 22, 1950 in El Paso, Texas, Everest attended San Marcos High School. He was a two-year starter at free safety for Head Coach Hayden Fry at Southern Methodist in 1970-71.

Everest holds a doctorate of education (U.S. International), a master's degree (North Texas), and a bachelor's degree (Southern Methodist).

He and his wife, Melissa "Lee," who was raised in Phoenix, have two daughters, Michelle Katherine (Dec. 10, 1988) and Kaycee Fae (April 11, 1996). ■

Joe Greene

DEFENSIVE LINE

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

Charles Edward Greene, known as “Mean Joe” Greene to a generation of football fans and a member of the NFL’s all-time team named in 1994 to commemorate the league’s 75th anniversary, is the Arizona Cardinals’ third-year defensive line coach.

Greene is an 11-season NFL coaching veteran. He tutored the Miami Dolphins’ defensive line for four seasons (1992–95) following five campaigns (1987–91) as the Pittsburgh Steelers’ defensive line coach. During Greene’s tenure on the Pittsburgh coaching staff, the Steelers were the AFC’s top-rated team in giveaway-takeaway ratio. In addition, Pittsburgh finished among the top five AFC teams in run defense four of Greene’s five seasons while also leading the NFL in total defense and pass defense in 1990.

In Miami in 1994, the Dolphins set a club record by allowing only 89.4 yards per game rushing to rank second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL.

Two of Greene’s Cardinal students—defensive tackle Eric Swann and defensive end Simeon Rice—earned numerous post-season accolades in 1996 as Arizona improved from 26th to 21st in total defense from 1995, and from last to 21st against the run. Swann earned his second Pro Bowl berth and assorted all-star honors. Rice was the NFL’s runaway defensive rookie-of-the-year, tied a league rookie record for quarterback sacks with 12.5 (Leslie O’Neil, San Diego, 1985), and was voted a Pro Bowl alternate.

In 1997, unsung defensive tackle Mark Smith, a seventh-round draft choice from Auburn, surprised with six quarterback sacks to lead all NFL rookie interior linemen. Tackle Bernard Wilson’s 66-yard interception return for a touchdown vs. the Eagles on November 2 was the longest pickoff return for a touchdown by a defensive lineman in Cardinal history. And Swann continued his dominant play by registering a sack, forced fumble, fumble recovery, or deflected pass in 12 of his 13 appearances.

Greene, one of the greatest defensive tackles in the history of the National Football League, was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1987 to cap his legendary 13-year playing career (1969–81). He was considered the heart of Pittsburgh’s “Steel Curtain” defense that led the Steelers to four Super Bowl championships. A perennial all-pro tackle for the Steelers who recorded 66 quarterback sacks during his career, Greene was selected to 10 Pro Bowls, including eight consecutively from 1970–77, and was named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame’s “Team of the 1970s.”

In addition to his numerous awards for accomplishments on the playing field, Greene won the prestigious Clio Award for his 1980 Coca-Cola commercial. The spot recently was named the most memorable sports commercial by the American Association of Advertising Agencies.

Numerous television and film appearances followed.

After his retirement in 1982, Greene worked as a color analyst for CBS-TV and owned restaurants in the Dallas area before rejoining the Steelers in 1987.

A unanimous choice as the nation’s top defensive lineman as a senior at North Texas State (now known as the University of North Texas) in 1968, Greene was the fourth player selected in the 1969 NFL Draft. He earned NFL defensive rookie-of-the-year honors the following season.

Greene also has served on his alma mater’s board of trustees.

Born September 24, 1946 in Elgin, Texas, Greene and his wife, Agnes, have three grown children—sons Major and Delon, who both played football at North Texas, and daughter JoQuel. ■

Former Cardinal assistant coach and interim head coach Hank Kuhlmann returned to the team during the past off-season to coach tight ends following five seasons with the Indianapolis Colts (four as special teams coach).

Kuhlmann, 60, served as the Cards' running backs coach under Head Coach Gene Stallings from 1986-89, and succeeded Stallings as the club's interim head coach for the final five games of the '89 season.

In 1990, he served as a regional scout for the Cardinals.

Kuhlmann owns 32 years of coaching experience at the college and professional levels.

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Missouri, as freshmen coach from 1962-65 before being promoted to running backs coach through the 1971 season.

He received his first professional assignment as special teams coach for the Green Bay Packers from 1972-74, then joined Head Coach Dan Devine as running backs and special teams coach at Notre Dame from 1975-77. The Fighting Irish won the national championship in '77.

After returning to the pro ranks from 1978-82 as running backs and special teams coach of the Chicago Bears, Kuhlmann joined the Birmingham franchise of the U.S.F.L. from 1983-85 as assistant head coach/offensive coordinator before beginning his first stint with the Cardinals in 1986.

Following his departure from the Cardinals after the 1990 season, Kuhlmann served as offensive coordinator and running backs coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1991.

During his tenure in Indianapolis, Kuhlmann coached the Colts' tight ends in 1994, then spent the next three seasons (1995-97) as special teams coach. In '96, his efforts resulted in Pro Bowl berths for both Colt kickers—punter Cary Blanchard and place kicker Chris Gardocki.

Born in Webster Groves, Missouri, Kuhlmann was a running back at Missouri from 1956-59 before spending four seasons as a catcher in the St. Louis Cardinals baseball organization from 1959-62.

Kuhlmann and his wife, Donna, have two grown children—Jeff and Tracey.■

Former Arizona State University Head Coach Larry Marmie begins his third year as the Cardinals' defensive backs coach.

Marmie brought 26 years of collegiate coaching experience to the Cardinals in 1996.

His star pupil, cornerback Aeneas Williams, was recognized with his third and fourth Pro Bowl trips in Marmie's first two seasons with the Cardinals. Williams' two 1997 interception returns for touchdowns led the NFC and raised his career total to six, breaking Hall of Famer Larry Wilson's team mark of five.

Marmie, a Barnesville, Ohio native, spent the 1995 season tutoring UCLA's defensive backs following three years (1992-94) as Tennessee's defensive coordinator in his second stint at the Knoxville school.

He was head coach at Arizona State from 1988-91, posting a 22-21-1 composite record, after earlier serving as the Sun Devils' defensive coordinator from 1985-87, a span that included A.S.U.'s 1986 Pac-10 Conference and Rose Bowl championship team. Marmie's '86 Sun Devil defensive unit led the Pac-10 in scoring defense.

The former Eastern Kentucky (E.K.U.) quarterback (1962-65) entered the coaching ranks at Berea (Ky.) High School (1966) following his collegiate playing career before beginning his college coaching career as a graduate assistant at Eastern Kentucky (1967-68). A four-year stint as secondary and defensive line coach at Morehead (Ky.) State (1968-71) followed before returning to E.K.U. for five seasons (1972-76) to coach the defensive line and linebackers.

Marmie later served as defensive coordinator at Tulsa (1977-78), defensive backfield coach at North Carolina (1979-82), and defensive coordinator in his first stay at Tennessee (1983-84) where he was named the Southeastern Conference assistant coach-of-the-year in 1983.

Marmie, born October 17, 1942 in Barnesville, Ohio, holds a bachelor's degree (health, physical education, and recreation) and a master's degree (education) from Eastern Kentucky.

He and his wife, Linda, have three married children—daughters Vicki Ness and Cozy Hays, and son Larry, Jr.—and six grandchildren. ■

Glenn Pires

LINEBACKERS

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

Glenn Pires, a former assistant at Michigan State and Syracuse, enters his third season as the Cardinals' linebackers coach.

Last season, middle linebacker Ronald McKinnon, in his first season as a starter, led the Cardinals with 145 combined tackles, logged eight or more tackles in 12 of 16 games, and posted a team-high eight double-digit tackle efforts.

In 1996, the Cardinal linebacker corps of Eric Hill, Seth Joyner, and Jamir Miller started all 16 games as Arizona climbed from 26th in defense in 1995 to 21st, yielded nine fewer touchdowns, and improved from last in '95 to 21st against the run in '96. In addition, the Cards allowed 21.4 fewer yards per game and almost one full yard less per rushing attempt (4.5-3.6). Hill enjoyed a monster season as he nearly cracked the 100-solo tackle (97) and 200-combined tackle (196) barriers.

Miller ranked second with 139.5 total tackles in 1997.

Pires served as outside linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator at Michigan State in 1995 following six seasons (1989-94) at Syracuse where he was defensive line coach the first two seasons and outside linebackers coach the last four. He also served the Orangemen as assistant recruiting coordinator for one year (1989).

Pires began his coaching career at Melrose (Mass.) High School (1980-82) before matriculating to Syracuse as a graduate assistant (1983-84). He spent four seasons (1985-88) at Dartmouth coaching linebackers and defensive linemen before returning to Syracuse.

He was a four-time letterman in football (offensive line) and track (hammer) at Springfield (Mass.) College where he earned a bachelor's degree in education in 1980. He also holds a master's degree in education from Syracuse.

Born September 13, 1958 in New Bedford, Mass., Pires and his wife, Lynn, are the parents of daughter Jackie (Aug. 8, 1989) and son Michael (July 11, 1991). ■

Third-year Arizona wide receivers coach Vic Rapp's football career has come full circle, continuing in Arizona where it began. He also has reunited with Cardinal Head Coach Vince Tobin for the third time.

Arizona's starting wide receivers—Rob Moore and Frank Sanders—have enjoyed career-best seasons in each of the past two campaigns under Rapp's guidance.

In 1996, Moore's 1,016 yards and 17.5-yard average per catch (58 receptions) were his career highs, the latter good for second in the NFC behind Minnesota's Jake Reed (18.3).

Sanders, in his second NFL season, established a personal-best 69 catches, most in club history by a second-year player, that ranked 11th all-time in team annals.

Rapp's pupils were an integral component of the Cardinal offense that climbed from 24th in 1995 to 12th in 1996 and led the NFL with 214 first downs passing.

Last year, Moore and Sanders outdid their '96 showings. Moore earned his second Pro Bowl trip with career bests of 97 receptions for 1,584 yards. The former is a single-season record for Cardinal wide receivers and ranked second in the NFC. The latter broke Roy Green's Cardinal single-season mark of 1,555 receiving yards (1984) and led the NFL.

Moore logged eight 100-yard games, more than doubling his previous single-season high. His three touchdown grabs December 7 vs. Washington also were a career best and his 68 first-down receptions led the NFL, too.

Sanders authored his first 1,000-yard season with 75 catches for 1,017 yards. He also ranked first in the league with 31 third-down receptions.

As a tandem, Moore and Sanders (172 combined receptions) ranked second in the NFL to Detroit duo Herman Moore and Johnnie Morton (1984) and became the first pair of Cardinal wide receivers to both crack the 1,000-yard barrier in the same season.

Rapp's 31 years in football began as an assistant at the University of Arizona in 1965. He since has logged seven seasons as a college assistant, 19 as a professional assistant (14 in the NFL), six as a head coach in the Canadian Football League (C.F.L.), and one as an advance scout in pro personnel for the Philadelphia Eagles.

Rapp earned his first NFL assignment as running backs/tight ends coach with Houston in 1983, followed by similar positions with the L.A. Rams (1984), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1985–86), and Detroit Lions (1987–88). After four seasons (1989–92) as wide receivers coach for the Chicago Bears' staff that included defensive coordinator Tobin, Rapp took a two-year hiatus from pro football before he was named a pro personnel scout for the Eagles in 1995.

Rapp spent 1994 in the Division A German Football League as head coach of the Erding Bulls, located outside Munich. After assuming the coaching reins of the summer league squad following four early-season losses, he guided the Bulls to the playoffs.

Rapp entered the coaching fraternity in 1965 at Arizona as an offensive line assistant under Head Coach Jim LaRue, then handled the passing game as an assistant at Missouri from 1967–71 when his path first crossed with Tobin. Following five seasons (1972–76) as the offensive coordinator of the CFL's Edmonton Eskimos, he was named head coach of the British Columbia Lions in 1977, compiling a 55–42–4 record in six seasons that included two conference championships.

Rapp played collegiate football at Southwest Missouri State as a guard and linebacker. He holds a bachelor's degree in physical education and guidance and counseling from Southwest Missouri State and two master's degrees from Arkansas—one in physical education, the other in guidance and counseling.

Born December 23, 1935 in Marionville, Missouri, Rapp and his wife, Carol, have three grown daughters—Rhonda, Paula, and Marla. ■

Bob Rogucki

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

Bob Rogucki (row-GUS-key) begins his ninth year as the Cardinals' strength and conditioning coach, a span that covers the tenures of three head coaches—Joe Bugel, Buddy Ryan, and Vince Tobin.

Since joining the Cardinals, Rogucki has developed the weight room at the team's training facility that includes a wide range of equipment from bars and dumbbells to machines while implementing a strength and conditioning program that trains the total body. Rogucki's philosophy is to gear a training regimen specific to the game of football, involving training in a high-intensity mode that builds both muscular strength and endurance. The philosophy involves five body parts primary to the sport—neck, hips, legs, midsection, and torso—and focuses on developing the overall fitness of the athlete, including flexibility, cardio-respiratory fitness, muscular strength and endurance, recovery, and nutrition.

Rogucki served as the strength and conditioning coach at West Point from 1983–89 after similar posts at Weber State (1982) and as an assistant at Penn State (1981).

Rogucki also worked as an assistant for the Washington Redskins during their summer training camps at Dickinson College in Carlisle, Pennsylvania for seven years.

The Rosemont, West Virginia native, born September 27, 1953, was an offensive lineman and linebacker as a high school and college football player. He graduated from Glenville State College in his home state in 1975 before coaching football, basketball, and baseball on the high school level in Ohio, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia prior to accepting his first college coaching position at Penn State in 1981.

The author of several articles on strength and conditioning and a frequent speaker at clinics and public engagements, Rogucki holds a bachelor's degree in health, physical education, and safety from Glenville State College.

He and his wife, Mary, have two children—son Charlie (March 27, 1980), a quarterback at Milford Academy (Conn.), and daughter Katie (Sept. 22, 1984).■

Johnny Roland

R U N N I N G B A C K S

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

Johnny Roland, Head Coach Vince Tobin's former teammate at the University of Missouri and one of the top running backs in Cardinal history, begins the second season as the Cards' running backs coach.

A Pro Bowl runner for the Cardinals from 1967–68, Roland is a veteran of nearly two decades of coaching in the NFL.

Roland, 54, owns an NFL coaching resume that spans 20 seasons with Green Bay (1974), Philadelphia (1976–78), Chicago (1983–92), the New York Jets (1993–94), and St. Louis Rams (1995–96).

During 10 seasons in Chicago, his tutelage of running backs Walter Payton and Neal Anderson helped the Bears lead the league in rushing four times, finish second twice, and third once as the Bears were the NFL's leading rushing team in the 1980s, averaging 153.4 yards per game. In a five-year span from 1984–88, the Bears compiled a 62–17 record (.785), made five playoff appearances, and defeated New England 46–10 in Super Bowl XX in New Orleans.

Roland entered the coaching fraternity in 1974 at Green Bay under Packers' Head Coach Dan Devine, for whom he and Tobin played at Missouri. He followed his former coach to Notre Dame as an assistant in 1975, before logging three seasons (1976–78) under Dick Vermeil in Philadelphia.

Owner of radio station KIRL (AM 1460) in St. Charles, Mo., Roland spent four years in private business (1979–82) before Chicago Bear Head Coach Mike Ditka summoned him to tutor Payton and Anderson from 1983–92 when the Bears compiled a 10-year record of 103–56, a winning percentage of .648, and won 10 or more games seven times. From 1986–92, Roland and Tobin were assistants on Ditka's staff.

A native of Corpus Christi, Texas, Roland was a teammate of Tobin as a two-way (running back and cornerback) starter at Missouri, then achieved NFL offensive rookie-of-the-year honors in 1966.

Both the Cardinals (fourth round) and the N.Y. Jets (first round) selected Roland as a "future" choice in the 1965 drafts, respectively.

After seven years in St. Louis where he was a teammate of Cardinal Vice President and Hall of Fame safety Larry Wilson, Roland concluded his playing career with the New York Giants in 1973.

As a pro running back, Roland collected 3,750 yards rushing, 1,420 receiving, and scored 34 touchdowns.

He remains the Cardinals' no. 4 all-time career rusher with 3,608 yards. He also ranks fourth in career rushing attempts (962), fifth in career rushing touchdowns (27), and fourth (tie with Johnny Johnson) in most career 100-yard rushing games (six).

Roland's 86-yard punt return for a touchdown at Philadelphia on October 2, 1966 is the third longest in team history. He also scored on a 74-yard punt return at Dallas on November 16, 1970.

He authored three of the 43 runs of 50 yards or more in Cardinal history. The longest, a 70-yarder at Washington on November 5, 1967, rates as the 17th-longest jaunt in franchise history, and the sixth longest without scoring a touchdown. He also registered scoring dashes of 54 (vs. New Orleans, December 3, 1967) and 50 yards (at Washington, October 23, 1966).

Roland remains one of only 20 Cardinals to have rushed for 130 or more yards in a game, and one of only five to record 10 or more rushing touchdowns in a single season (10, 1967).

The former Missouri star also is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame's 12-player 1998 induction class.

Roland has two sons, Johnny, Jr. and James, and a daughter, Cynnamon. ■

George Warhop begins his first season as Arizona's offensive line coach following two seasons as an offensive line coach with the St. Louis Rams.

A native of Riverside, California, Warhop played football at Mount San Jacinto College (Calif.) and the University of Cincinnati where he captained the Bearcats in 1982.

He entered the coaching arena in 1983 at his alma mater, Cincinnati, then served on the offensive line staffs at Kansas (1984–86), Vanderbilt (1987–89), when the Commodores fielded one of the Southeastern Conference's top offenses, and New Mexico (1990–91).

From 1991–92, Warhop, was offensive coordinator for the London Monarchs of the World

Football League when the team won the World Bowl in his first season. The Monarchs led the league in offense in 1991 when they allowed just 10 sacks in 10 games.

The following season, Warhop, 36, was offensive line coach at Southern Methodist when the Mustangs reduced their sack total from the previous year by 20 while improving their rushing total by over 900 total yards.

He then served in a similar capacity at Boston College from 1994–95. In his first season with the Golden Eagles, Boston College defeated Kansas State 12–7 in the Aloha Bowl on Christmas Day.

Warhop and his wife, Lori, reside in Phoenix with their children, daughter Olivia (Feb. 23, 1996) and son Jacob (June 24, 1997).■

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

■ Pro Career: Free agent from UCLA, where he played linebacker as a senior, has played his way into the Cards' starting lineup ... physical safety with size and versatility ... two-season totals of 107 tackles and 10 deflected passes in 29 games (eight starts) ... also key contributor on special teams.

■ 1997: Opened at strong safety for seven of 13 contests, including the final three when elevated to the starting role ... in those final three games, collected nearly as many tackles (30) as he did his entire rookie season (32 in 1996) ... finished sophomore campaign with 38 solo tackles, 37 assists, 75 overall stops, 1 tackle for loss, 4 passes defended, and his first career interception ... in seven starting roles, registered 71 tackles for an average of over 10 per game, including four double-digit efforts ... did not play in three games due to chest (two games) and elbow (one game) injuries ... scored first NFL touchdown with recovery of blocked punt in end zone at Washington (Sept. 14) ... big play came on special teams as he recovered a Redskin punt blocked by teammate J.J. McCleskey (Matt Turk punt) in the end zone for a first-quarter touchdown, the first Cardinal blocked punt for a touchdown in 25 years (Norm Thompson vs. Pittsburgh, Oct. 1, 1972) ... victim of two vicious blocks vs. Minnesota (Oct. 5) by Viking receiver Chris Walsh on nearly identical blind-side hits ... the first occurred in the second quarter ... after shaking off the hit, Bennett returned in the fourth period but was again nailed on the same play when Walsh peeled back after a short pass to a teammate and forearmed the unsuspecting, pursuing Bennett ... the former UCLA Bruin remained motionless for a few minutes after both hits ... inactive the next two weeks due to residual soreness in chest/sternum after vicious hits against Minnesota ... with Matt Darby (shoulder/concussion) injured, started at strong safety vs. Tennessee (Oct. 26) and posted eight tackles and batted away a pass ... doubled season total of tackles (12) with seven solo hits and five assists in second consecutive starting role at strong safety to help key a 31-21 win over Philadelphia

(Nov. 2) ... also knocked away two Eagle passes ... led defense with 14 overall tackles, including nine assists, at Dallas (Nov. 9) ... added 14 stops the next week at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 16) ... declared Friday inactive prior to road game at Baltimore (Nov. 23) due to elbow injury ... named starting strong safety for final three contests ... seven tackles and one deflected pass vs. Washington (Dec. 7) ... tied for team lead with 12 combined tackles at New Orleans (Dec. 14) ... season-high 8 solo tackles (11 overall), 1 tackle for loss, and 1 interception of option pass by Falcon running back Jamal Anderson in second quarter, his first career pickoff, in Cards' 29-26 season-ending victory over Atlanta (Dec. 21).

■ 1996: Played in all 16 games with one starting role as a rookie ... led all non-starters with 32 tackles ... quickly became a regular in the "nickel" package on pass coverage and deflected six passes ... opened season with clutch play, recovering an on-sides kick at Indianapolis (Sept. 1) near the end of the game to give the Cards a chance to tie the contest in Arizona's 20-13 loss ... one solo stop in each of the next four games ... big play vs. Tampa Bay (Oct. 20) when he dislodged the ball from Buccaneer tight end Dave Moore on fourth down in fourth period of 13-9 win ... added four tackles against Tampa Bay ... three tackles and season-high three deflected passes in 31-23 win over N.Y. Giants (Nov. 17) ... two solo stops and an assist in 36-30 win over Philadelphia (Nov. 24) ... in first NFL start in place of the injured Darby (thumb), posted six solo stops and six assists at Minnesota (Dec. 1) ... made fine play on special teams when he batted a punt back toward the playing field from the goal line in third quarter as teammate downed the ball at the five-yard line against Dallas (Dec. 8) ... responded the following week with another clutch effort on special teams vs. Washington (Dec. 15) ... his pressure on Turk forced the Redskin punter to drop the football rather than kick it ... officials ruled the play a fumble, negating a Washington recovery and advance.

■ College/Personal: Coached at UCLA by current Cardinal secondary coach Larry Marmie ... played linebacker for the Bruins as a senior ... 61 tackles, 4 forced fumbles, and 3 fumble recoveries (two returned for touchdowns) ... three-year letterman at Morse High School in San Diego, California, where he also ran track ... advanced to the state finals in the 100-meter hurdles as a senior ... political science major at UCLA with interest in corporate law. ■

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

■ Pro Career: Signed with Arizona as unrestricted free agent on April 29, 1998 after six seasons with the N.Y. Giants ... started 53 of 57 games as a Giant from 1992-97 ... career total of 766 completions in 1,391 pass attempts (55.1 percent) for 8,806 yards with 40 touchdowns and 49 interceptions ... played in just three games his first two professional seasons ... earned starting role during 1994 training camp and led Giants to 9-7 mark ... started all 32 games from 1995-96 ... streak of 44 consecutive starts ended last year due to torn chest muscle after six contests ... originally selected by Giants in first round (16th position) of 1992 NFL Supplemental Draft.

■ 1997: Reunited with former Card offensive coordinator and new Giants' Head Coach Jim Fassel, Brown's offensive coordinator during his first season with New York ... started first six games before a chronic torn chest muscle forced him to the bench ... after a four-week recovery period, Fassel had named second-year passer Danny Kanell the starter ... prior to the injury, Brown completed 91 of 171 passes for 1,009 yards with five touchdowns and three interceptions ... logged a 3-3 mark as a starter ... streak of 44 consecutive starts was third among active quarterbacks behind Green Bay's Brett

Favre (84) and Cincinnati's Jeff Blake (47) ... led Giants to 31-17 win over Philadelphia (Aug. 31) in season opener by completing 13 of 27 passes for 193 yards ... passed for one touchdown and ran for another ... connected with fullback Charles Way in opening scoring drive when he faked a reverse and tossed a short pass to Way, who turned the play into a 62-yard gain to the Eagles' eight-yard line ... the 62-yarder was Brown's career-long pass completion ... two plays later, Brown ran up the middle from shotgun formation for a three-yard scoring run ... completed 16 of 35 attempts for 182 yards at Jacksonville (Sept. 7) ... career-high 28 completions in 46 attempts for 269 yards and a score vs. Baltimore (Sept. 14) ... knocked out of game at St. Louis (Sept. 21) for two series with concussion ... helped break a three-game losing skid with 16-25-194 effort in 14-9 win over New Orleans (Sept. 28) ... threw pin-point 32-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Kevin Alexander in the corner of the end zone in the first quarter ... in second quarter, completed eight of nine passes for 82 yards in a 12-play, 84-yard scoring drive, capped by a 14-yard touchdown toss to wide receiver Chris Calloway ... suffered the chest muscle injury on a sack by Saint cornerback Alex

Molden at the end of the game ... started the next week vs. Dallas (Oct. 5), but left the game in the second quarter after aggravating the injury following a blitz by safety Bill Bates ... completed two of seven passes for eight yards before the injury ... inactive third quarterback the next four weeks ... did not play in five more ... first action since injury came in season finale at Dallas (Dec. 21) resulted in 2-9-14 performance in the second half ... it marked the first time he entered a game in a reserve role since finishing the Giants' 44-3 divisional playoff loss at San Francisco in 1994 (Jan. 15). ■1996: Concluded third year as starter with 214 completions in 398 attempts for 2,412 yards with 12 touchdowns and 20 interceptions ... connected on 11 of 27 attempts for 169 yards in season opener vs. Buffalo (Sept. 1), including a short toss that Way turned into a 37-yard touchdown to give the Giants a 17-0 lead in the second quarter of eventual 23-20 overtime loss ... struggled with 10 completions in 19 attempts for only 55 yards at Dallas (Sept. 8), including an interception by Cowboy Kevin Smith on the game's first play from scrimmage ... it marked the second consecutive season Brown was intercepted on the first play from scrimmage at Texas Stadium ... career-high four interceptions the following week against Washington (Sept. 15) ... guided Giants to consecutive wins with 9-13-11 showing in 13-6 win over N.Y. Jets (Sept. 22) ... 18-29-167 effort in 15-10 victory over Minnesota (Sept. 29) ... opened Viking game with five consecutive completions in first-quarter scoring drive ... sacked eight times in 19-10 loss to Philadelphia (Oct. 13) ... completed career-high 26 passes in 43 attempts for 298 yards at Washington (Oct. 20), including 216 yards in the second half ... opened third quarter by completing five of seven passes for 82 yards in 10-play, 91-yard scoring drive, capped by a 31-yard scoring toss to wide receiver Thomas Lewis ... completed two of three passes for 33 yards in first quarter vs. Arizona (Nov. 3), but forced from game with a bruised back and back spasms after hit by Cardinal defensive end Simeon Rice ... Kanell finished in the Giants' 16-8 win ... started the following week at Carolina (Nov. 10) without much practice and completed six of seven passes for 91 yards in the Giants' first two possessions, capping both drives with touchdown passes ... also tossed two interceptions in the fourth quarter of 27-17 loss ... connected on 12 of 18 attempts for 110 yards and a score in 20-6 win over Dallas (Nov. 24) ... replaced by Kanell in fourth quarter at Philadelphia (Dec. 1) after completing just three of 11 passes for 31 yards with two interceptions and suffering four sacks in 24-0 shutout loss ...

directed scoring drives of 80 and 78 yards en route to 14-7 halftime lead at Miami (Dec. 8), including 4-5-51 statistics on first series ... aggravated bruised left shoulder on sack by Dolphin cornerback Calvin Jackson but returned after receiving special padding beneath shoulder pads ... finished the game 21-28-169 with one score ... completed eight of 18 passes for 42 yards and a pair of interceptions in first half vs. New Orleans (Dec. 15) before yielding to Kanell in the third quarter ... concluded season with 14 completions in 38 attempts for 215 yards vs. New England (Dec. 21). ■1995: Career single-season bests with 254 completions in 456 attempts for 2,814 yards and a 73.1 passer rating as 16-game starter ... also rushed 45 times for 228 yards (5.1-yard average) with four touchdowns ... single-game highs with 50 attempts (sixth most in Giant history) and 23 completions at Green Bay (Sept. 17), and 299 yards passing yards at Seattle (Nov. 5) ... 254 pass completions and 456 attempts most by a Giant since 1988 (Phil Simms, 254-479) ... opened season with 20 completions in 34 attempts for 155 yards vs. Dallas (Sept. 4) ... 10 of 14 passes for 151 yards and a score in 20-17 overtime loss at Kansas City (Sept. 10) ... engineered Giants' first victory with 19-27-258 effort in 45-29 triumph over New Orleans (Sept. 24) ... connected with Calloway on 38-yard touchdown play for the Giants' go-ahead points, a 21-17 second-quarter lead ... played into second half vs. Philadelphia (Oct. 15) with nine completions in 18 attempts for 82 yards but was sacked five times and replaced by Tommy Maddox ... connected with wide receiver Mike Sherrard for 57-yard scoring strike in 24-15 win at Washington (Oct. 29) ... career-high 299 yards at Seattle (Nov. 5) by virtue of 20 completions in 41 attempts and two touchdowns ... also booted 15-yard quick kick against Seahawks ... sacked seven times at Philadelphia (Nov. 19) ... broke four-game losing skid with 17 completions in 27 attempts for 144 yards in 10-6 win at Arizona (Nov. 30) ... guided club 83 yards in 12 plays with second-half kickoff, capped by a 12-yard scoring strike to Sherrard ... established single-game efficiency mark with 10 completions in 12 attempts (.833) in 20-13 victory over Washington (Dec. 10) ... broke 13-13 tie with 40-yard touchdown pass to Calloway with 1:18 left ... equalled career single-game high with 47 yards rushing in narrow 21-20 loss at Dallas (Dec. 17) ... completed 10 of 20 passes for 111 yards, and four of his five rushing attempts netted first downs against the Cowboys ... closed season with 209 yards passing on 21 completions and 36 attempts vs. San Diego (Dec. 23).

■1994: Earned starting job prior to third preseason game after training camp and preseason challenges from Kent Graham ... in 15 starts, Giants forged 9-6 record ... completed 201 of 350 pass attempts (57.4 percent) for 2,536 yards with 12 touchdowns and 16 interceptions ... led Giants to final-minute victories in three of final four games ... in first game as a starter, threaded 10 of 20 passes for 171 yards and a 51-yard scoring strike to Calloway—his first NFL touchdown—in 28-23 victory over Philadelphia (Sept. 4) ... also booted 33-yard quick kick vs. Eagles ... followed with 11-17-119 showing in 20-17 win at Arizona (Sept. 11), including a two more touchdown passes ... took the Giants to their third consecutive win vs. Washington (Sept. 18) with 221 yards passing on 14-19 afternoon, highlighted by a 30-yard touchdown pass to Sherrard in the second quarter ... after throwing four touchdown passes and two interceptions in first three games, managed just three scoring tosses and suffered 10 interceptions in next six outings as Giants battled through six-game losing skid ... four of the losses occurred by 5, 7, 4, and 3 points ... low lights of the stretch included seven sacks and two interceptions at New Orleans (Oct. 2), four sacks and three interceptions vs. Minnesota (Oct. 10), and a 4-17-56 passing evening in 38-10 "Monday Night Football" loss at Dallas (Nov. 7) ... did not play in 10-9 loss at Arizona (Nov. 13) the following week when Graham started and played the entire game ... resumed starting role at Houston (Nov. 21) but was knocked out of the game with a concussion on helmet-to-helmet collision with Oiler linebacker Lamar Lathon in the second quarter after completing four of seven passes for 19 yards ... Giants eventually won 13-10 ... threw two touchdown passes and ran for another in 21-19 win at Washington (Nov. 27) ... completed 10 of 17 passes for 161 yards, including touchdowns of 34 yards to Calloway and six yards to Sherrard ... one-yard scoring run in first quarter ... completed 17 of 33 passes for 266 yards in 16-13 win at Cleveland (Dec. 4) ... orchestrated game-winning drive against Browns by completing four of seven passes for 53 yards, including a 26-yard pass on third-and-15 to Calloway, a 13-yard pass to Sherrard on third-and-nine, and a seven-yard run on third-and-one to keep the drive alive ... again rose to the occasion vs. Cincinnati (Dec. 11) with 16-26-222 production ... in final two minutes, connected on all three pass attempts for 45 yards as Giants marched 66 yards in four plays, capped by Rodney Hampton's three-yard touchdown run in 27-20 win ... kept game-winning drive going at Philadelphia (Dec. 18) with 34-yard pass play to Dave Meggett on third-and-16 in fourth quarter to set the stage for a game-winning field goal in 16-13 victory ... closed season with 11 completions in 19 attempts for 141 yards and a 49-yard touchdown pass to Sherrard in 15-10 win over Dallas (Dec. 24) ... prompted another key score when his 24-yard quick kick pinned the Cowboys inside their own 10-yard line and they fumbled the ball out of the end zone for a safety.

■1993: Rotated with Graham as the number two quarterback behind Phil Simms for the final five games of the season, including both post-season contests ... inactive for 13 games ... only appearance was at New Orleans (Dec. 20) ... finished playoff loss at San Francisco (Jan. 15) with six completions in 10 attempts for 56 yards and one interception. ■1992: Signed with just five days remaining in training camp ... appeared in two games, inactive for 10 ... first action of season in relief of Graham at Dallas (Nov. 26) resulted in two completions in three attempts for six yards, but was sacked three times in the Thanksgiving Day contest ... two weeks later at Phoenix (Dec. 12) completed two of four passes for 15 yards in relief, but left contest with broken thumb and spent final two games of the season on the injured reserve list. ■College/Personal: Led the Atlantic Coast Conference in passing with 2,794 yards and 20 touchdowns in 1991 as a junior at Duke ... a redshirt freshman in 1989, started the final three games for the Blue Devils and averaged 432 yards passing with 11 touchdowns to lead Duke to a berth in the All-America Bowl ... set a school record as a freshman with a 479-yard passing effort against North Carolina ... finished the season with a 161.0 passer rating ... prep all-America at Westfield (N.J.) High School where he passed for more than 2,000 yards as a senior ... also earned most-valuable-player honors in basketball and achieved first-team all-New Jersey notice in lacrosse ... bachelor's degree with double major in history and political science from Duke ... born Feb. 25, 1970 in Summit, New Jersey ... season-ticket holder of the NBA's New York Knicks ... wife's name is Katy.■

■Pro Career: One of the premier left offensive tackles in the National Football League ... seven-time Pro Bowl selection (1990-96), including four (1991-92, '94-95) as a starter ... Pro Bowl alternate last year ... signed by Arizona as an unrestricted free agent on February 28, 1996 ... veteran of 13 pro seasons and 194 games ... since the beginning of his stretch of consecutive Pro Bowl berths in 1991 through his final season (1995) in the Motor City, Detroit posted 46 regular-season wins, topped only by Dallas (60) and San Francisco (58) during the span ... only the Cowboys and Kansas City (five) boasted more conference playoff berths than the Lions during the same period ... appeared in 164 games—163 as a starter—as a Detroit Lion, the most in team history by an offensive lineman ... sixth player selected in the 1985 NFL Draft. ■1997: Started 14 games at left tackle to earn Pro Bowl alternate status ... saw three different guards open next to him (Aaron Graham, Rob Selby, Matt Joyce) ... helped quarterback Jake Plummer establish team and NFL rookie passing marks and earn consensus all-rookie honors ... missed first game due to injury since 1993 after aggravating a foot injury during pre-game warm-ups at Dallas (Nov. 9), a span of 65 games ... did not play (inactive) at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 16) after being unable to move satisfactorily during pre-game warm-ups ... recovered from foot injury and started in 16-13 victory at Baltimore (Nov. 23) ... played majority of game at left tackle despite passing a kidney stone two days prior to the game ... the following week vs. Pittsburgh (Nov. 30) played entire game despite battling through remaining discomfort following passage of the kidney stone, residual foot injury, and the flu that hindered his practice throughout entire week. ■1996: Anchored young and unsettled offensive line in first season with

Arizona ... consistency allowed Cardinals to improve offense from 24th in 1995 to 12th in 1996, rank sixth in passing, and allow 19 fewer quarterback sacks from the year before ... started all 16 games at left tackle and earned Pro Bowl reserve honors ... teammate injuries paired him with four different left guards ... Duval Love (knee) started the first nine games, Rob Selby (knee) the next four, rookie James Dexter (knee) one, and converted rookie center Aaron Graham the final two outings ... despite a stomach virus that limited him to liquids the entire weekend, authored valiant effort in 37-34 overtime victory at Washington (Nov. 10), effectively neutralizing Redskins Pro Bowler Ken Harvey in a classic match of pass protector versus pass rusher. ■1995: Key figure on offensive line as Detroit led the league with 6,113 combined yards, an average of 382 yards per game and six yards per offensive play ... the team also established a club record for points (436) ... the Lions became the first team in NFL history to have a quarterback throw for 4,000 yards (Scott Mitchell, 4,338), a running back rush for 1,500 yards (Barry Sanders, 1,500), and a receiver post more than 1,500 reception yards (Herman Moore, 1,686) ... designated team's franchise player ... sat out all of training camp and the first week of the season due to contract negotiations, missing the season opener at Pittsburgh ... it was Brown's only missed start in 164 appearances as a Lion ... first 1995 appearance was Detroit's week two assignment at Minnesota (Sept. 10) ... entered game when guard Doug Widell sprained an ankle on the first play and tackle Mike Compton moved to guard ... started the final 14 contests as Detroit won its final seven games to qualify for the playoffs with a 10-6 mark ... concluded season with his sixth consecutive Pro Bowl honor. ■1994: Paved the way for the Lions to lead the NFC with 2,080 rushing yards as Sanders gained 1,883 yards with 10 100-yard games ... shut down Cowboy Charles Haley to no tackles vs. Dallas (Sept. 19) after the talented defensive lineman posted five and one-half sacks in his previous two games ... also held Bruce Smith without a sack vs. Buffalo (Nov. 24) en route to a Pro Bowl campaign. ■1993: Played in just 11 games but still garnered Pro Bowl honors ... suffered an ankle injury in the second quarter of the season opener vs. Atlanta (Sept. 5) ... did not play in the next four games ... returned to start vs. Seattle (Oct. 17) but aggravated the injury in the first quarter ... inactive the next week vs. the L.A. Rams (Nov. 24) ... returned to the lineup at Minnesota (Oct. 31) and finished the season. ■1992: Earned second consecutive Pro Bowl starting nod ... also a consensus all-pro selection ... he and left guard Shawn Bouwens were the only two Lion offensive linemen to start every game as injuries contributed to a 5-11 record. ■1991: Honored with first Pro Bowl starting berth ... saw his consecutive streak of starting assignments end at 67 when he suffered a shoulder injury and was sidelined vs. L.A. Rams (Nov. 17) ... made 100th start of his career at Chicago (Nov. 3) ... returned to start the final five games of the season and two playoff contests ... anchored offensive line that helped Lions forge single-season record of 12 victories (four losses) en route to the NFC title game. ■1990: Underwent off-season arthroscopic knee surgery that limited him to one practice per day during training camp ... still opened at left tackle for all 16 games ... named to his first Pro Bowl squad. ■1989: Played throughout the year with a nagging knee injury ... still managed to start all 16 games ... took unexpected lateral from quarterback Bob Gagliano for three-yard gain at N.Y. Giants (Sept. 17) ... saw the fifth different left guard start next to him in the last five seasons ... voted a Pro Bowl alternate. ■1988: Endured early-season knee ailment ... collected Pro Bowl alternate status ... started all 16 games. ■1987: Started all 11 appearances he played in ... suffered knee injury in season opener at Minnesota (Sept. 13) on field-goal attempt ... missed the game the following week vs. the L.A. Raiders (Sept. 20) to snap string of 33 consecutive starts ... named a Pro Bowl alternate. ■1986: Became only Lion offensive lineman to start every game in two seasons. ■1985: Consensus all-rookie selection ... led all offensive players in minutes played as 16-game starter at left tackle ... would have played every offensive down during the season but was ejected at New England (Dec. 8) after a fourth-quarter altercation with Patriot linebacker Steve Nelson. ■College/ Personal: Consensus two-time all-America and all-Southeastern Conference pick at Florida ... selected with teammate Bennie Blades as two of the top high school players in Florida history (1988 Sports Illustrated college football preview issue) ... earned all-Florida honors as inside linebacker at Miami Springs High School ... dedicated to serving the community ... in 1991, established the Lomas Brown Foundation to help support children's charities and scholarships at Pontiac Central and Northern high schools in suburban Detroit ... host of a weekly radio show in Detroit with all proceeds going to his foundation ... very active in the Ronald McDonald House program benefitting seriously ill children and their families ... the Lions' 1989-91 "Travelers/NFL Man-of-the-Year Award" nominee for his community contributions ... NFL "Extra Effort Award" winner in 1991 ... a 1992 recipient of the Five Outstanding Young Michiganders award given by the Michigan Jaycees ... in 1992 he authored "Letters To Lomas," a weekly advice column in the Detroit Free Press answering questions from area teenagers ... 1991-93 honorary chairman for Beaumont Hospital's annual fund-raising effort via the Children's Miracle Network Telethon ... continuing education since rookie season culminated in bachelor's degree in public recreation from Florida in August, 1996 ... cousin of former San Francisco 49er, Green Bay Packer, and Philadelphia Eagle lineman Guy McIntyre and Green Bay defensive end Eric Curry ... entrepreneur oversees three business ventures—licensee for a nutritional drink, pre-paid telephone card distribution, and parking lot management in Detroit ... he and wife Dolores have three daughters—Antoinette (May 30, 1984), Ashley (July 30, 1986), and Adrienne (March 9, 1988). ■

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

■Pro Career: Played in two games as a rookie in 1995, none in '96, two last year ... allocated to Barcelona Dragons of the World League spring of '97 ... returned to Arizona prior to World League season with fatigued throwing shoulder ... remained with Cardinals to participate in off-season programs instead of returning to Europe.

■1997: Played in two games with one starting role ... reserve quarterback in first five games ... inactive third quarterback for final eight contests ... opened season as understudy to starter Kent Graham ... after two appearances (one start) near mid-season, yielded to rookie Jake Plummer ... did not play in first five games as Graham went wire-to-wire ... first playing time of season vs. N.Y. Giants (Oct. 12) ... entered game at the end of first half for a kneel-down after Graham suffered a sprained ankle and knee ... completed 18 of 33 attempts for 222 yards in the second half but tossed two interceptions and lost the ball on a sack ... vaulted over from one yard in fourth quarter for his first NFL score ... handed first pro start the following week at Philadelphia (Oct. 19) ... connected on 11 of 22 attempts for 94 yards but was sacked five times and lost a fumble against the Eagles' pressure defense ... replaced early in the fourth quarter by Plummer, who guided Cards 98 yards in 14 plays for a touchdown and a 10-7 lead in a contest the Cards eventually lost 13-10 in overtime ... Plummer was named the starter the following week ... Case did not play the remainder of the season ... in preseason play, completed 20 of 35 passes for 219 yards and rushed four times for 38 yards. ■1996: No any game action as Boomer Esiason and Kent Graham split quarterback duties ... declared inactive third quarterback in 13 of 16 games ... after Graham suffered a knee injury, was elevated to active roster as reserve quarterback at Washington (Nov. 10), vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 17), and vs. Philadelphia (Nov. 24) as Esiason won all three outings as the starter. ■1995: Saw action in only two outings, inactive for 12 others ... received first taste of the NFL in the home opener vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 10) when he successfully converted a two-point conversion attempt late in the game on an option play around right end, but the score was nullified by penalty ... after being the inactive third quarterback most of the season, he was designated as the second quarterback vs. the N.Y. Giants (Nov. 30) ... saw unexpected action in the fourth quarter when starter Dave Krieg suffered a "stinger" in his left arm ... Case entered the game midway through the drive ... completed his first NFL pass attempt in a third-and-long situation with a 19-yard strike over the middle to running back Larry Centers ... Case then tossed an interception near the goal line to end the drive. ■College/Personal: Holds virtually every single-game, single-season, and career passing mark at New Mexico ... responsible for 98 touchdowns, ranking second in NCAA Division I-A history behind Ty Detmer's 135 scores ... only player in NCAA Division I-A history to throw for over 8,000 yards and rush for over 1,000 yards ... led squad to its first winning season in 11 years ... only player in the nation to rank in the top 25 in total offense (256.3 yards per game, 19th) and scoring (7.6 points per game, 23rd) ... earned all-Texas honors at Permian High School in Odessa, Texas ... led team to Class 5-A title, compiling a 16-0 record in his final campaign ... the school was the top-ranked prep squad in the nation by ESPN and second by USA Today ... led team to the Texas playoffs three consecutive years, amassing a gaudy 41-5 composite record ... lettered in baseball as an outfielder, first baseman, and pitcher ... member of the National Honor Society ... pre-med student at New Mexico with double major in communications and biology ... graduated in 1995 with a bachelor's degree in biology ... earned a National Football Foundation Hall of Fame post-graduate scholarship while picking up conference all-academic honors as well with a 3.3 grade-point average ... spent the summer of 1994 at the school's medical school doing research for Rey's Syndrome ... mother (Sharon Case) chose his unique first name after her favorite television actor of the 1960s, Stoney Burke ... younger brother Stormy was a quarterback at Texas A&M.

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

■ Pro Career: One of the NFL's most versatile performers ... crowd-pleasing Pro Bowl running back with a never-say-die attitude ... equally at home carrying or catching the football ... the NFL's top pass-catching running back ... became the first NFL running back to crack the 100-reception plateau when he made 101 grabs in 1995 ... the 101 total broke the previous record of 92 catches set by San Francisco's Roger Craig in 1985 ... it also established an overall Cardinal franchise single-season record, bettering wide receiver J.T. Smith's 91 receptions in 1987 ... added 99 catches in '96 ... in 1995-96, Centers posted the two top receiving seasons by any Cardinal and every running back in NFL history ... since 1993, Centers has caught more passes (397) than any back in the league ... ditto since 1992 (451) ... the Cardinals leading receiver from 1993-96 with 66 grabs in 1993, 77 catches in '94, 101 in '95, and 99 in '96 ... first running back to lead the Cards in receiving for two or more consecutive campaigns ... led Cardinals with 66 catches in 1993, the first time a running back led the club in receiving since Terry Metcalf (50) in 1974 ... 77 receptions in 1994 broke the club mark for a running back by Ottis Anderson (70, 1984) ... 277 receptions from 1994-96 (77, 101, 99) are the best three-year total in Cardinal history, bettering Smith's mark of 254 grabs from 1986-88 (80, 83, 91) ... also superb special-teams player early in career. ■ 1997: Endured patience-testing season with just 155 "touches" from scrimmage (rushing attempts/pass receptions)—his fewest combined totes of the football since 1993 ... still managed 54 pass receptions (409 yards) to rank second among NFC running backs (Amp Lee, St. Louis Rams, 61) ... rushed 101 times for 276 yards (2.7-yard average) with one touchdown ... streak of 91 consecutive appearances ended Oct. 5 vs. Minnesota when he was inactive with a knee injury ... in season-opener at Cincinnati (Aug. 31), rushed 11 times for 20 yards, including a one-yard plunge as he stretched the football over the plane of the goal line, and caught five passes for 32 yards ... uncharacteristic fumble with 1:18 left in the game at the Bengal 37-yard line ... Cincinnati converted the turnover into a touchdown and final 24-21 margin of victory ... atoned for the fumble the next week against the Bengals in 25-22 overtime victory against Dallas (Sept. 7) with a 29-yard catch-and-run to the three-yard line in overtime to set up the game-winning field goal. ... uneventful game at Washington (Sept. 12) with six rushing attempts for 20 yards and six catches for 42 yards ... eight receptions for 58 yards and carried the ball just four times for four yards in a frustrating day against Buccaneers' talented defense at Tampa Bay (Sept. 28) ... inactive vs. Minnesota (Oct. 5) due to knee sprain, his first missed game in 91 contests ... returned to action with four pass receptions for 37 yards vs. N.Y. Giants (Oct. 12) ... rushed 11 times for 37 yards and caught one pass for 16 yards in 13-10 overtime loss at Philadelphia (Oct. 19) ... pulled Cards out of hole at their own two-yard line in fourth quarter against Eagles with an eight-yard run ... later in drive converted second-and-15 situation with 16-yard pass play from rookie quarterback Jake Plummer ... Cards continued on a 98-yard, 14-play drive to take 10-7 lead with three minutes left ... most active day of season vs. Tennessee (Oct. 26) with 17 touches of the ball (14 rushing attempts and three pass receptions) as he was utilized extensively in first half ... overall rushed 14 times for 57 yards and caught three passes for 22 yards ... meager one net yard on nine rushing attempts and caught two passes for four yards vs. Philadelphia (Nov. 2), but provided lead blocks for Leeland McElroy to gain 67 yards on 13 carries for impressive 5.2-yard average per carry in 31-21 victory ... led club with 10 rushing attempts but managed just 34 yards vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 16) ... active role in game plan during 16-13 win at Baltimore (Nov. 23) with eight rushing attempts for 36 yards and six pass receptions for another 49 yards ... climaxed a frustrating season with 20 yards rushing on three attempts and four pass receptions for 32 yards in season finale vs. Atlanta (Dec. 21) ... caught game-winning pass with nine seconds left on one-yard toss from Plummer in the right flat in the 29-26 final ... also converted third-and-eight play in first quarter with 10-yard reception, then set up Cards' second score of the day with a 15-yard reception and 13-yard run on consecutive plays in second period. ■ 1996: Produced a curtain-call season to his unparalleled 1995 campaign with 99 pass receptions for 766 yards and seven touchdowns, 425 yards and two touchdowns rushing on 116 carries, and innumerable clutch efforts both running and catching the football en route to a second Pro Bowl berth ... finished third in NFC receiving behind San Francisco's Jerry Rice (108 receptions) and Detroit's Herman Moore (106) ... ranked 11th in total yardage (1,191) ... finished season with 28 third-down receptions, good for second in the conference behind Detroit's Brett Perriman (29) ... completed the most prolific 20-game stretch of pass receiving by a running back in league history on September 29 vs. St. Louis when his career-best 13 catches—the 1996 NFC high—raised his 20-game total to 131 receptions ... corralled 11 passes for 108 yards, including seven for 72 yards in the second half and three to convert third-down situations, at Indianapolis (Sept. 1) ... career-best 13 receptions (83 yards) and a five-yard touchdown toss from quarterback Kent Graham in the fourth quarter of 31-28 overtime win against St. Louis (Sept. 29) ... the 13 receptions were the most by a Cardinal player in 34 years (Sonny Randle, 16, 1962) ... led team in both rushing (5-24) and receiving (8-40) against Cowboys' top-rated defense at Dallas (Oct. 13) ... caught second-quarter pass in the flat from Graham and niftily brushed Buccaneer defender Derrick Brooks aside and trotted into the end zone to give Cards a 10-0 lead in 13-9 victory over Tampa Bay (Oct. 20) ... grabbed scoring tosses from one and two yards in third period vs. N.Y. Jets (Oct. 27), his first two-touchdown receiving game as a pro ... caught eight passes for 56 yards at the N.Y. Giants (Nov. 3), including five catches in valiant fourth-quarter comeback bid of 16-8 defeat ... after touching the ball just once (one rush, no yards) in first half at Washington (Nov. 10), came to life in second half with six pass receptions for 55 yards and nine rushing attempts for 38 yards and a touchdown in 37-34 overtime win ... also recovered a fumble by teammate Anthony Edwards at midfield in fourth-quarter scoring drive that brought Cards to within 34-27 with seven minutes remaining ... matched season-low two receptions vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 17), but career-long 39-yarder set up Cards' second touchdown in first quarter as he bulled his way to the one-yard line, dragging Giant defenders along the way ... also rushed 10 times for 43 yards, including a 17-yard run on his first carry of the game, in 31-23 victory ... toted the ball 13 times for 43 yards, including a 24-yard run to the Eagle 12-yard line in the third quarter, in 36-30 victory over Philadelphia (Nov. 24) ... also caught two-yard scoring pass in the fourth quarter to give Cards 29-20 lead ... impressive second half at Minnesota (Dec. 1) with a 17-yard run, eight pass receptions for 68 yards, and two scoring plays—one-yard run and nine-yard pass reception ... keyed a game-opening drive with two pass receptions to convert third-down situations and capped it with a six-yard touchdown grab in 27-26 victory vs. Washington (Dec. 15), marking Arizona's first opening-drive touchdown in 42 games ... closed season with five rushing attempts for 28 yards in first half and six pass catches overall for 43 yards at Philadelphia (Dec. 22) ... in first Pro Bowl appearance (did not play in 1995).

rushed nine times for 38 yards and caught one pass for 12 yards. ■1995: Runaway Pro Bowl selection at fullback with 101 pass receptions for 962 yards (9.5-yard average) and 254 yards rushing on 78 attempts ... ranked first among running backs with 101 catches, ninth overall in the conference ... led the league in third-down receptions with 33 ... paced the Cardinals in receiving nine times in 16 games and caught five or more passes in 13 contests ... opened the season with 11 grabs in the first two outings ... snared five passes for 37 yards in 20-17 victory at Detroit (Sept. 17) ... wriggled, juked, and spun his way to 83 yards on seven receptions at Dallas (Sept. 24), including a 13-yard grab from quarterback Dave Krieg for a second-quarter touchdown ... harnessed for just two catches in first half vs. Kansas City (Oct. 1), but responded with seven receptions for 68 yards in the second stanza ... provided the spark when needed vs. Washington (Oct. 15) with inspirational runs, dodging tacklers and dragging others for extra yardage, and scoring on a nine-yard run in the third quarter to give Arizona a 17-13 lead en route to a 24-20 victory ... on that scoring drive, he accounted for 46 of the Cards' 85 yards with two third-down conversions on pass receptions of 20 yards on a third-and-14 situation and eight yards on third-and-five ... polished the drive with back-to-back runs of nine yards, taking the second into the end zone standing ... set the tone for another outstanding effort with a 23-yard gain on the game's first play in a 20-14 overtime win against Seattle (Oct. 29), then caught nine passes overall for 73 yards and collected 28 yards on eight rushing attempts ... after handling the ball just five times the previous week—three pass receptions, two rushes—in a loss at Carolina (Nov. 19), turned in superb effort with 13 carries for 62 yards and seven pass receptions for 101 yards vs. Atlanta (Nov. 26) ... in the Cards' 11-play, 99-yard drive in the third quarter to tie the game at 37-37, Centers carried the ball three times and caught three passes for 39 yards, including a 12-yard gain on a third-and-six situation to keep the drive alive in the Cards' 40-37 overtime win ... caught six passes for 51 yards, including a 19-yard gain from quarterback Stoney Case, the rookie's first NFL pass completion vs. the N.Y. Giants (Nov. 30) ... led team with nine receptions at San Diego (Dec. 9) ... caught three passes for 34 yards and scored on a one-yard plunge at Philadelphia (Dec. 17) ... wowed a national television audience with 12 pass receptions for 172 yards in the Christmas night season finale vs. Dallas (Dec. 25) on ABC-TV's "Monday Night Football" ... 93rd reception to break Craig's single-season mark of 92 came on a third-and-13 play in the second quarter, a 16-yard pass from Krieg ... three plays later, Centers took a Krieg toss in the right flat and bolted downfield for 29 yards that included a highlight-film hurdle for Cowboy cornerback and eventual Super Bowl XXX most valuable player Larry Brown ...

Centers elevated nearly six feet in the air to clear Brown's bowed shoulder pads and helmet, landing on both feet and gaining a few more yards before being pushed out of bounds ... ABC-TV showed the "see-it-to-believe-it" replay numerous times during the telecast ... Centers also caught a 16-yard toss from running back Garrison Hearst in the third quarter on an option play. ■1994: Proved indispensable in the club's offensive scheme ... elected offensive captain by his teammates prior to the season ... voted first alternate to the Pro Bowl at fullback (behind Dallas Cowboy Daryl Johnston) ... led all NFL running backs with 647 receiving yards ... 77 receptions tied for second with Denver's Glyn Milburn (77-549) and was just one reception behind the league leader at the position, Green Bay Packer Edgar Bennett (78-546) ... also finished season as club's number two rusher with 336 yards on 115 carries (2.9-yard average) and paced the team with five rushing touchdowns, seven overall ... 29 yards rushing on 15 attempts and caught two passes for 17 yards, including a three-yard scoring toss from quarterback Steve Beuerlein, in season opener at L.A. Rams (Sept. 4) ... also involved in a remarkable play when a first-quarter pass from Beuerlein popped out of Centers' hands and into those of Ram cornerback Todd Lyght, who raced 74 yards for a touchdown in 14-12 defeat ... snared eight passes for 62 yards at Cleveland (Sept. 18) ... led club with nine grabs for 66 yards and sealed 17-7 victory over Minnesota (Oct. 2) with six-yard touchdown run midway through the fourth quarter ... converted four third-down situations and accounted for seven first downs overall (six receiving, one rushing) in the victory ... caught six aerials for 66 yards in 19-16 overtime victory at Washington (Oct. 16), highlighted by a pair of 20-yard gains in the fourth-quarter drive that tied the game ... accounted for 59 of the 72 yards on the scoring drive (four receptions for 58 yards, one rush for one yard) ... opened the scoring in the first quarter with four-yard burst into the end zone in 20-17 overtime victory over Pittsburgh (Oct. 30) ... 40 yards on the ground in the second half and led the team with six pass receptions in 12-6 victory over Philadelphia (Nov. 20) ... set career-best mark with 10 receptions (59 yards) vs. Chicago (Nov. 27) ... punched the ball into the end zone on a one-yard plunge and slipped through for another score from four yards out to key Arizona's 30-12 triumph at Houston (Dec. 4) ... hit pay dirt via the ground (10-yard draw play) and through the air (10-yard reception) in Cards' 28-7 win over Cincinnati (Dec. 18), the latter on an option pass from Hearst ... four catches that day broke Anderson's former club record for receptions by a running back. ■1993: Stamped his mark as one of the top third-down "go-to" players in the NFL with 66 pass receptions for 603 yards (9.1-yard average) and three touchdowns ... ranked second in receiving among NFC running backs behind

Philadelphia's Herschel Walker (75) ... 603 receiving yards ranked just behind Walker's 610 ... finished season impressively with 28 catches for 283 yards in final four games ... turned short pass into 27-yard scoring play at Philadelphia (Sept. 5) ... with Johnny Bailey (groin) and Hearst (knee) sidelined, provided needed spark with four receptions for 46 yards and one score and added career-best 59 yards rushing on just six attempts, including a 33-yard dash, in 16-3 victory vs. Eagles (Nov. 7) ... led all receivers with seven catches for 59 yards at Dallas (Nov. 14) ... started at H-back at the N.Y. Giants (Nov. 21) and contributed 52 yards rushing on 11 attempts and four pass receptions for 25 yards ... career-high nine pass receptions for 77 yards vs. Detroit (Dec. 12), including 25-yarder, to set up Cards' second touchdown of the game ... 84 yards on five catches for 16.8-yard average in 17-6 victory over the N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26) ... caught eight aerials for 61 yards, including five in the second half, in 27-10 win at Atlanta (Jan. 2) ... contributed 13 tackles on special teams, including four stops inside the 20-yard line. ■1992: Superb season with 50 pass receptions for 417 yards (8.3-yard average) and two touchdowns along with 139 yards rushing on 37 attempts (3.8-yard average) ... the 50 receptions rank in seventh-place tie with Metcalf (1974) for most receptions by running back in team history ... season-long 28-yard reception vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 13) ... snared seven passes for 64 yards at Dallas (Sept. 20) ... snared five aerials for 36 yards, including game-winner on nine-yard toss from Chris Chandler with 41 seconds left, for a 27-24 victory over Washington (Oct. 4) ... with Johnny Johnson (chest) inactive, lugged ball career-high 14 times for 30 yards at Philadelphia (Oct. 25) ... five pass receptions for 28 yards, including two-yard scoring toss vs. Dallas (Nov. 22) ... seven pass receptions for 63 yards at Washington (Nov. 29) ... seven grabs for 87 yards with season-long 26-yarder vs. Tampa Bay (Dec. 27) ... also contributed eight tackles on special teams along with team-high four tackles inside the 20-yard line on kick-coverage units. ■1991: Authored impressive all-round season with 44 yards rushing on 14 attempts (3.1-yard average), 19 pass receptions for 176 yards (9.3-yard average), 5 punt returns for 30 yards (6-yard average), and 16 kickoff returns for 330 yards (20.6-yard average) ... though seeing only limited playing time, caught at least one pass in each of final seven games ... played in first two contests, then suffered broken metatarsal in left foot during September 11 practice ... placed on injured reserve list September 12 ... spent six weeks on shelf ... reactivated October 30 ... returned to provide four catches for 28 yards and carried once from scrimmage for six yards at Dallas (Nov. 3) ... snared three more passes for 48 yards and rushed one time for 10 yards at San Francisco (Nov. 17) ... returned opening kickoff 39 yards out of the end zone vs. Washington (Dec. 8), nearly breaking the play for a 102-yard touchdown ... also added seven rushing tries for 16 yards ... caught career-high five passes for 41 yards in season finale vs. New Orleans (Dec. 22) ... added four stops on special teams. ■1990: Earned roster spot but was on inactive list for nine contests ... played in six games ... returned 16 kickoffs for 272 yards (17-yard average) with long return of 26 yards ... in first duty as return man, averaged 23 yards on three tries at Miami (Nov. 11) ... posted 17-yard mark on a trio of attempts at Atlanta (Dec. 9) ... tied club single-game mark with seven kickoff returns at Dallas (Dec. 16) for a 17.6-yard average ... those returns tied record held by Willie Carter (1953), Metcalf (1977), and Stump Mitchell (twice in 1981) ... did not carry ball from scrimmage ... added three stops on special teams coverage units. ■College/Personal: Two-time all-Southland Conference pick with career total of 2,607 yards rushing, 23 touchdowns, 106 pass receptions, 1,460 receiving yards, and 7 touchdowns ... set school mark with 315 carries for 1,440 yards and recorded 58 receptions for 893 yards as senior ... began college career as a wide receiver, but a broken little finger on his left hand prompted Centers' fortuitous move to running back ... marketing major ... born June 1, 1968 in Tatum, Texas, population 400, a tiny coal-mining town located in the northeast corner of the Lone Star state ... attended Tatum High School ... played bass violin instead of football from junior high school until senior year of high school to placate his mother ... resides in Phoenix with wife Vanessa, son Larry II (Aug. 16, 1991), and daughter Sydni (Feb. 27, 1995) ... named Cardinals' Unsung Hero for 1996 by the NFL Players Association. ■

■ Pro Career: Native Arizonan ... veteran receiver and standout special-teams performer ... inspirational leader on field and in community ... rebounded impressively from 1994 training camp knee injury that cost him the entire season ... following reconstructive surgery, he enjoyed his best campaign in 1995 with 29 pass receptions for 417 yards and two touchdowns ... 29 catches again in 1996 ... paced kick-coverage units with 22 tackles in 1993, 20 last year ... originally signed with Philadelphia as a free agent in 1989 ... joined the Cardinals as a free agent prior to the start of training camp in 1991 ... owns career totals of 107 pass receptions for 1,404 yards (13.1-yard average) and five touchdowns, 33 kickoff returns for a 17.1-yard average, and 43 punt returns for 7.1-yard average in 105 games. ■ 1997: Played in every game for second consecutive year ... led special teams with 20 tackles on coverage teams and 69 blocks on return units ... also contributed from scrimmage with 20 pass receptions for 203 yards (10.2-yard average) including two starting roles ... two receptions for 15 yards in season opener at Cincinnati (Aug. 31) ... all three receptions for 27 yards at Tampa Bay (Sept. 28) converted third-down situations, as did a nine-yarder vs. Minnesota (Oct. 5) ... two heady plays contributed directly to Cards' 16-13 win at Baltimore (Nov. 23) ... converted key third-and-four play with 33-yard catch from Jake Plummer to the Ravens' 25-yard line in third-quarter scoring drive that put Cards ahead 6-3 ... on first-and-10 at Baltimore 31-yard line with seven seconds left in the game, caught six-yarder with diving grab to the 25-yard line and alertly called timeout immediately with just three seconds to play ... kicker Joe Nedney converted the game-winning field goal from 43 yards away on ensuing play in 16-13 victory ... two receptions for 18 yards in fourth quarter vs. Washington (Dec. 7) ... three tackles on special-teams coverage units in 29-26 win over Atlanta (Dec. 21). ■ 1996: Once more provided reliability and consistency from scrimmage and on special teams ... equalled career high with 29 receptions for 311 yards (10.7-yard average) and one touchdown ... also returned five punts for 9.2-yard average, ranked second on club with 20 special-teams tackles, and recovered a deflected punt ... caught two passes for 15 yards at Indianapolis (Sept. 1) and two for 33 yards in second half at New England (Sept. 15) ... three receptions for 18 yards in second half vs. St. Louis (Sept. 29), highlighted by a nine-yarder to convert third-and-eight situation in a third quarter scoring drive of 31-28 overtime win ... in first NFL starting role (89 games overall) when Cards opened with three wide receivers against Tampa Bay (Oct. 20), grabbed a nine-yard pass to convert a third-down play on opening drive, then again in a third-quarter drive in 13-9 victory ... caught one pass for nine yards but was dropped for eight-yard loss on end-around in second quarter at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 3) ... caught four passes for 53 yards in second half at Washington (Nov. 10), including a 12-yard scoring toss from Boomer Esiason with 20 seconds remaining, to send game into overtime in eventual 37-34 Arizona victory ... limited punt-return duty late in the season in place of the injured Marcus Dowdell (leg) ... caught two passes for 22 yards and recovered a fumbled punt return that led to a field goal in 31-23 win vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 17) ... converted third-and-eight play with 12-yard catch vs. Washington (Dec. 15), and after Dowdell mishandled a punt return that was recovered by the Redskins in the end zone for a touchdown, also returned two punts for 25 yards in 27-26 victory ... caught three passes for 41 yards in fourth-quarter comeback bid at Philadelphia (Dec. 22), including a 16-yarder on third down to keep scoring drive alive. ■ 1995: After missing the entire 1994 season due to knee surgery, bounced back to have one of the most productive seasons of his NFL career ... caught 29 passes for a 14.4-yard average with two touchdowns ... also returned 18 punts for 131 yards (7.3-yard average) and three kickoffs for 50 yards ... ranked second on the club in special-teams tackles with 21 ... returned two punts for 13 and 14 yards and one kickoff 24 yards vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 10) ... caught game-winning touchdown pass with 2:31 remaining from quarterback Dave Krieg at Detroit (Sept. 17), splitting the safety and cornerback to make the 24-yard scoring grab near the back of the end zone on a fourth-and-10 situation en route to the Cards' 20-17 victory ... suffered a groin injury at Dallas (Sept. 24) ... did not play the next week vs. Kansas City (Oct. 1) ... with injuries to Rob Moore (ankle) and Dowdell (concussion), stepped into the receiving mix and contributed a career-high five pass receptions for 81 yards at the N.Y. Giants (Oct. 8) ... snared four aeriels for 47 yards in the first half of a 24-20 win against Washington (Oct. 15), including three for first downs and two to convert third-down situations ... caught passes for 13 and 22 yards on successive third-and-long situations in the third quarter at Denver (Nov. 5) ... made a pair of key catches in five-play, 82-yard drive to tie the score at 20-20 near the end of the first half vs. Atlanta (Nov. 26) with a 23-yarder early in the drive and a 28-yard scoring toss in Arizona's 40-37 overtime win ... matched season-best five catches for 59 yards at Philadelphia (Dec. 17), including a 25-yarder late in the game to set up the potential game-winning field-goal attempt that fell just short in the Cards' 21-20 defeat.

■1994: Lost for the season after tearing anterior cruciate ligament in right knee during practice between preseason games one and two (Aug. 11) ... injury occurred on the artificial turf of Northern Arizona University's Walkup Skydome where the Cards were practicing due to inclement weather at the club's training camp site in Flagstaff, Arizona ... underwent surgery on Aug. 24 ... after impressive rehabilitation, began running in early January, 1995 ... participated in the team's "offensive school" in mid-February.

■1993: Fashioned superb all-round season as receiver, return man, and special-teams ace ... paced the special teams with 14 solo tackles, 22 stops overall, ranked fourth on team with 37 "blocks," and was on the field for more special-teams plays—343—than any other Cardinal ... a superb "bullet" or cover man in the kicking game, he fielded four punts on the fly inside the enemy five-yard line while also downing five inside the one-yard line ... 13 pass receptions for 326 yards, returned three punts and three kickoffs, and was the club's kick-coverage whiz ... led club with 25.1-yard average per reception on 13 catches ... with temporary loss of Gary Clark (groin) due to injury, stepped into the spotlight to post nine receptions for 239 yards and a 26.5-yard average in Clark's absence ... snared 55-yard pass vs. New England (Oct. 10) ... caught two passes for 67 yards in 36-6 win over Washington (Oct. 17), including a 49-yarder to set up the Cards' first touchdown ... also caught a fourth-quarter Rich Camarillo punt on the fly at the one-yard line, setting up Eric Swann's tackle of Redskin running back Reggie Brooks in the end zone for a safety ... with Clark deactivated at San Francisco (Oct. 24), notched career-best 112 yards on four catches, highlighted by a 65-yard touchdown play ... downed another Camarillo punt at the one-yard line at Dallas (Nov. 17), setting up a second safety as Cowboy passer Bernie Kosar was hurried into an intentional grounding penalty from the end zone ... caught key 12-yard pass from quarterback Steve Beuerlein on third-and-nine situation in overtime to give Cards a first down inside Seahawk territory on game-winning drive of 30-27 triumph at Seattle (Dec. 19) ... despite triple coverage at Detroit (Sept. 26) as the "bullet" on special teams, still managed three tackles on coverage units.

■1992: Turned in single-season career-best 14 pass receptions for 147 yards (10.5-yard average) with one touchdown ... also integral component of Phoenix special-teams units with eight tackles to earn Pro Bowl alternate status as special teamer ... with wide receiver Ernie Jones (shoulder) injured, stepped into starting role in "Posse" package and caught a 25-yard scoring pass from quarterback Chris Chandler vs. New Orleans (Oct. 18) ... snared a pair of passes, each to convert third-down situations, in 24-14 victory over San Francisco (Nov. 1) ... caught eight passes over next three games, including three for 38 yards, in 20-14 win over L.A. Rams at Anaheim (Nov. 8) ... returned eight kickoffs for 143 yards (17.9-yard average) ... integral member of special-teams units which ranked second in the NFL in punt-return coverage (6.4 yards per return) and second in conference in kickoff-return yield (18.3 yards per return).

■1991: Though he played in just 12 games, led special teams with 14 tackles and three stops inside the 20-yard line ... key element on punt-coverage unit that allowed opponents only 6.5 yards per return to rank second in the NFL to Washington (6.1) ... two tackles inside the 20-yard line along with a pair of assists on coverage units in 16-10 win over Atlanta (Oct. 20) ... three special-teams stops and a forced fumble vs. Washington (Dec. 8) ... returned one punt for seven yards and 13 kickoffs for 261 yards (20.1-yard average) ... authored season-best 36-yard kickoff return in season finale vs. New Orleans (Dec. 22) ... waived August 26 on final roster cutdown ... re-signed September 18.

■1990: In second season with Eagles, returned eight punts for 60 yards (7.5-yard average) and three kickoffs for 36 yards (12-yard average) ... spent first seven weeks on injured reserve list with sprained knee (Sept. 4) ... played in five contests ... waived December 12.

■ 1989: Originally signed as free agent with Eagles ... activated from developmental squad October 9 when veteran Mike Quick was placed on injured reserve ... returned five punts for 64 yards (9.1-yard average) and returned three kickoffs for 23 yards (7.7-yard average) ... also caught two passes for 74 yards, one a 66-yarder vs. New Orleans on Monday night (Dec. 18) ... team-best 28-yard punt return vs. Dallas (Dec. 10) ... 10 tackles on special teams ... in playoff competition, averaged 12.3 yards on three kickoff returns and 2.5 yards on a pair of punt returns. ■ College/Personal: Completed collegiate career as New Mexico Highlands' all-time

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

■Pro Career: Veteran of four seasons with the Chicago Bears, last year with Arizona ... signed with Cardinals as an unrestricted free agent on February 28, 1997 ... played in 28 games (11 starts) for the Bears over four seasons, catching 28 passes for 307 yards (11-yard average) and three touchdowns ... enjoyed first full injury-free season last year with 16 appearances and two starting roles for Cards ... injuries previously shortened each of first four pro seasons—1993 (broken collarbone), 1994 (broken left leg), 1995 (ankle sprain), and 1996 (stress fracture in right foot). ■1997: Nearly matched his entire four-year career reception total (28) with 23 receptions for 261 yards (11.7-yard average) and four touchdowns, the most scoring grabs by an Arizona tight end since 1988 ... caught at least one pass in all but two contests to finish fourth on team in receptions despite starting just two of 16 games in first injury-free season as a pro ... in first start in Card uniform, caught four passes for 24 yards in second half vs. Dallas (Sept. 7), including key six-yard grab on third-and-two situation in third quarter scoring drive of eventual 25-22 overtime win ... one catch for nine yards at Washington (Sept. 12), and made key play in third period when he took lateral from punter Jeff Feagles on botched punt attempt and bullied his way for 15 yards and a first down ... among two catches for 41 yards vs. Minnesota (Oct. 5) was spectacular 33-yarder from quarterback Kent Graham in second quarter ... it marked his first touchdown as a Cardinal and the longest scoring catch by a Card tight end since Rob Awalt snared a 52-yarder from Cliff Stoudt in 1988 at Houston ... caught eight-yarder in first half vs. Philadelphia (Nov. 2), then snared a 28-yarder from quarterback Jake Plummer to the Eagles' 23-yard line and a six-yarder from Kent Graham in the fourth period of 31-21 win ... acrobatic catch for 11-yard touchdown toss from Plummer in third period to tie game at 17-17 vs. Pittsburgh (Nov. 30) ... impressive 37-yard scoring grab from Plummer in third period vs. Washington (Dec. 7) to bring Cards within 24-21, his second consecutive game with a touchdown reception and his third of the season ... one pass reception for one yard in season finale vs. Atlanta (Dec. 21), but it was good for a touchdown from Plummer to tie score at 7-7 in the first quarter as Cards won 29-26. ■1996: Projected as a starter entering the season but suffered a stress fracture in right foot during training camp ... returned to practice two weeks later but promptly re-fractured the foot ... spent entire season on injured reserve as the Bears started four players at his position. ■1995: Hampered by preseason ankle injury ... entered season as reserve ... utilized as holder and long-snapper on punts in first two games ... first catch of season a nine-yarder at Tampa Bay (Sept. 17) ... caught eight-yard pass at St. Louis (Sept. 24) ... 15-yarder the next week against Carolina (Oct. 8) ... only starting role of season at Jacksonville (Oct. 15) ... inactive the next two games due to ulcerative colitis, a stomach/digestive disorder ... returned to duties as long-snapper for punts and holder vs. Pittsburgh (Nov. 5). ■1994: Though he played in only seven games as a starter, enjoyed best statistical season with 13 pass receptions for 157 yards and three touchdowns ... started first seven games before breaking right fibula at Detroit (Oct. 23) ... placed on injured reserve October 24 for the remainder of the season and playoffs ... also handled long-snapping duties on punts and served as holder on place kicks ... snared two scoring passes for 47 yards in 21-9 season-opening win over Tampa Bay (Sept. 4), including touchdown grabs of 10 yards to open the game and a 37-yarder in fourth quarter to seal the victory ... it marked the first time in 19 years a Bear tight end caught two touchdown passes in one game (Greg Latta, 1975) ... four grabs for 42 yards vs. Minnesota (Sept. 18) ... two catches for 19 yards in 20-13 win over Buffalo (Oct. 2), including a spectacular one-handed stab on a 13-yard touchdown toss from Steve Walsh in the second quarter that made numerous highlight clips ... followed with three receptions for 30 yards in 17-7 win over New Orleans (Oct. 9) the next week ... off-season surgery on left foot February 2. ■1993: Originally selected by Chicago in third round (61st overall) of 1993 NFL Draft ... suffered a broken collarbone in an intrasquad scrimmage on July 24 ... missed entire preseason and first four regular-season contests ... first pro action included two receptions for 22 yards in 17-6 win at Philadelphia (Oct. 10) ... after an open date, started the next game against Minnesota (Oct. 25) and responded with six receptions for 69 yards, including a 24-yarder from quarterback Jim Harbaugh ... injured a heel in practice on October 29 and missed two games ... returned to starting lineup at Detroit (Nov. 25) but re-injured heel in first quarter ... inactive the next three games.

■College/Personal: Did not miss a game in four seasons at Syracuse ... all-America as a senior with 34 receptions for 587 yards and five touchdowns ... three-year starter at tight end and wide receiver ... all-New York prep standout at Liverpool High School ... also played forward on basketball team ... owns degree in speech communications from Syracuse ... wife Kathy competed on Women's Pro Volleyball Association Pro Beach Tour ... daughter Annaleigh (Nov. 11, 1996) ... the family resides in Phoenix.■

■Pro Career: Fifth-year dynamo has found his niche in the NFL with fearless special-teams play along with cover skills at defensive back ... spirited, inspirational player ... in five NFL seasons, has played in 50 games (one start), collecting 56 tackles, 2 interceptions, and 2 fumble recoveries ... 25 tackles in 1997 nearly equalled his previous four pro seasons combined (31) ... entered NFL as free agent with New Orleans in 1993 ... claimed by Arizona via waivers from Saints on October 18, 1996. ■1997: Made things happen either from scrimmage or on special teams ... in 13 games, registered 25 tackles, 1 quarterback sack, 1 interception, 1 pass defended, and 1 quarterback hurry ... special-teams play resulted in a blocked punt and 13 tackles on kick-coverage units ... missed three games with sprained knee ... played extensively in passing situations in 25-22 win over Dallas (Sept. 7), and came in for a few plays for injured Aeneas Williams briefly in first half ... blocked Matt Turk's first-quarter punt at Washington (Sept. 14) that teammate Tommy Bennett recovered in the Redskins end zone for a touchdown, the first time the Cards turned a blocked punt into six points since 1972 ... injuries to cornerbacks Tom Knight (knee, first quarter) and Aeneas Williams (neck, third quarter) meant extended playing time vs. Minnesota (Oct. 5) at both cornerback and safety ... responded with four tackles and his first interception as a Cardinal, a second-quarter theft that led to an Arizona field goal just before halftime ... suffered slight knee sprain early in game vs. N.Y. Giants (Oct. 12) ... inactive for next three games ... returned to action at Dallas (Nov. 9) ... four tackles and a hurry in 16-13 win at Baltimore (Nov. 23) as he switched off with a linebacker or lineman on defense as Cards tried to confuse Ravens with unique pass-coverage schemes ... often lined up near the defensive end, sometimes dropped back into coverage, other times rushed hard from the corner ... recorded first career sack vs. Pittsburgh (Nov. 30) just prior to halftime at midfield when he blitzed inside and reached quarterback Kordell Stewart ... three tackles at New Orleans (Dec. 14) as he often rotated with Bennett in various pass-coverage schemes ... season-high five overall tackles playing as an extra defensive back at both corner and safety in 29-26 season-ending victory over Atlanta. ■1996: Played in five games for New Orleans and registered four tackles on special teams ... suffered hamstring injury ... placed on injured reserve list October 16 ... agreed to injury settlement with Saints ... waived October 18 ... claimed by Cardinals ... inactive for first three games as a Cardinal while rehabilitating hamstring ... in first game action for Arizona, led special teams with three solo tackles in 37-34 overtime win at Washington (Nov. 10) ... two more stops on kick-coverage units the next week vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 17), but aggravated the hamstring ... did not play the following two weeks ... four overall tackles in final three games to give him nine total tackles in just five contests. ■1995: Finished second on Saints with 15 tackles on special teams ... played in 14 games, inactive for two with sprained ankle ... recorded interception in first start of NFL career at safety vs. N.Y. Jets (Dec. 24) ... primarily used on kick coverage, received game balls on three occasions ... two tackles on kickoff coverage and forced a fumble that led to a field goal in 19-10 win over St. Louis (Nov. 5). ■1994: Converted from wide receiver to defensive back ... waived by Saints on August 24 ... re-signed September 20 ... team-high 15 special teams tackles ... also forced one fumble and recovered another ... three tackles in 37-34 win over L.A. Rams (Oct. 23) and awarded two game balls—one on special-teams coverage units for three tackles, another as member of kickoff-return unit that established NFL record with 304 return yards. ■1993: Undrafted ... signed as free agent with New Orleans on May 7 ... waived August 25 ... signed to practice squad a week later ... spent 14 games of the season on the practice squad ...

(J.J. McCleskey continued on page 100)

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

■ Pro Career: Unheralded free agent from North Alabama (NCAA Division II) has emerged as a playmaker and understated leader of Cardinal defense ... size and intensity remindful of Sam Mills and former NFL great Nick Buoniconti ... entrenched as starting middle linebacker in 1998 after assuming the position last season following incumbent Eric Hill's broken ankle in the season opener at Cincinnati (Aug. 31) ... unique talent and versatility allowed for Hill's free-agency departure to the St. Louis Rams during the past off-season ... led Arizona with 145 combined tackles last year, his first season as a starter ... started at both middle (five games) and right (11 games) linebacker. ■1997: Answered the call at both middle and outside linebacker with an impressive exhibition of versatility and overall understanding of the total defensive scheme ... in his first season as a starter, was Arizona's leading tackler with 145 combined stops, notched eight or more tackles in 12 of 16 games, and posted a team-high eight double-digit tackle efforts ... 60 solo tackles, 85 assists, 1 quarterback sack, 3 tackles for loss, 3 interceptions, 2 passes defended, and 1 forced fumble ... three interceptions ranked second on team to Pro Bowl cornerback Aeneas Williams (six) ... opened at right linebacker in first NFL starting role with one tackle at Cincinnati (Aug. 31) in opener ... the following week with Hill (ankle) injured, started at middle linebacker and responded with one solo stop along with eight assisted tackles in 25-22 overtime win against Dallas (Sept. 7) ... forced Dallas running back Sherman Williams to fumble the football in overtime, teammate Terry Irving recovered, and Cards drove to game-winning field goal ... first interception of NFL career in second quarter and added 13 overall tackles at Washington (Sept. 14) ... eight tackles, knocked down one pass, and converted a fourth-down fake punt with three-yard run from up-back position at Tampa Bay (Sept. 28) ... led defense vs. Minnesota (Oct. 5) with 12 combined tackles ... 14 tackles vs. N.Y. Giants

(Oct. 12) at both outside and middle linebacker as Hill saw action periodically ... led club with 11 overall stops at Philadelphia (Oct. 19) ... opened at outside linebacker vs. Tennessee (Oct. 26), but moved inside after Hill left game in first quarter with pinched nerve in neck ... team-high 11 tackles against Oilers... seven overall stops and his second interception of the season, a fourth-quarter Ty Detmer pickoff, in 31-21 victory over Philadelphia (Nov. 2) ... interception for second consecutive game at Dallas (Nov. 9) with fourth-quarter theft of a Troy Aikman pass that set up Card field goal ... also added seven tackles and a stop for loss ... combined 10 overall tackles in consecutive games at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 16) and in 16-13 win at Baltimore (Nov. 23) ... 11 tackles vs. Pittsburgh (Nov. 30) ... eight tackles in back-to-back contests vs. Washington (Dec. 7) and at New Orleans (Dec. 14) ... five tackles and key sack of Falcon quarterback Chris Chandler at the Card 13-yard line in the fourth quarter as Atlanta was forced to settle for a field goal in eventual 29-26 win over Falcons (Dec. 21) in season finale.

■ 1996: Took advantage of extended preseason play to earn roster spot as an unheralded rookie in 1996 ... led team during preseason with 25 tackles (19 solos) ... then led Cards with 18 solo tackles and 22 stops overall on special teams ... 13 overall tackles from scrimmage ... first extended NFL action vs. Miami (Sept. 8) resulted in four solo stops and one assist ... added a trio of assists at New England (Sept. 15) ... swatted away one pass and added three solo stops on kick-coverage units at Dallas (Oct. 13) ... took snap as up-back blocker in punt formation in fourth-and-four situation at Minnesota (Dec. 1), turned back to line to fake a reverse hand-off, then attempted to run for first-down yardage but was stopped short.

■ College/Personal: Highly-decorated collegian at North Alabama ... first defensive player to win the Harlon Hill Trophy, the NCAA Division II equivalent of the Heisman Trophy, in 1995 ... also named Alabama Male Collegiate Athlete-of-the-Year for the 1995-96 academic year ... helped North Alabama become the first school in the history of NCAA scholarship football to win three consecutive national titles ... 621 career tackles as Lions forged a 41-1 mark his final three years ... the Jaguars also became the only school to win 40 games in three seasons at any collegiate level ... featured in "Faces in The Crowd" in Oct. 2, 1995 issue of Sports Illustrated ... college roommate and teammate of former Card tight end Jarius Hayes who has been invited to training camp again in 1998 ... led Elba High School to Alabama state title as prep linebacker ... father, Rubin, a military medic, retired from the U.S. Army as a sergeant first class ... daughter Raven Nicole (Dec. 23, 1996).■

■ Pro Career: Superb package of speed and size ideally suited for pass rushing ... started entire 1996 season at right outside linebacker, finishing fourth on the team with 115 combined tackles ... assumed left linebacker role vacated by Seth Joyner (free-agent signee by Green Bay) last year ... improved with 139.5 tackles, 5.5 quarterback sacks, and 6 tackles for loss ... owns four-year totals of 323 tackles and 10.5 quarterback sacks. ■ 1997: Blossomed into complete linebacker in fourth season with career-best 139.5 tackles (63.5 solo), 5.5 quarterback sacks, 11 quarterback hurries, 6 tackles for loss, 6 passes defended, and 1 forced fumble ... consistency was his trademark with either a sack, tackle for loss, quarterback hurry, or pass defended in 14 of 16 games ... moved from right side to left linebacker as replacement for departed Seth Joyner (Green Bay) ... opened season with 13 tackles, 1 sack and 1 tackle for loss at Cincinnati (Aug. 31) ... six tackles and a hurry and forced Cowboy passer Troy Aikman into intentional grounding penalty in second quarter on second-and-four play, helping to force a punt in 25-22 overtime win in home opener against Dallas (Sept. 7) ... active game at Washington (Sept. 14) with 3 solo tackles, 5 assists, 1 tackle for loss, 1 sack, and 1 deflected pass ... in one series, nailed running back Terry Allen for a one-yard loss on first down, broke up a pass on second down, then sacked Redskins passer Gus Frerotte on third down ... led defense with 11 tackles and batted down a pass at Tampa Bay (Sept. 28) ... nine combined tackles, sacked Viking passer Brad Johnson, and forced a fumble in another solid all-round effort vs. Minnesota (Oct. 5) ... eight tackles and two hurries at Philadelphia (Oct. 19), including a pressure in the first quarter that resulted in Eagle passer Rodney Peete hurrying his throw as Simeon Rice made a diving interception ... 10 tackles vs. Tennessee (Oct. 26), including a shared sack with tackle Eric Swann and a solo sack of Oiler passer Steve McNair in second half for 10-yard loss ... six overall stops in 31-21 win over Philadelphia (Nov. 2) ... nine tackles at Dallas (Nov. 9), including his fifth sack of the season, and batted away a pass ... six tackles and two hurries at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 16) ... active day with 10 tackles and batted down two passes in coverage schemes in 16-13 victory at Baltimore (Nov. 23) ... 11 combined stops, including one for loss, and flushed Washington passer Gus Frerotte out of the pocket numerous times vs. Washington (Dec. 7) ... six tackles, a hurry, and a stop for loss at New Orleans (Dec. 14) ... team-best 13 tackles, his seventh double-digit game of the season, in season-ending 29-26 win over Atlanta (Dec. 21). ■1996: Installed as starting outside linebacker from outset of season ... career-high 53 solo tackles and 62 assists ... also added 1 sack, 3 pressures, 3 tackles for loss, 4 passes defended, 1 fumble recovery, and 1 forced fumble ... scored first NFL touchdown on lateral from Swann vs. Washington (Dec. 15) ... Swann had returned a Washington fumble 11 yards ... Miller rumbled the final 26 yards into the end zone ... after scoring, dunked the football over the crossbar, necessitating a temporary delay of the game to realign the goal post ... nine tackles and deflected a pass in opener at Indianapolis (Sept. 1) ... six tackles and a sack of Dolphin passer Dan Marino vs. Miami (Sept. 8) ... 10 tackles in 28-14 win at New Orleans (Sept. 22) ... five stops and a fumble recovery the next week to aid a 31-28 overtime thriller over St. Louis (Sept. 29) ... nine tackles each of the next two weeks at Dallas (Oct. 13) and in 13-9 win over Tampa Bay (Oct. 20) ... 12 tackles, a hurry, and a tackle for loss at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 3) ... five tackles, knocked down a pass, and stripped Redskin running back Terry Allen of the ball as Cardinals converted possession into 3-0 lead in first quarter of 37-34 overtime win at Washington (Nov. 10) ... seven tackles in consecutive wins vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 17) and Philadelphia (Nov. 24) ... only one assist vs. Washington (Dec. 15) ... 10 tackles and a pair of pressures in season finale at Philadelphia (Dec. 22). ■1995: Started nine of 10 games ... 33.5 solo stops and 17 assists for 50.5 combined tackles plus one sack ... missed first four games of the season while serving league-imposed suspension ... 5.5 tackles, 1 hurry, and 2 tackles for loss vs. Kansas City (Oct. 1) in first action of the season ... seven and one-half tackles at N.Y. Giants (Oct. 8) ... seven stops, forced a fumble, and returned another 26 yards in 20-14 overtime win against Seattle (Oct. 29) ... eight combined tackles and his second fumble recovery vs. Minnesota (Nov. 12) ... seven and one-half tackles, including two for losses, along with a sack and recovery of a blocked field goal vs. the N.Y. Giants (Nov. 30) ... played most of the first half at San Diego (Dec. 9) with four tackles, a hurry, and a pass deflection before suffering an ankle injury that landed him on the injured reserve list for the rest of the season. ■1994: Ended rookie season with 18 tackles, 3 sacks, 10 hurries, and 3 tackles for loss ... finished with a flurry of production in season finale at Atlanta (Dec. 24) with 4 tackles, 5 hurries, 2 sacks, 1 forced fumble, and 2 tackles for loss ... closed season with team-high 20 tackles on special teams ... three solo tackles in opener at the L.A. Rams (Sept. 4), including a sack to force a punt with nine minutes remaining when he ran down Ram quarterback Chris Miller from behind ... three stops late in the game at Cleveland (Sept. 18) ... provided one tackle and a hurry in 17-7 win over Minnesota (Oct. 2) ... came off the bench in fourth quarter for injured starter Seth Joyner (ankle) vs. Pittsburgh (Oct. 30) and combined five tackles and one hurry with two stops on kickoff coverage in 20-17 overtime win ... with Wilber Marshall (ankle) inactive, provided constant pressure on Falcon passers Bobby Hebert and Jeff George in extended action at Atlanta (Dec. 24) ... Cards' first-round pick (10th overall) after declaring for the NFL Draft after his junior season. ■College/Personal: Collected numerous all-America honors at UCLA in 1993 ... finalist for Dick Butkus Award given annually to the nation's top linebacker ... 69 tackles, 12.5 sacks, and 18 tackles for loss in final collegiate season for Bruins ... prep all-America at El Cerrito (Calif.) H.S. with 486 tackles, 32 sacks, 3 interceptions, 6 fumble recoveries, and 22 forced fumbles in three seasons ... also excelled in track, advancing to the state finals in the 200-meter dash and 4x100-meter relay as a junior ... times of 10.89 seconds in the 100-meter dash and 22.1 seconds in 200 meters ... cousin Mark Gunn is a former defensive lineman for the N.Y. Jets who played collegiately at Pitt ... political science major at UCLA ... raised in Oakland, Calif. ... wife Raquel ... daughter Ashlynn (Feb. 3, 1996) ... the family resides in Scottsdale. ■ receivers to each crack the 1,000-yard barrier in the same season ... during one four-game stretch (games 11–14), caught 29 receptions for 553 yards (19.1-yard average) and three touchdowns, an average of over seven receptions for 138 yards ... opened season at Cincinnati (Aug. 31) with seven receptions for 96 yards, including leaping grab of 37-yarder to put ball on 13-yard line as Cards converted for 21–3 lead in third period ... after one catch for 11 yards in first half vs. Dallas (Sept. 7), opened with five receptions for 97 yards in second half ... turned crossing pattern into 47-yard gain in fourth quarter to set up touchdown and bring Cards within 22–20 with just over one minute left in regulation ... made great catch of two-point conversion to tie game as Cards won 25–22 in overtime ... limited to one catch for eight yards in first half, two for 19 in second half at Washington (Sept. 12), but suffered a mild concussion early in second half and sat out one series ... returned later in third quarter ... caught four passes for 62 yards in first half at Tampa Bay (Sept. 28), including a 21-yard scoring toss after setting it up with a 28-yarder earlier in the second-quarter drive ... snagged 41-yarder with leaping grab in third quarter to set up a field goal and bring Cards within 12–10 ... also pulled down 22-yarder on third-and-eight play in fourth quarter to place the ball at the Tampa Bay 27-yard line ... third 100-yard receiving day of the season with eight grabs for 108 yards, including six catches for 91 yards in the first half, vs. Minnesota (Oct. 5) ... snared 18-yarder in second quarter vs. N.Y. Giants (Oct. 12), then caught 30-yarder from quarterback Stoney Case in third period but came down hard and left game briefly ... fourth 100-yard game of the season at Philadelphia (Oct. 19) with six grabs for 101 yards, including rookie quarterback Jake Plummer's first NFL completion on 34-yard slant in fourth quarter ... six catches for 58 yards vs. Tennessee (Oct. 26), including touchdown passes of 12 and two yards from Plummer ... three receptions for 82 yards in 31–21 win over Philadelphia (Nov. 2), highlighted by a 38-yarder on first-and-23 as the Cards were backed up on their 13-yard line second-quarter scoring drive ... also snatched down a fine pass from Plummer for 31-yard scoring strike in third period to give Cards a 17–7 lead, then caught 13-yarder from quarterback Kent Graham on third-and-10 play in fourth quarter that placed the ball at the Eagle one-yard line ... Graham then scored on a one-yard sneak two plays later for a 24–21 lead ... impressive outing at Dallas (Nov. 9) with six receptions for 95 yards ... nearly had another grab for 35 yards to the Cowboy one-yard line as he dragged his leg across the goal-line pylon, but official ruled him out of bounds in a borderline call ... claimed NFL lead in yardage with 139 yards on eight grabs at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 16), including five for 104 yards in second half ... after three grabs for 26 yards in first half at Baltimore (Nov. 23), responded with five catches for 86 yards in second half, highlighted by fourth-quarter receptions of 34, 11, 27, and 5 yards in 16–13 triumph as Cardinals became the last visiting team to defeat Ravens in historic Memorial Stadium ... key play of the game was a grab of 27 yards to the Ravens' 31-yard line on curl pattern with 15 seconds left, getting out of bounds to set up the game-winning field goal two plays later ... third consecutive game with eight receptions and career-best 188 yards vs. Pittsburgh (Nov. 30) ... caught 43-yarder in second quarter, 26-yarder on reverse from Sanders in third period to set up game-tying score, and converted third-and-15 situation with 44-yarder from Plummer in fourth-quarter scoring drive to again tie game at 20–20 ... also put Cards in position to win game with grabs of 36 and 14 yards in Card drive after the two-minute warning, but field goal sailed wide right ... fourth consecutive 100-yard receiving effort the next week vs. Washington (Dec. 7) with five receptions for 114 yards and three touchdowns ... four-yard scoring toss from Plummer in back of end zone with 4:00 left in first half to cut lead to 17–7 ... snared a 21-yarder on following possession to the Washington 24-yard line, and after a 19-yard scoring toss from Plummer to Sanders was negated by penalty, collected a 29-yarder for another score ... as he caught the ball and did a complete split in the end zone, a Redskin defender fell squarely on his knee ... shook off the injury and returned in second half to catch 47-yarder from Plummer for a touchdown to narrow Washington lead to 31–28 at 10-minute mark ... harnessed to season-low 7.8-yard average on four receptions (31 yards) at New Orleans (Dec. 14) ... concluded outstanding season with two catches for 11 yards in first half, then answered with five grabs for 80 yards in final eight minutes of fourth quarter of 29–26 win over Atlanta (Dec. 21) ... on 69-yard scoring drive to bring Cards within 26–21, caught passes for 13 and 12 yards on successive plays, then pulled in consecutive 21-yard aerials from Plummer, the latter for a touchdown to break the team's single-season receiving yardage mark of 1,555 by Roy Green in 1983 ... in game-winning scoring drive, snared another pass for 13 yards with 1:11 remaining and induced a pass interference call on a second-and-goal play at the Falcon two-yard line with 13 seconds left as Plummer connected with Centers on the next play for the game-winning points. ■ 1996: Posted 1,016 yards receiving (58 receptions) and 17.5-yard average per reception, the latter ranking second in the NFC behind Minnesota's Jake Reed (18.3) ... 11 pass receptions of 25 yards or more and four of at least 40 yards ... held to 11 yards on two receptions in the season opener at Indianapolis (Sept. 1) ... snared four aeriels for 56 yards vs. Miami (Sept. 8), including a 30-yarder near the end of the first half ... four pass receptions for 91 yards in 28-14 win at New Orleans (Sept. 22), highlighted by a diving catch of a 20-yard scoring strike from Graham, plus the ensuing two-point conversion, in the pivotal third quarter ... also made a key 42-yard grab to pull the Cards out of the hole at their own three-yard line in the second half ... nine receptions for 143 yards included a 24-yard touchdown pass from Graham in 31-28 overtime win vs. St. Louis (Sept. 29) ... nine grabs for 143 yards and a score against former N.Y. Jet (Oct. 27) teammates, including a season-long 69-yarder ... shut out in first three quarters at Washington (Nov. 10), caught a 40-yarder on the first play of a fourth-quarter scoring drive, a 34-yarder to the one-yard line three plays later, and a 17-yard snatch later in the game to set up the game-tying score in eventual 37-34 overtime triumph ... 18-yard scoring catch on fade route for first points of 31-23 win over N.Y. Giants (Nov. 17) ... hit the 100-yard receiving mark in the first half with four catches in 36-30 win over Philadelphia (Nov. 24), then added five more receptions in the second half to finish with nine catches for 156 yards, his 11th career 100-yard receiving game ... four receptions for 94 yards in first half vs. Dallas (Dec. 8) ... set up Card touchdown vs. Washington (Dec. 15) with key 18-yard grab in the third period, then converted a third-and-11 situation with a 16-yard catch from Graham in the game-winning scoring drive of 27-26 win. ■1995: Started 15 games in first season as a Cardinal ... ranked second to Larry Centers' record-breaking campaign with 63 pass receptions for 907 yards (14.4-yard average) and a team-best five touchdowns ... accounted for one two-point conversion ... attempted two passes—one for an interception, the other for a 33-yard gain ... mid-season ankle sprain required off-season arthroscopic procedure ... still managed to open at receiver for the first six games and the final nine contests despite the injury ... six catches for 66 yards vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 10), including a five-yard scoring toss from quarterback Mike Buck in the fourth quarter ... also set the table for another Cardinal touchdown when he induced a pass interference penalty for a 33-yard gain to the one-yard line ... Arizona scored two plays later ... only catch at Detroit (Sept. 17) a 17-yarder to set up a Cardinal field goal in the fourth quarter to narrow the deficit to 17-9 en route to Arizona's 20-17 victory ... enjoyed a "breakout" day with career-high nine receptions for 154 yards and a touchdown at Dallas (Sept. 24) ... snared a 45-yarder in second-quarter scoring drive, then pulled down five passes for 71 yards and a score in the fourth quarter, highlighted by a 25-yard touchdown grab with 29 seconds remaining ... also connected with rookie wide receiver Frank Sanders for a 33-yard gain, taking a handoff from quarterback Dave Krieg on a reverse and lofting a pass to Sanders ... endured a scary moment in the fourth quarter at Texas Stadium when he landed on his back after leaping for a pass in the end zone ... briefly laid motionless on the turf ... returned to the game a few plays later and caught a scoring toss from Krieg ... in first return to the Meadowlands, caught five-yard pass on the third play of game at the N.Y. Giants (Oct. 8), but suffered a left ankle sprain six plays later that sent him to the bench ... though x-rays were negative, inactive the following week vs. Washington (Oct. 15) ... returned to action vs. Seattle (Oct. 29) to grab six passes for 77 yards and an eight-yard touchdown in the first quarter of the 20-14 overtime victory ... five catches for 66 yards vs. Minnesota (Nov. 12), highlighted by a nine-yard touchdown reception and a two-point conversion to knot the score at 24-24 late in the fourth quarter of the 30-24 overtime loss ... caught three passes for 31 yards at Carolina (Nov. 19) but tossed an interception on an end-around play in the second quarter ... eight grabs for 121 yards, including several acrobatic catches, to assist a 40-37 overtime triumph vs. Atlanta (Nov. 26) ... five receptions for 68 yards, including four for 53 yards in the fourth quarter vs. the N.Y. Giants (Nov. 30) ... countered with third 100-yard game of the season—a career first—with five grabs for 104 yards at San Diego (Dec. 9), punctuated by receptions of 35 and 36 yards on back-to-back third quarter plays. ■1994: Voted to his first Pro Bowl with 78 pass receptions, 1,010 reception yards, and 6 touchdowns ... suffered a broken wrist in second preseason game at Philadelphia (Aug. 13) ... played with a protective cast early in the regular season ... still managed to finish among the AFC leaders in both receptions (sixth) and receiving yards (eighth) ... opened with team-high five receptions for 83 yards in 23-3 victory at Buffalo (Sept. 4) ... followed with a superb effort in 25-22 overtime victory against Denver (Sept. 11), earning a game ball with nine catches for 147 yards and a touchdown ... the nine receptions tied a career high and the 147 receiving yards were his second best total in five pro seasons ... highlighted a five-reception, 78-yard day at Cleveland (Oct. 2) with a diving, one-handed grab for 24 yards and the Jets' only touchdown in a 27-7 loss ... matched single-game receiving mark with nine receptions in 16-6 win vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 9), including a 41-yard scoring play to begin a stretch of four consecutive games with a touchdown grab ... put his club ahead to stay with five-yard touchdown snatch in third quarter of 22-17 win against Buffalo (Nov. 6) ... seven aeriels for 72 yards and a score the next week at Green Bay (Nov. 13) ...

three catches for 36 yards and six points in 31–21 victory at Minnesota (Nov. 20) ... fourth career 100-yard game, and his second of the season, with 124 yards on seven grabs vs. Miami (Nov. 27).

CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

■ Pro Career: Popular former Cardinal returned to Arizona last fall as mid-season free-agent signee after stints with the N.Y. Jets (1995-96) and St. Louis (1997) ... five-year veteran originally was selected by Cards in fourth round (87th overall) of 1993 NFL Draft ... traded to the N.Y. Jets on draft day with two 1995 draft choices (first and fourth rounds) in transaction that brought Pro Bowl wide receiver Rob Moore to Arizona ... owns career totals of 620 rushing attempts for 2,198 yards and 14 touchdowns in 75 games (34 starts) ... also owns 23 pass receptions for 152 yards and a score ... led Cards with 1,018 yards rushing as a rookie in 1993 ... the 1,018 rushing yards make him one of only two Cardinals to crack 1,000 yards in the past 12 years (Garrison Hearst, 1,070, 1995) ... memorable afternoon vs. L.A. Rams on Dec. 5, 1993 as he etched his name into the record books with Cleveland's Jim Brown (1957), Chicago's Gale Sayers (1965), Houston's Earl Campbell (1978), and Dallas' Emmitt Smith (1990) as the fifth rookie in NFL history to rush for four touchdowns in a game. ■ 1997: Signed as free agent on November 3 ... the Cards' starting running back five games later ... in six games as a Cardinal, rushed for 175 yards on 57 carries (3.1-yard average) and provided a spark at times with powerful running style ... came off bench to supply a spurt to the running game at Dallas (Nov. 9) with five rushing attempts for 27 yards, an impressive 5.4-yard average ... harnessed to minus five yards on seven attempts against stiff N.Y. Giant defense at the Meadowlands (Nov. 16) ... inactive vs. Pittsburgh (Nov. 30) ... started at running back the next week vs. Washington (Dec. 7) after Leeland McElroy was deactivated ... 38 yards on 13 attempts vs. Redskins, including long run of 13 yards ... second consecutive start resulted in 79 yards on the ground in 22 attempts at New Orleans (Dec. 14), the club's best single-game rushing effort since McElroy posted 87 yards in week five against Minnesota ... rumbled 16 yards to open second-quarter scoring drive that brought Cards within 17-14 before halftime in 29-26 win over Atlanta in season finale ... finished the day with 36 yards on 10 attempts ... prior to joining Cardinals, played in seven games (two starts) for St. Louis ... 103 yards on 24 rushing attempts, including a 27-yard touchdown run, and caught four passes for 34 yards for the Rams ... carried the ball five times for 48 yards in starting role at Denver (Sept. 14) with a 27-yard gallop to the end zone in the fourth quarter ... waived by Rams Oct. 28 and signed by Arizona six days later. ■ 1996: Played in all 16 games for N.Y. Jets as a reserve ... only one carry from scrimmage for one yard ... also returned eight kickoffs for 118 yards ... 17 tackles on special teams tied for third on club. ■ 1995: Acquired by N.Y. Jets in trade (April 21) with Arizona along with first- and fourth-round draft picks in exchange for wide receiver Moore ... played in 15 games for the Jets (three starts) and rushed for 121 yards on 43 carries ... also caught eight passes for 50 yards and returned eight kickoffs for 166 yards (20.8-yard average) ... recorded 15 tackles on kick-coverage units. ■ 1994: Started all 16 games and led Cardinals in rushing with 780 yards on 232 carries ... caught eight passes for 252 yards and a touchdown ... opened season with 65 yards rushing on 13 attempts (5-yard average) at L.A. Rams (Sept. 4) ... gained 82 yards on 23 carries in 17-7 win over Minnesota (Oct. 2) ... bulled to 118 yards on 28 attempts with a 10-yard touchdown run in 19-16 overtime victory at Washington (Oct. 16) ... added 81 yards and a four-yard scoring run vs. Dallas (Oct. 23) ... 67 yards and a one-yard touchdown plunge in 20-17 overtime win against Pittsburgh (Oct. 30), giving him three consecutive games scoring a rushing touchdown ... capped an 80-yard drive in fourth quarter with another one-yard plunge into the end zone in 17-15 triumph over Washington (Dec. 11). ■ 1993: Unexpected splash as a rookie with 263 rushing attempts for 1,018 yards and nine touchdowns ... first Cardinal 1,000-yard rusher since Stump Mitchell in 1985 and first Card rookie to turn the trick since Otis Anderson in 1979 ... nine rushing touchdowns led all NFL rookies and set a club rookie record held previously by Anderson (8, 1979) ... tied franchise record with 36 carries against Philadelphia (Nov. 7) ... 160 rushing yards that day ranked no. 11 in team annals ... over final eight games, no NFL running back carried the ball more times (191) ... 710 yards over that span ranked third in the league to the Rams' Jerome Bettis (168-899) and the Cowboys' Emmitt Smith (156-820) ... with first-round pick Hearst unsigned through training camp and the preseason, capitalized on the opportunity ... cemented his role when Hearst suffered a season-ending knee injury after just six games ... finished third in rushing among NFL rookie running backs behind Bettis (1,429) and Washington Redskin Reggie Brooks (1,063) ... nine touchdowns ranked second in conference behind San Francisco's Ricky Watters (10) and tied with Dallas' Smith and Green Bay's Edgar Bennett ... led club with 324 yards rushing during preseason play and erased any doubts about his big-play ability at the professional level with a 122-yard rushing effort against Denver in the preseason finale, highlighted by a 70-yard touchdown run ... opened as starting running back in season-opener at Philadelphia (Sept. 5), gaining 39 yards on nine attempts ... 47 tough yards on eight carries in 17-10 victory at Washington (Sept. 12), including an 18-yard scamper in the second quarter off right tackle for his first NFL touchdown, breaking numerous tackles along the way, to give the Cards a 17-0 lead ... played the game despite learning of the death of an older brother two days earlier ... flew to the funeral immediately after the game ... primarily special-teams duty vs. New England (Oct. 10), recording a blocked punt in the third quarter ... after Hearst left the Washington game (Oct. 17) with the knee injury in the third quarter, Moore powered for 80 yards on 13 carries in roughly a quarter and one-half ... with just over seven minutes remaining, carried the ball six consecutive times for 49 yards, capped by a one-yard scoring dive in 36-6 win ... 72 yards on 20 tries vs. New Orleans (Oct. 31) ...

with Hearst and Johnny Bailey injured and despite suffering a sprained ankle in the first quarter, rumbled 160 yards on 36 carries in 16-3 win over Philadelphia (Nov. 7), including 113 yards on 23 second-half attempts ... answered the call again in 38-10 victory over L.A. Rams (Dec. 5) with 126 yards and scoring runs of 1, 19, 1, and 1 yard ... the four touchdowns were the first by a Cardinal since Wayne Morris vs. New Orleans on Oct. 23, 1977 ... in 17-6 victory over N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26), slammed for 135 yards on 23 attempts, a 5.9-yard average per carry against one of the best rush defenses in the league ... the effort included 110 second-half yards and a 19-yard gallop in the third quarter when he carried a trio of Giant defenders into the end zone ... closed an impressive rookie campaign with 96 yards on 32 carries in season finale at Atlanta (Jan. 2), underscored by 54 yards in the fourth quarter as he vaulted over the 1,000-yard rushing mark. ■ College/Personal: Established 10 NCAA Division II playoff records as he led Pittsburg State to 51-4 composite record during his career ... as a college senior, rushed for a whopping 2,585 yards with 39 touchdowns on 359 carries ... averaged 164.3 yards per game and scored 45 touchdowns in his last 19 contests ... won Harlon Hill Award as the top player in Division II as a senior ... only non-NCAA Division I player to participate in the 1993 Hula Bowl ... gained NCAA-record 379 yards on 37 attempts with scoring jaunts of 93, 36, 10, 1, and 2 yards in 41-38 decision over Portland State ... gained 1,576 yards with 20 touchdowns as a junior, 1,233 yards and 12 touchdowns as a sophomore ... standout linebacker and running back at Star Spencer (Okla.) High School ... 119 tackles and rushed for 941 yards and 11-yard average as a prep senior ... also enjoyed impressive prep wrestling career ... communications/broadcasting major at Pittsburg State ... born Jan. 26, 1970 in Spencer, Okla. ... wife Tammy ... daughters Ashlynn (March 10, 1995) and Allison (Jan. 4, 1996), and son Ronald, Jr. (June 17, 1998).■

■Pro Career: Immediate upgrade to Arizona's rushing attack ... 1,000-yard rusher each of past two seasons ... acquired from N.Y. Jets on April 7, 1998 along with a seventh-round pick in exchange for Cardinals' third-round selection in the 1998 NFL Draft ... in five seasons with Jets, rushed for 3,447 yards on 850 carries for a 4.1-yard average per attempt with 15 touchdowns ... also has caught 127 passes for 729 yards and three scores ... set Jet single-game rushing mark in Sun Devil Stadium with 199 yards on 31 carries in 31-21 win at Arizona (Oct. 27, 1996) ... originally chosen by Jets in the fifth round (120th overall) and became a "sleeper" of the 1993 NFL Draft class ... has registered the third-best rushing total of running backs from the class, trailing only Pittsburgh Steeler Jerome Bettis (6,187) and San Diego Charger Natrone Means (4,055) ... seeks to become only the fourth back in NFL history to rush for over 1,000 yards for different teams in consecutive seasons (Terry Allen—Minnesota 1994, Washington 1995; Eric Dickerson—L.A. Rams 1986, Indianapolis 1987; Earnest Jackson—San Diego 1984, Philadelphia 1985). ■1997: The second Jet (Freeman McNeil was the first) to post consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons ... 300 carries amassed 1,086 yards, the second-highest single-season total in franchise history ... finished seventh in the AFC in rushing ... produced 25 runs of 10 yards or more ... rushing proficiency mirrored team's success as he gained 774 yards in nine Jet wins, 312 yards in their seven defeats ... opened season with 131 yards on 24 carries in 41-3 win at Seattle (Aug. 31) ... led NFL in first week with 10 rushes for first downs ... harnessed to just 27 yards on 14 carries by Buffalo (Sept. 7) ... rebounded at New England (Sept. 14) with 18 rushing attempts for 110 yards (6.1-yard average) ... helped seal a 23-22 victory over Oakland (Sept. 21) with runs of 20 and 10 yards late in the fourth quarter, part of his 68 yards on 15 attempts with a four-yard scoring run ... also improvised with quarterback Neil O'Donnell on game-clinching play on fourth-and-seven situation with just over one minute left at the Raiders' 28-yard line ... took short pass from O'Donnell and scampered 14 yards for a first down ... career-high 40 carries (tied for franchise record of Johnny Hector) and gained 156 yards in 31-14 win at Cincinnati (Sept. 28) ... authored five runs of 10 yards or more and a 12-yard touchdown jaunt in second quarter as Jets' offense controlled the football for 42:50 ...

continued torrid pace with 99 yards on 30 attempts and a 24-yard touchdown in 16-12 triumph at Indianapolis (Oct. 5) ... 5.8-yard average at Miami (Nov. 9) with 69 yards on 12 carries, including a career-long touchdown run of 49 yards ... fell just short of 100 yards again with 28 carries for 95 yards in 23-21 win over Minnesota (Nov. 23) ... held to 27 yards on nine attempts at Buffalo (Nov. 30) and five for seven yards vs. Indianapolis (Dec. 7) ... opened the Buccaneer defense for 73 yards on 26 carries with a seven-yard scoring run in a 31-0 shutout over Tampa Bay (Dec. 14) ... rushed for 43 yards on 12 carries and scored from 14 yards out in season finale at Detroit (Dec. 21).

■1996: In first full season as a starter, set team record with 301 rushing attempts to gain 1,249 yards and six touchdowns ... also caught 17 passes for 81 yards and a score ... first Jet since 1985 (McNeil) to surpass 1,000 yards rushing ... five 100-yard outings ... consecutive 100-yard games with 134 yards on 31 carries at Washington (Sept. 29) and 102 yards on 20 totes vs. Oakland (Oct. 6), a first since McNeil in 1987 ... opened season with 94 yards on 17 carries at Denver (Sept. 1) ... managed a combined 90 yards on 35 attempts over next three games ... broke the slump with back-to-back 100-yard efforts against the Redskins and Raiders ... included in his record-breaking 199-yard effort at Arizona was an NFL season-long 78-yard run late in the fourth quarter to clinch the Jets' only victory of their 1-15 season ... answered again the following week with 128 yards (28 attempts) and two scores vs. New England (Nov. 10), the first two-touchdown game of his career ... eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark at Buffalo (Nov. 24) with 103 yards on 19 attempts, his fifth 100-yard game of the season ... concluded season with 19 rushes for 69 yards and a touchdown vs. Miami (Dec. 22).

■1995: Generated 1,260 combined yards from scrimmage with 192 rushing attempts for 795 yards and 71 pass receptions for 465 yards ... 71 catches most by Jet running back, surpassing team mark of 67 by former Cardinal Johnny Johnson (1993) and ranked eighth on club single-season reception list ... opened season with 47 yards rushing and seven pass receptions for 52 yards at Miami (Sept. 3) ... led Jets in rushing (11-52) and receiving yards (4-68) vs. Indianapolis (Sept. 10), including a career-long 43-yard reception and season-long 30-yard run ... in first NFL start, impressed with 5.9-yard average with 16 rushing attempts for 95 yards vs. Oakland (Oct. 1) ... led club with seven catches (45 yards) at Carolina (Oct. 15) ... accounted for 33 yards of 61-yard game-winning touchdown drive in 17-16 win over Miami (Oct. 22) ... paced ground game at Indianapolis (Oct. 29) with 68 yards on 19 attempts and added five receptions for 22 yards ... 70 rushing yards on just 12 carries vs. New England (Nov. 5) ... led team with 36 yards rushing and 52 yards receiving, including a 41-yard touchdown catch at conclusion of 28-26 loss vs. Buffalo (Nov. 19) ... first career 100-yard rushing effort with 24 attempts for 116 yards and a score in 16-10 win at Seattle (Nov. 26) ... added seven pass receptions for 37 yards vs. Seahawks ... missed outing at Houston (Dec. 17) with shoulder injury ... returned to starting lineup vs. New Orleans (Dec. 24) and managed career-high nine pass receptions in season finale.

■1994: Played in just 10 games due to mid-season knee injury ... rushed for 160 yards on 33 attempts and caught seven passes for 76 yards ... 28 yards on 10 attempts in season opener at Buffalo (Sept. 4) ... averaged 6.6 yards per carry over two-game span at Cleveland (Oct. 2) and vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 9) with 4-28 against Browns and 10-65 vs. Colts ... converted third-and-10 situation with 12-yard reception that led to go-ahead score in 16-6 win over Colts ... rushed twice for eight yards vs. New England (Oct. 16) before knee injury caused him to miss next six contests ... on special teams, returned 14 kickoffs for 268 yards (19.1-yard average) with career-long 37-yard return at Miami (Sept. 18).

■1993: Fourth on team in rushing with 157 yards on 34 attempts ... also caught five passes for 12 yards ... returned 23 kickoffs for 342 yards ... first extended action from scrimmage vs. New England (Sept. 26) resulted in eight carries for 52 yards, including a 37-yard touchdown run (career first), and three pass receptions for 12 yards ... led ground game vs. Cincinnati (Nov. 21) with 52 yards on nine tries for 5.8-yard average.

■College/Personal: Two-year starter at West Virginia finished career seventh on school rushing chart with 2,097 yards ... ranked second in Mountaineer single-season history with 1,145 rushing yards as a senior ... father was an Army sergeant ... raised in Hawaii and lived in Europe for five years ... attended Leilehua (Oahu, Hawaii) High School where he holds state single-game prep rushing record with 332 yards ... gained over 1,000 yards in first four games as a senior ... also starred in track and basketball ... physical education major at WVU ... wife Tanya and son Tylan (Feb. 8, 1996) ... born Oct. 16, 1970 in Fayetteville, N.C. ■

■Pro Career: Strong-legged kicker signed by Arizona as a free agent on October 14, 1997 ... supplied Cards with 52 points on 11 of 17 field goals (64.7 percent), converted all 19 extra-point attempts, and sailed nearly one-half of his kickoffs (16 of 35, 45.7 percent) into the end zone for touchbacks ... originally signed to Miami's practice squad as a free agent in 1995 after training camp stint with Green Bay ... re-joined Dolphins as free agent in 1996 ... led Dolphins in scoring in 1996 with 89 points on 18-of-29 field goals and 35-of-36 extra points ... owns 36 touchbacks on kickoffs in two seasons. ■1997: Replaced struggling veteran Kevin Butler after six games ... in 10 games as a Cardinal, recorded 16 touchbacks (35 kickoffs), bettering the combined Arizona team total of 11 the previous three seasons by Greg Davis and Kevin Butler ... finished season strongly with seven field goals in final eight attempts ... perfect from inside 40 yards (8-8) ... in first action as a Cardinal, misfired on 40-yarder but converted from 23 yards at Philadelphia (Oct. 19) ... boomed three touchbacks on kickoffs vs. Tennessee (Oct. 26), including the opening kickoff that sailed out of the end zone and resulted in standing ovation by the home crowd at Sun Devil Stadium ... converted one of three long-distance field goals in 31-21 win over Philadelphia (Nov. 2) ... first attempt from 51 yards hit the left upright and bounced out, the second from 45 yards gave Cards a 10-7 lead, and the third from 48 yards in the fourth quarter was short ... another impressive outing on kickoffs with five booms that sailed to the goal line, six-yard line, and three into the end zone (-1, -5, and -7) ... after Card defensive tackle Bernard Wilson scored on a 66-yard interception return in first quarter, Nedney misdirected an unexpected onside kick attempt and the ball glanced off teammate Kwamie Lassiter ... Eagle Willie Clark scooped the ball and sped 39 yards for a touchdown ... four long-range attempts at Dallas (Nov. 9)—46-yarder wide left, converted 42- and 39-yard tries, then missed a 51-yard try wide right ... three impressive kickoffs with one touchback and other two returned just 17 and 19 yards by Cowboy return unit that finished fourth in the league ... converted from 34 yards to tie game at 10-10 in third quarter at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 16) and nailed all three kickoffs deep into the end zone for touchbacks ... hero of 16-13 victory at Baltimore (Nov. 23) with field goals of 22 yards (second quarter), 27 yards (third quarter), and a 43-yard game-winner as time expired ... also kicked off well with four kickoffs—one touchback—as Raven drives started at their 20-, 2-, 20- and 19-yard lines ... converted from 32 and 19 yards in regulation vs. Pittsburgh (Nov. 30), but missed a 46-yarder near end of game for potential game-winner in eventual 26-20 overtime defeat ... sailed five kickoffs into end zone in 29-26 season finale win over Atlanta (Dec. 21), two good for touchbacks, as Atlanta drives after his kickoffs began at their 7-, 27-, 20-, and 20-yard lines. ■1996: Impressive rookie season for Miami with 89 points ... converted 18 of 29 field goals and 35 of 36 points after touchdown ... finished first in the AFC and tied with N.Y. Giant kicker Brad Daluiso for NFL lead with 20 touchbacks on kickoffs ... signed with Miami on March 29 ... in first NFL game, made 34-yard field goal and added three extra points in 24-10 win over New England (Sept. 1) ... followed with career-high five extra points and a 36-yard field goal in 38-10 win at Arizona (Sept. 8) ... sealed 36-27 win over N.Y. Jets (Sept. 15) with 29-yard field goal with just under two minutes left ... missed an extra point vs. Jets to break a string of 120 consecutive successful extra points by Dolphin kickers, the last miss on Dec. 20, 1992 vs. Jets ... accounted for all six Miami points in 10-6 loss at Indianapolis (Sept. 23) ... converted all five points after touchdown in 37-13 win over Indianapolis (Nov. 10) ... booted field goals of 34, 44 (career long), and 29 yards in 23-20 win at Houston (Nov. 17), the latter a game-winner as the clock expired ... three field goals and 11 points vs. Oilers were career single-game bests ... followed

■ Pro Career: Hometown hero who starred as a collegian at Arizona State University ... established himself, to quote former San Francisco 49er Head Coach and Pro Football Hall of Famer Bill Walsh, as " ... one of the bright, young stars in the NFL in years to come ... " with a memorable rookie season ... opened the season as the third quarterback behind starter Kent Graham and backup Stoney Case ... after Graham started the first six games and yielded to Case due to a knee injury, Plummer received his first NFL action in week seven at Philadelphia (Oct. 19) ... he never looked back ... in 10 appearances (nine starts), recorded Cardinal rookie passing records by completing 157 of 296 passes (53 percent) for 2,203 yards and 15 touchdowns with 15 interceptions ...

sacked 52 times during rookie season (-291 yards) in 10 games (nine starts) ... in what amounted to little more than one-half of a season, nearly equalled the season touchdown pass totals of such marquee quarterbacks as San Francisco's Steve Young (19), Dallas' Troy Aikman (19), Detroit's Scott Mitchell (19), Jacksonville's Mark Brunell (18), Baltimore's Vinny Testaverde (18), Washington's Gus Frerotte (17), and Miami's Dan Marino (16) ... average per attempt of 7.44 yards ranked sixth in the league, bettering Denver's John Elway (7.24), New England's Drew Bledsoe (7.10), Seattle's Warren Moon (6.97), Marino (6.90), Pittsburgh's Kordell Stewart (6.86), Mitchell (6.84), Minnesota's Rob Johnson (6.72), Frerotte (6.67), Tampa Bay's Trent Dilfer (6.62), Tennessee's Steve McNair (6.42), Aikman (6.34), Chicago's Erik Kramer (6.31), and the N.Y. Giants' Danny Kanell (5.92) ... led the league with an average-per-completion mark of 14 yards, a full one-half yard ahead of Oakland Raiders' renowned long-baller Jeff George (13.5) ... in just his fourth NFL start against the N.Y. Giants at the Meadowlands (Nov. 16), set an NFL rookie single-game passing record with 388 yards, breaking Aikman's previous mark (379 yards) established against the Cardinals in 1989 ... four touchdown passes vs. Washington (Dec. 7) were most by NFL rookie since Bledsoe also notched four in 1993 ... joined Aikman, Bledsoe, and Jim Plunkett as the only NFL quarterbacks to throw four touchdown passes in one game as a rookie (all three later led their teams to the Super Bowl) ... named NFC offensive rookie-of-the-month for November with 76 completions in 133 attempts (57.1 percent) for 1,156 yards and five touchdowns, a passer rating of 82.7 ... opened season as number three signal-caller behind Graham and Case ... concluded preseason play with 16 completions in 43 attempts for 218 yards with four interceptions ... inactive third quarterback first five games ... provided a spark at Philadelphia (Oct. 19) as Card offense faltered into the fourth quarter ... entered game at 10:26 of the fourth quarter in hostile, loud Veterans Stadium with the ball on the Cards' two-yard line ... marched the Cards 28 yards for a touchdown in 14 plays, the longest touchdown drive in the NFL in 1997, in his first NFL series ... after Larry Centers bolted for an eight-yard gain, converted third-and-two play with five-yard gain on rollout ... capped by a 31-yard slant pass to wide receiver Kevin Williams for a touchdown that gave the Cards a 10-7 lead with 3:07 left to play ... after Cards won the overtime coin toss, scrambled 18 yards to the Eagle 40-yard line on the first play from scrimmage ... on next play he was whistled for intentional grounding when his pass attempt hit Centers' feet, pushing the ball back to the Card 43-yard line ... the Cards punted and Philadelphia drove for the game-winning field goal and its 13-10 win ... forgettable first NFL start the following week vs. Tennessee (Oct. 26) in Sun Devil Stadium with 21 completions in 40 attempts for 195 yards ... threw four interceptions, lost a fumble, and sacked six times ... managed two touchdown passes to wide receiver Rob Moore (12, 2 yards) and recorded 34 yards rushing on six attempts ... struggled in first half against constant Oiler blitzes with 5-13-56 effort along with three interceptions, the first of which was returned 39 yards for a touchdown by Oiler cornerback Denard Walker ... second consecutive start in return match vs. Eagles (Nov. 2) ... struggled through three quarters ... Graham relieved him in the fourth period of Cards' 31-21 victory ... connected with Moore on impressive 31-yard scoring strike in third quarter ... completed 13 of 22 attempts for 148 yards at Dallas (Nov. 9) and gained 51 yards on seven rushing attempts, but suffered eight sacks ... established NFL rookie passing mark at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 16) with 388 yards on 22 completions in 33 attempts ... impressive 9-11-133 first half and guided Cards to six of nine third-down conversion success ... answered with 12 of 22 for 255 yards in second half ... scrambled away from pressure for 70-yard scoring toss to wide receiver Frank Sanders on third play of the second half, Arizona's longest play from scrimmage in 1997 ... endured another pounding with eight sacks, pushing his total to 16 over two games ... fought through frustrating first half at Baltimore (Nov. 23) with just 7-15-64 and two sacks ... responded in second half to connect with Sanders on four-yard touchdown pass on fourth down with four minutes left in the game ... took Cards 55 yards in six plays and 34 seconds with four completions in five attempts to set up game-winning 43-yard field goal ... also suffered just two sacks after hitting the turf 16 times in previous two games ... endured rough first half with just three completions in nine attempts for 53 yards and sacked five times vs. Pittsburgh (Nov. 30) ... bounced back in second half with 12-17-217 and two passing touchdowns, including one stretch of eight consecutive completions (two in second quarter, six in third quarter) ... guided Cards to touchdowns on first two possessions of second half with seven completions in eight attempts for 61 yards with scoring tosses to Sanders (three yards) and tight end Chris Gedney (11 yards) ... sacked by Steelers for team single-game high 10 times as Cards pushed sack total to team single-season mark of 66 ... smoked Washington's fourth-ranked pass defense, including talented cornerbacks Darrell Green and Cris Dishman, for 337 yards and four touchdowns vs. Redskins (Dec. 7) ... brought Cards back from numerous deficits along the way ... faced with a 17-0 hole in second quarter, took Arizona to two quick scores to narrow the lead to 17-14 at the half ... highlight of the game was a 37-yard touchdown toss to tight end Gedney in third quarter when Plummer rolled out on a naked bootleg, juiced a Redskin defender in the flat, and delivered a perfect throw to the middle of the field ... saw Dishman return a third-quarter interception 29 yards for a touchdown and lost a fumble on a sack midway through the fourth quarter as Washington converted the turnover into a 38-28 lead ... became only the fourth rookie in NFL history to throw four touchdowns in a game (Rob Moore, 3; Gedney, 1, joining Plunkett, Aikman, and Bledsoe, all of whom led their clubs to eventual Super Bowl appearances ... cruised through impressive first half at New Orleans (Dec. 14) with 13-21-142 and sacked just once ... guided Cards on impressive 15-play, 80-yard scoring march to open the game and stake Arizona to a 7-0 lead ... scrambled 10 yards for his first rushing touchdown as a pro to cap the drive in run reminiscent of his Rose Bowl touchdown against Ohio State as he stepped around numerous defenders and dove head first into the end zone ... in second half, however, managed just four pass completions in 16 attempts for 38 yards and 4 sacks, 1 fumble, and 2 interceptions ... also fumbled on a sack inside the Saints five-yard line near the end of the first half ... threw first NFL pass reception to himself when he snared a batted pass on the same series in second period ... turned in a memorable performance in the season finale against Atlanta (Dec. 21) ... though he completed just nine of 20 attempts in the first half, tossed a one-yard scoring pass to Gedney and vaulted over from the one-yard line in the second quarter ... after a single possession in the third quarter that resulted in two incomplete passes and a sack, regrouped for an scintillating fourth-quarter comeback ... trailing 26-14 with less than eight minutes remaining, guided Cards 69 yards in eight plays with a 21-yard scoring toss to Moore to cut the lead to 26-21 with five minutes left ... worked his magic on a 12-play, 80-yard drive in the final two minutes, highlighted by a four-yard run to convert a fourth-and-one situation with 24 seconds left, and connected with Centers for a one-yard touchdown pass with nine ticks left on the clock for a 27-26 advantage ... capped the improbable finish with a two-point conversion run on the following play for the 29-26 final.

■ College/Personal: Captured hearts and imagination of college football fans nationwide with his exciting, improvisational style that carried Arizona State to an undefeated 1996 regular season and the Rose Bowl ... third in the Heisman Trophy balloting, the highest finish for a Pac-10 Conference player since Washington defensive tackle Steve Emtman placed fourth in 1991 ... rare four-year starting quarterback as a collegian who started 40 consecutive games ... 15-8 as a starter in Sun Devil Stadium (.652) ... arguably rates as the most popular football player in Sun Devil history ... the Cardinals' second-round (42nd overall) draft choice and the second quarterback selected behind Jim Druckenmiller of Virginia Tech, (San Francisco, first round, 26th overall) ... holds A.S.U. career records for completions (632), pass attempts (1,142), and passing yards (8,827) ... the latter surpassed the mark (6,717 yards) of future Dallas Cowboy great Danny White (1971-73) ... Plummer's 65 touchdown passes also surpassed White's Sun Devil record ... only Steve Stenstrom of Stanford (75 touchdowns, 1991-94) and John Elway of Stanford (77 touchdowns, 1979-82) have thrown more touchdown passes in Pac-10 Conference history ... consensus all-America selection and unanimous Pac-10 offensive player-of-the-year as a senior ... first A.S.U. player named Pac-10 Conference player-of-the-year ... completed 198 of 348 passes (56.9 percent) for 2,776 yards and 24 touchdowns ... also scored four touchdowns on 95 rushing attempts and posted a pivotal 16-yard touchdown reception at UCLA ... led the Sun Devils to a stunning 19-0 shutout of defending national champion Nebraska at Sun Devil Stadium, completing 20 of 36 passes for 292 yards ... it marked the Cornhuskers' first loss since the 1993 Orange Bowl and their first regular-season setback since a 19-10 defeat to Iowa State in 1992 ... the outcome also marked only the second time during Tom Osborne's 24-year Cornhusker coaching career his team was shut out ... first team all-Pac-10 Conference honors as a junior with 173 completions in 301 attempts for 2,222 yards and 17 touchdowns ... first true freshman quarterback in 1993 to start at Arizona State since John Walker in 1984 ... led A.S.U. to a 4-2 record as a freshman starter, including wins in four of the last five outings ... prep all-America at Capital High School in Boise, Idaho ... passed for 6,097 yards and 68 touchdowns in his final two years ... completed 205 of 297 passes (69 percent) and rushed for 645 yards and 10 scores as a senior ... two-time all-Idaho selection as quarterback and punter ... captained football and baseball teams as a senior ... brother, Brett, holds Brown University's 800-meter dash record ... recreation major at Arizona State ... born December 19, 1974 in Boise ... given name is Jason Steven Plummer.■

in the NFC ... followed 65-tackle effort in '96 with 58 tackles, 5 sacks, and career-best 18 hurries last year. ... University of Illinois teammate Kevin Hardy selected by Jacksonville one slot ahead of Rice (second overall) in the 1996 NFL Draft. ■1997: Started all but the season finale ... battled through effects of training-camp virus when he lost 15 pounds and missed the entire preseason ... finished sophomore season with 58 tackles (32 solo), 5 quarterback sacks, team-high 18 hurries, 4 tackles for loss, 1 interception, and 1 forced fumble ... also knocked down six passes at the line of scrimmage ... three sacks in first two games pushed his 20-game total to 15.5 sacks, just one sack short of O'Neal's league record of 16.5 sacks in his first 20 pro games (1985-86) ... hospitalized in Phoenix with virus two days into training camp ... though stamina was a concern due to the virus, still managed three tackles and a sack in season opener at Cincinnati (Aug. 31) ... eight tackles in 25-22 overtime victory vs. Dallas (Sept. 7), highlighted by two sacks against talented Dallas left tackle Mark Tuinei ... four stops and provided a new wrinkle for the Card defense as he opened the game as a stand-up defensive end at Tampa Bay (Sept. 28) ... Cards' defensive alignment featured three down linemen, two stand-up ends, three linebackers, and three defensive backs as Arizona held Bucs to no first downs rushing and shut down both Warrick Dunn (10-27) and Mike Alstott (8-27) ... notched his fourth sack of the season and added two tackles vs. Minnesota (Oct. 5) ... tallied seven tackles and made a diving interception in the first quarter at Philadelphia (Oct. 19) when outside linebacker Jamir Miller pressured Eagle passer Rodney Peete into a hurried throw ... productive and active day vs. Tennessee (Oct. 26) with 7 tackles, 4 hurries, and 1 deflected pass ... similar to his play against Tampa Bay four weeks earlier, lined up periodically as a stand-up defensive end and flipped from side to side ... contributed to 31-21 victory over Philadelphia (Nov. 2) with 7 tackles, 1 sack, 2 quarterback hurries, 2 tackles for loss, 1 deflected pass, and 1 forced fumble (Eagle passer Rodney Peete) ... though only two tackles at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 16), knocked down three passes at the line of scrimmage ... in a classic battle with Pro Bowl tackle Jonathan Ogden at Baltimore (Nov. 23), posted five overall tackles and logged five hurries of Raven passer Vinny Testaverde in 16-13 Cardinal win ... three assists and a pair of hurries on quarterback Kordell Stewart vs. Pittsburgh (Nov. 30) ... finished season with no tackles in final three games vs. Washington (Dec. 7), at New Orleans (Dec. 14), and vs. Atlanta (Dec. 21), the first times in his career he had been shut out of the tackle column. ■1996: Named NFL defensive rookie-of-the-month for September, collecting 18 tackles, 5 sacks, 6 hurries, 2 tackles for loss, 1 forced fumble, and 1 fumble recovery ... season statistics included 37 solo tackles and 28 assists for 65 combined tackles, 12.5 sacks, 11 hurries, 6 tackles for loss, 1 fumble recovery, 2 forced fumbles, and 3 passes defended ... opened NFL career at Indianapolis (Sept. 1) in grand fashion, nailing Colt running back Marshall Faulk for a two-yard loss on the first play of the game ... added three hurries of passer Jim Harbaugh ... followed with five tackles and his first NFL sack vs. Miami (Sept. 8), a seven-yard loss at quarterback Dan Marino's expense ... another sack at New England (Sept. 15) ... third sack and a fumble recovery to thwart a New Orleans scoring threat in 28-14 victory in the Superdome (Sept. 22) ... ran his streak of consecutive games with sacks to four in 31-28 overtime win against St. Louis (Sept. 29), finishing with 2 tackles, 2 assists, 2 sacks for minus 14 yards, and 1 strip of Ram passer Tony Banks on the final play of regulation as time expired ... four tackles, including one for loss, at Dallas (Oct. 13) ... six stops and two pressures against talented Buccaneer tackle Paul Gruber in 13-9 win over Tampa Bay (Oct. 20) ... four solo tackles and knocked Giant passer Dave Brown out of the game with a first-quarter sack at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 3) ... followed with two more sacks in return match vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 17), a 31-23 Card victory ... key sack at Cards' 39-yard line vs. Philadelphia (Nov. 24) that forced Eagles to punt from midfield in 36-30 Arizona win ... one sack at Minnesota (Dec. 1) ... three tackles, a sack of Dallas passer Troy Aikman, and a tackle for loss vs. Dallas (Dec. 8) ... in addition to four tackles and two passes defended in 27-26 comeback victory over Washington (Dec. 15), collected two sacks of quarterback Gus Frerotte in the third quarter ... managed one solo tackle and one assist in season finale at Philadelphia (Dec. 22), marking the first time in six games he did not register a sack. ■College/Personal: Two-time all-America at Illinois with 45 career quarterback sacks, shattering the previous Illini record of 23 by Scott Davis (1983-87) ... also broke Big Ten Conference sack record of 36 by Mark Messner of Michigan (1985-88) ... consensus junior all-America who opted to return to school for his senior year rather than turn professional ... school-record 16 sacks as a junior and 12 as a senior as he and Hardy terrorized opponents ... recorded five sacks against Washington as a junior ... all-Illinois selection at Chicago's Mt. Carmel High School ... led squad to 26-2 mark and pair of Illinois 5-A titles ... prep track teammate of current Syracuse quarterback Donovan McNabb ... speech communications major at Illinois where he earned his degree in May, 1996 born February 24, 1974 in Chicago.■

■ Pro Career: Day-one starter as a rookie in 1995 ... immediately stepped into starting role with the confidence and flair of a veteran ... 196 career receptions is the most by a Cardinal in his first three seasons ... the 196 catches have covered 2,713 yards and included 10 touchdowns ... starts in 47 of 48 games ... 75 grabs last year, his career best, ranking 10th on the team's all-time single-season list ... 69 receptions as a sophomore in 1996 were the most by a second-year Cardinal and ranked 11th in one-season receptions ... last year's 31 catches on third down led the NFL.

■ 1997: Strong junior season with 75 pass receptions for 1,017 yards (13.6-yard average) and four touchdowns ... in tandem with Pro Bowl wide receiver Rob Moore (97 receptions), the pair's combined 172 grabs ranked second in the NFL to Detroit's duo of Herman Moore and Johnnie Morton (184) and became the first pair of Cardinal wide receivers to each crack the 1,000-yard barrier in the same season ... on receiving end of Cards' two longest plays form scrimmage—career-long 70-yard touchdown grab and a 52-yard catch ... opened season in grand fashion at Cincinnati (Aug. 31) with six receptions for 105 yards, including five grabs for 90 yards in first half ... five of his receptions were good for first downs, including four to convert third-down plays for first downs ... caught only two passes for 12 yards in first half vs. Dallas (Sept. 7), but logged five receptions for 32 yards in second half of 25-22 overtime victory ... caught seven-yard scoring toss from quarterback Kent Graham in third quarter to bring Cards within 22-14, then snared six-yard toss on third-and-five play in fourth quarter for first down in game-tying drive ... five receptions for 60 yards at Tampa Bay (Sept. 28) ... just missed a 100-yard day with seven catches for 99 yards vs. Minnesota (Oct. 5) ... highlight was 42-yarder to the Viking three-yard line in third quarter, and a spectacular one-handed catch in second quarter for 10 yards to convert third-and-10 play that made numerous highlight packages ... led club with six receptions (59 yards) vs. N.Y. Giants (Oct. 12) ... held to one grab for eight yards at Philadelphia (Oct. 19) ... rebounded the following week vs. Tennessee (Oct. 26) to snare career-best 10 pass receptions (98 yards), including four grabs in third quarter ... held to one reception for nine yards in 31-21 win over Philadelphia (Nov. 2) and two for seven yards at Dallas (Nov. 9) ... bounced back the next week at the Meadowlands for career single-game high 188 yards on nine receptions, including a 70-yard scoring toss from quarterback Jake Plummer on the third play of the second half at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 16) ... only two receptions in 16-13 win at Baltimore (Nov. 23), but came through with clutch four-yard grab from Plummer on fourth-down play midway in fourth quarter to give Cards 13-10 lead ... after being shut out in first half vs. Pittsburgh (Nov. 30), answered with four grabs for 71 yards in second half, including a three-yard touchdown toss from Plummer in third period to tie game at 10-10 ... set up the score with consecutive connections with Plummer of 11 and 32 yards to the three-yard line ... on Cards' next possession, took reverse handoff from R. Moore, then connected with Moore on a pass good for 26 yards to the Steeler 23-yard line as Cards tied game at 17-10 three plays later ... streaked for a 52-yard reception to set up Cards' first touchdown in second quarter vs. Washington (Dec. 7), then converted a third-and-10 play with a 29-yard grab in third period as Cards scored on next play to narrow deficit to 24-21 in eventual 38-28 defeat ... set up Cards' first score vs. Atlanta (Dec. 21) with a 44-yard catch and run in first quarter, but was stopped just short of the end zone at the one-yard line as Cards tied the game at 7-7 three plays later ... converted key third-and-10 play with 14-yard reception in fourth quarter scoring drive that brought Cards within 26-21, then came through with 12-yard gain on third-and-11 play in game-winning drive later in the period in 29-26 victory in season finale. ■1996: Turned in one of the top second-year offensive efforts in franchise history with 813 yards receiving on 69 catches (11.8-yard average) and four touchdowns ... caught five or more passes in eight games, including eight catches vs. Miami (Sept. 8) ... led team with seven receptions for 72 yards, five for 51 in the first half, in the season opener at Indianapolis (Sept. 1) ... followed with eight catches for 81 yards vs. the Dolphins as Miami held Arizona to just 27 yards rushing ... snared 22-yarder on the first play of the game at New Orleans (Sept. 22), then added a key 12-yard catch in third-quarter scoring drive in 28-14 victory ... grabbed five-yard scoring toss from quarterback Kent Graham on fourth down with 11 seconds to play, tying the game at 28-28 vs. St. Louis (Sept. 29) in eventual 31-28 overtime win ... converted third-and-long situations with catches of 14 and 12 yards in two scoring drives to aid 13-9 win over Tampa Bay (Oct. 20) ... scored team's only points of game on seven-yard touchdown strike from Boomer Esiason at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 3) ... five receptions for 72 yards in second half of 37-34 overtime win at Washington (Nov. 10), including fourth-quarter grabs of 16 and 18 yards and a 25-yarder to convert third-down play in overtime scoring drive ... paced team with five receptions for 49 yards and a score in 31-23 win over N.Y. CARDINALS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

■ Pro Career: One of the NFL's premier cornerbacks ... Pro Bowl starter the past four seasons ... NFL co-leader in interceptions in 1994 with nine pickoffs ... led or tied for the NFC interception lead among cornerbacks three times (1991-6, 1994-9, 1997-6) in seven NFL seasons

... five-time Cardinal interception leader (1991-'94-97), including the past four campaigns ... blends talent with impeccable work ethic, physical conditioning, and mental toughness ... Cardinal starter since rookie arrival in 1991, performing like a seasoned veteran immediately ... 109 consecutive starts ... after outstanding rookie season, recovered from rough start in 1992 to reestablish himself as one of the top cover corners in the NFC ... continued that level of play the past five seasons ... six career interception returns for touchdowns a Cardinal team record ... scored as many touchdowns (two interceptions, one blocked field goal) as the Cardinal offense did rushing—three—in 1995 ... although known for interceptions, also recovered at least one fumble in each of his first six NFL seasons. ■ 1997: Breezed to his fourth Pro Bowl berth and stretched his string of consecutive starts to 109 ... tied for third in NFL with six interceptions ... returned two interceptions for touchdowns to raise his career total to six, breaking Hall of Famer Larry Wilson's Cardinal career record of five (1960-72) ... selected 1997 defensive back-of-the-year by NFL Alumni ... also contributed 70 tackles (39 solo), 17 passes defended, 2 quarterback pressures, and 1 forced fumble ... named NFC defensive player-of-the-week for his work against Cowboy wide receiver Michael Irvin following Cards' 25-22 upset win over Dallas (Sept. 7) ... posted first interception of the season in second quarter ... limited the perennial Pro Bowler Irvin to just four receptions and 18 yards, his lowest average-per-catch mark in a game since 1991, in thrilling 25-22 overtime win over Cowboys ... Irvin caught his final pass with two minutes gone in the third period as Williams shut him out for the final 12 minutes of the third quarter, all 15 minutes of the fourth quarter, and eight minutes of overtime, a combined total of 36 minutes ... returned a third-quarter interception 42 yards for the fifth touchdown of his career at Tampa Bay (Sept. 28) and added six tackles and batted away two passes ... third interception of the season with five tackles and a forced fumble vs. Minnesota (Oct. 5) ... left game in first half with jammed neck, but returned in the second half to finish the contest ... returned a second-quarter interception 30 yards vs. N.Y. Giants (Oct. 12) for his sixth career touchdown via interception return, breaking the team record held by Wilson ... added four solo stops and a pair of assists ... three tackles in 31-21 win over Philadelphia (Nov. 2) and limited Eagle receiver Irving Fryar to two receptions before leaving the game in the fourth quarter with an ankle/foot injury ... again harnessed Irvin to just two receptions (16 and 20 yards) in return match at Dallas (Nov. 9) with three solo stops ... quiet but effective day in 16-13 win at Baltimore (Nov. 23) with four tackles as Raven passer Vinny Testaverde was held to just 193 yards passing and the leading receiver was fullback Bam Morris (six receptions) ... five tackles and batted away two passes vs. Pittsburgh (Nov. 30) ... picked off Redskin passer Jeff Hostetler in the first quarter vs. Washington (Dec. 7), collected six tackles, and batted away another pass later in game ... left contest midway in the fourth period with jammed neck and did not return ... thrown at just one time at New Orleans (Dec. 14) and intercepted in the end zone ... three solo tackles and one assist in 29-26 season finale victory over Atlanta (Dec. 21). ■ 1996: Forged splendid season with third consecutive Pro Bowl appearance and career-high 74 combined tackles ... also added 20 passes defended, 6 interceptions, 1 sack, and 1 fumble recovery ... three tackles in opener at Indianapolis (Sept. 1) ... recovered a fumble by Dolphin running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar on first play of second half vs. Miami (Sept. 8) ... in New Orleans homecoming, made two tackles and swatted away two passes in 28-14 win over the Saints (Sept. 22) ... in classic match at Texas Stadium (Oct. 13), went head-to-head with Irvin in the Dallas star's first game following a five-week league-imposed suspension ... held Irvin to 51 yards receiving on five catches and a long reception of only 13 yards, pulled down an interception, batted away two passes, and posted seven tackles ... four tackles and four deflected passes vs. Tampa Bay (Oct. 20), including one pass in the end zone to thwart a Buccaneer scoring threat and another on the final play of the game to seal the 13-9 victory ... fourth career double-interception game with a pair of thefts vs. N.Y. Jets (Oct. 27) ... six tackles at Washington (Nov. 10) and matched favorably with Henry Ellard who managed just one reception for 19 yards ... fine all-round game in 36-30 win over Philadelphia (Nov. 24) with nine tackles, his fifth interception of the season, and a key sack near midfield in the second quarter to force a punt ... in return outing against Dallas (Dec. 8), Irvin answered the call with eight receptions for 198 yards and a touchdown ... five tackles and swatted down two passes in 27-26 win over Washington (Dec. 15) ... placed an exclamation point on his season with a 65-yard interception return for a touchdown in fourth quarter at Philadelphia (Dec. 22). ■1995: Second consecutive Pro Bowl berth ... consensus all-pro notice from Associated Press, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, Pro Football Weekly, the Pro Football Writers Association, The Sporting News, and USA Today ... second team choice by Football Digest ... also named all-NFC by Football News and United Press International ... 46.5 solo tackles, 11 assists, 6 interceptions, 12 deflected passes, and 2 recovered fumbles ... scored three touchdowns—interception returns of 28 and 48 yards, and a blocked field-goal return of 72 yards ... six interceptions tied him with nine other players for fifth in the NFL ... five solo stops in the season opener at Washington (Sept. 3) ... four tackles the following week vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 10) ... sustained a mild knee sprain at Dallas (Sept. 24) and left the game in the second quarter ... 4 tackles, 3 deflected passes, and 1 interception return, a 28-yarder off quarterback Gus Frerotte for a touchdown to give the Cards a 10-7 lead in the second quarter of their 24-20 victory over Washington (Oct. 15) ... heroic effort in 20-14 overtime win vs. Seattle (Oct. 29) with a first-quarter interception, fourth-quarter fumble recovery, and two of the season's top hustle plays ... ran down Seahawk running back Lamar Smith from behind after a 68-yard run ... teamed with fellow defensive back Brent Alexander to strip Seattle's Chris Warren of the ball inside the Arizona 10-yard line after a 52-yard fourth-quarter run, preventing what could have been the game-winning points ... Williams recovered Warren's fumble in the Cardinals' end zone ... four tackles and three deflected passes vs. Minnesota (Nov. 12) ... scooped a field-goal attempt blocked by teammate Seth Joyner and raced 72 yards for six points on the final play of the first half at Carolina (Nov. 19) ... authored key play vs. Atlanta (Nov. 26) when he stripped Falcon punter Dan Stryzinski of the ball on a fumbled snap in overtime to set the table for a 28-yard game-winning field goal on the next play in Arizona's 40-37 triumph ... four takeaways at San Diego (Dec. 9)—two second-quarter fumble recoveries and interceptions in the third and fourth periods ... added six tackles against the Chargers ... fifth interception of the season at Philadelphia (Dec. 17) but a mild knee sprain limited him to reserve duty in the second half ... returned an interception of Aikman 48 yards for his third touchdown of the season and posted eight tackles in Christmas night season finale vs. Dallas (Dec. 25). ■1994: Earned first Pro Bowl honor when he tied Cleveland safety Eric Turner for the NFL lead with nine interceptions ... nearest competitor among cornerbacks was the trio of San Francisco's Merton Hanks, L.A. Raiders' Terry McDaniel, and New England's Maurice Hurst, all with seven interceptions ... the nine pickoffs matched the Cardinals' entire team total of 1993 ... first team all-pro honors from Sports Illustrated and USA Today ... second-team notice from Associated Press, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, and Football Digest ... all-NFC acclaim by Football News and United Press International ... flourished in new Head Coach Buddy Ryan's pressure-minded defensive scheme that isolated the cornerbacks ... responded to the challenge with the most interceptions (nine) by a Cardinal since safety Ken Stone in 1978 and the most by a Cardinal cornerback since Pat Fischer collected 10 in 1964 ... four interceptions during the months of October and November ... 46 tackles, 1 recovered fumble, and 16 deflected passes ... blocked a fourth-quarter punt in the home opener vs. the N.Y. Giants (Sept. 11) to set up the Cards' final score and close the Giants' lead to 20-17 ... squelched Cleveland's opening drive with his first interception at the Cards' 22-yard line in loss to Browns (Sept. 18) ... added six tackles ... four tackles, batted away one pass, and halted a Minnesota scoring drive at the Cardinal 20-yard line with a 21-yard return of his second interception of the season in 17-7 victory (Oct. 2) ... along with bookend cornerback James Williams, collected two interceptions in 19-16 overtime win at Washington (Oct. 16) to highlight effort that earned NFC defensive player-of-the-week honors ... first halted a Redskin scoring drive at the 16-yard line, then returned his second interception 43 yards to the 22-yard line to set up a fourth-quarter touchdown and bring the Cards within five points ... also recovered a blocked field goal in overtime ... frequently matched against Irvin, posting two tackles, two pass deflections, including an impressive "jump ball" against the taller Irvin in 28-21 loss (Oct. 23) ... set up Cards' opening touchdown with first-quarter interception in 20-17 overtime victory over Pittsburgh (Oct. 30) ... though he posted just two tackles, swatted away two passes as Giants completed just nine of 26 attempts in 10-9 Arizona victory at the Meadowlands (Nov. 13), the Cards' first victory at Giants Stadium since 1983 ... after Eagle receiver Fred Barnett burned the Cardinals for 11 receptions, 173 yards, and two touchdowns in the season's first meeting, Williams covered Barnett one-on-one in the rematch in Arizona, rising to the challenge to harness Barnett to four catches for 24 yards in Cards' 12-6 win over Philadelphia (Nov. 20) ... also pulled down an interception at the goal line to halt an Eagle drive and recovered a Herschel Walker fumble in Cardinal territory with nine minutes left in the game to preserve a 9-3 lead ... snuffed a Chicago drive with his seventh interception of the season at the 26-yard line vs. Bears (Nov. 27) ... eighth theft of the season and knocked away two passes in 30-12 victory at Houston (Dec. 4) ... ended a Redskin scoring threat with a goal-line interception near the end of the first half to preserve a 7-6 lead in 17-15 win over Washington (Dec. 11) ... swatted away four passes in 28-7 victory over Cincinnati (Dec. 18) ... closed season with five tackles at Atlanta (Dec. 24). ■1993: Complemented a steady, reliable performance at left cornerback with big-play ability to generate 42 tackles, 2 interceptions, 15 passes defended, 2 hurries, and 2 fumble recoveries ... memorable effort against New Orleans, his hometown team, with his first two professional touchdowns—a 20-yard fumble return in the first quarter, then a zig-zagging 46-yard return with a second-quarter interception off Saints' quarterback Bobby Hebert ... Williams' 12 points outsourced seven NFL teams that day ... also added four tackles and knocked away a pass ... during the course of the season, his unheralded effectiveness was a key to a Cards' defense which allowed just 14 touchdown passes, tying for fourth in the league ... called upon for just 12 tackles and three passes defended over first six contests ... set up Cards' only touchdown with 41-yard interception return in first quarter of 16-3 victory over Philadelphia (Nov. 7) ... four solo stops and swatted away two passes at Dallas (Nov. 14) ... impressive play came when Cowboy running back Emmitt Smith broke three tackles to turn a seven-yard gain into a footrace, but Williams caught the Dallas Pro Bowler from behind to stop an 86-yard pass play at the two-yard line, running through field judge Don Orr near midfield to make the play ... underscored his "never-say-quit" attitude again the following week at the N.Y. Giants (Nov. 21) by chasing down Giants' running back Rodney Hampton after a 62-yard gain, forcing him out of bounds at the 11-yard line ... two solo stops, knocked away a pass, and recovered a fumble to stop a Lion scoring drive at the Cards' 25-yard line vs. Detroit (Dec. 12) ... pair of tackles, a pass defended, and two hurries on blitzes from his corner spot in 17-6 victory vs. the N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26). ■1992: Rebounded admirably from a trying start during his sophomore season to finish impressively ... started all 16 games at right cornerback, posting 48 tackles, a team-high 13 passes defended, 3 interceptions, 1 fumble recovery, and 1 forced fumble ... after just 10 tackles (none in two contests) and only three passes defended in the first five outings, regrouped to collect 38 stops, 3 interceptions, and 10 pass deflections in the last 11 games as a key element in the Cardinals' defensive resurgence ... broke slump with his first interception and three passes defended at Philadelphia (Oct. 25) as the Eagles managed just nine pass completions ... appeared to be headed for the end zone on the interception but was stopped short when he ran into a roadblock of an Eagle player and a game official near the goal line ... two touchdowns nullified by officials' rulings ... scooped a fumble and raced 61 yards for an apparent game-winning score in fourth quarter at L.A. Rams (Nov. 8), but touchdown was nullified when teammate Eric Swann was flagged for an illegal block during Williams' return ... Cards scored the go-ahead touchdown on the ensuing possession in 20-14 victory ... two weeks later vs. Dallas (Nov. 22), made diving interception and raced 78 yards for another potential touchdown and 14-3 Cardinal lead, but he was ruled down by contact ... also posted seven tackles vs. Cowboys ... played solid game in 19-0 shutout over N.Y. Giants (Dec. 12) with three solo tackles and two passes defended as Giants completed just nine of 25 pass attempts ... five solo stops and fourth-quarter interception in season finale vs. Tampa Bay (Dec. 27). ■1991: Posted one of the most memorable performances by an NFL rookie cornerback in recent seasons ... named NFC defensive rookie-of-the-year by the NFL Players' Association ... consensus all-rookie selection at cornerback ... six interceptions gave him a share of the NFC lead, making him the first rookie cornerback to achieve that notoriety since the Cowboys' Everson Walls (11) in 1981 ... prior to that, the last rookie to turn the trick was Detroit Hall of Famer Lem Burney (10) in 1967 ... additionally, posted 48 tackles, 17 passes defended, and 2 forced fumbles ... lined up for 852 of 967 defensive snaps to rank second in playing time to free safety Michael Zordich (861) among Cardinal defensive backs ... in first NFL start, collected three tackles, an interception, and batted away four passes in Cards' 24-14 victory at L.A. Rams (Sept. 1) ... second interception the following week against the Eagles (Sept. 8), and made fumble recovery in end zone ... both efforts thwarted Philadelphia scoring drives in 26-10 victory at Veterans Stadium ... did not start at Washington (Sept. 15) due to ankle sprain but still saw duty as reserve ... seven tackles and a pass defended at the N.Y. Giants (Oct. 6) ... played all 55 defensive snaps and collected three tackles and batted away a pair of passes against Atlanta's "Red Gun" offense in 16-10 Cardinal victory (Oct. 20) ... added third theft of season at Dallas (Nov. 3) along with four tackles ... tallied fourth interception of season and swatted away two other passes vs. Philadelphia (Nov. 24) ... picked off John Elway twice at Denver (Dec. 15), both times setting up Cardinal scores ... finished impressive rookie season with five tackles vs. New Orleans (Dec. 22) in season finale. ■College/Personal: Former walk-on at Southern in 1988 who shared national lead in interceptions with 11 as a senior in 1990 ... ranked second with seven as a junior ... 218 tackles, 20 interceptions, and 25 pass deflections in three collegiate seasons ... as football walk-on during his sophomore year, he earned a starting role by the fifth game of the season ... all-district most valuable player at Fortier High School in his native New Orleans, Louisiana ... in talent-rich New Orleans, he played against or with five future NFL defensive backs—Maurice Hurst (New England), Kevin Lewis (San Francisco), Garry Lewis (L.A. Raiders), Michael Lindsey (L.A. Rams), and Ashley Ambrose (Indianapolis) ... Ambrose, Hurst, K. Lewis, and Williams attended Alcee Fortier High School together ... father Lawrence George Williams, a laboratory supervisor for Union Carbide, gave Williams his unusual first name to avoid saddling him, along with his brother, Achilles, with common monikers similar to his own ... declined academic scholarship to Dartmouth to follow his father and brother to Southern ... enrolled at Southern to pursue interest in student government, not football ... a freshman senator and sophomore class vice president at Southern ... earned bachelor's degree in accounting from Southern in four years with a 3.2 grade-point average ... enrolled in graduate school when drafted by Cardinals ... to underscore his conditioning dedication, Williams was the only Cardinal to post a sub-2:00 time when new Arizona Head Coach Buddy Ryan held a mandatory pre-training camp 880-yard run, posting an impressive 1:58 time on July 6, 1994 ... wife Tracy holds a master's degree of business administration in agricultural economics from the University of Illinois ... the couple resides in Phoenix with daughter Saenea (March 26, 1997).■

■Pro Career: Versatile and experienced offensive lineman ... overcame injury bugaboo to start all 16 games at right tackle in 1996 and nine of 15 outings last year ... injuries to teammates prompted him to play three different positions on the offensive line as a rookie in 1989 ... opened the 1991 season at left guard, but limited to eight games due to torn pectoral muscle ... suffered the same injury to the other side of his chest in 1992, limiting him to three games and two starting roles ... suffered a broken bone in his left hand during training camp in 1993 ... broken ankle after six appearances cut short his 1995 season. ■1997: Started nine of first 11 games at right (nine games) and left (two games) tackle ... played in 15 games overall before a knee injury shelved him for the season finale ... opened season at right tackle at Cincinnati (Aug. 31) in place of injured James Dexter, out for several weeks with a preseason knee injury ... saved a near-disaster when he alertly recovered a fumble by quarterback Stoney Case 30 yards behind the line of scrimmage vs. N.Y. Giants (Oct. 12) ... started at Philadelphia (Oct. 19) but saw Dexter receive periodic action in second half ... rotated into game at tackle the next two weeks ... after Lomas Brown aggravated a foot injury in pre-game warm-ups at Dallas (Nov. 9), started game at left tackle and again lineup up on the left wide the following week at the N.Y. Giants (Nov. 16) ... Brown opened at left tackle in the following week's 16-13 win at Baltimore (Nov. 23), but Wolf came into the game periodically in second half to spell the Pro Bowler, who had passed a kidney stone just two days earlier ... relieved Dexter in second half at New Orleans (Dec. 14), but suffered a knee sprain and was placed on the injured reserve list Dec. 17. ■1996: For first time in eight-year career, started all season at one position (right tackle) ... first 16-game season since 1989 rookie year ... had not appeared in more than eight games since 1990 (15) ... inserted into front line after Ernest Dye suffered an arch sprain during the week prior to season opener ... presence contributed to offensive improvement (24th in 1995 to 12th in '96). ■1995: Saw action in first six games, primarily on special teams ... relieved Anthony Redmon at right guard vs. Kansas City (Oct. 1) ... came off the bench to replace injured left tackle Dye at the N.Y. Giants (Oct. 8) ... started at right tackle week seven vs. Washington (Oct. 15) to become the second of five different starters at the position ... screw inserted in his left ankle on October 16 after he was placed on the injured reserve list for the duration of the season. ■1994: Started final six games at right tackle after playing in just two of the first 10 contests ... Arizona forged a 4-2 record during that span ... only early-season action came at Cleveland (Sept. 18) when he played at left guard in the second half ... in his first start of the season at tackle, Cards gained 158 yards on the ground in 12-6 victory over Philadelphia (Nov. 20) ... moved from right side to left tackle late in that game in place of injured starter Luis Sharpe ... finished season in similar fashion to 1993 campaign when he opened at left guard for final five contests. ■1993: Aspirations for injury-free, productive season suffered setback with the training camp hand injury ... inactive for first three games of season ... started final five outings at left guard in place of Mark May (back injury) when Cards won four of last five contests ... opened at left guard in 38-10 win over L.A. Rams (Dec. 5), marking his first starting role in nearly one year (Dec. 12, 1992 vs. N.Y. Giants). ■1992: Spent first 12 weeks of the season on injured reserve with pectoral muscle tear on left side ... surgery to correct problem ... activated December 5 ... started immediately at right tackle vs. San Diego (Dec. 6), his first starting assignment in 21 games dating to midway through the 1991 season ... started and played briefly at right tackle in the following week's 19-0 shutout over the N.Y. Giants (Dec. 12) ... played as reserve at Indianapolis (Dec. 20) ... did not see action in season finale vs. Tampa Bay (Dec. 27). ■1991: Development (through training camp enabled club to trade long-time starting guard Derek Kennard to New Orleans as part of a deal to acquire cornerback Robert Massey ... lined up at left guard in season opener at L.A. Rams (Sept. 1), but suffered pectoral muscle tear ... hindered by the injury over the course of the next six games before being relegated to injured reserve on October 19 ... activated December 7 ... did not play in games 14-15 ... action as reserve in season finale vs. New Orleans (Dec. 22). ■1990: Action on offensive line in only two games as the Cardinal starters played 99 percent of the downs from scrimmage (4,957 of combined 5,005 possible downs at the five positions) ... came off bench briefly (24 plays) vs. New England (Nov. 25) when right tackle Tootie Robbins was temporarily hobbled by ankle sprain ... also stepped in for 15 snaps late in game at Dallas (Dec. 16) ... extensive special-teams action on field-goal and point-after-touchdown units. ■1989: Endured season of on-the-job training at three different positions as a rookie ... started at right tackle for games two-seven, at left guard for games eight-nine, at left tackle for outings 10-11, back to left guard for contests 12-14, then right tackle again for game 15 before finishing the campaign at left guard in the season finale ... earned numerous all-rookie acclaim (United Press International, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, Pro Football Weekly, and Football Digest) ... started one game at guard in preseason, then subbed for Robbins (knee) at tackle ... replaced former starter Todd Peat (waived) and fellow rookie Mike Zandofsky at left guard when Robbins returned ... bumped outside to left tackle when Sharpe left game early vs. the N.Y. Giants (Nov. 5) ... stayed there the next two weeks before moving back to guard vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 26) when Sharpe returned ... replaced Robbins (tricep injury) vs. Denver (Dec. 16) ... shifted back to left guard for the finale vs. Philadelphia (Dec. 24) when Robbins returned. ■College/Personal: All-America honorable mention as both sophomore and senior at Boston College ... only a knee injury as a junior prevented three-time all-America acclaim ... played guard and tackle in college ... led Boston College offensive line that helped quarterback Doug Flutie win the 1984 Heisman Trophy ... the youngest member of B.C.'s 1985 Cotton Bowl team, Wolf was 17 years old when the Golden Eagles left for Dallas on Dec. 26, two days before his 18th birthday ... brother Mike was the starting center for Penn State ... both suffered injuries—Joe (ankle), Mike (knee)—in the same nationally-televised game in 1987, a 27-17 Penn State victory ... all-league and all-Pennsylvania center and defensive tackle at William Allen High School in his native Allentown, Pa. ... threw shot put and discus on school's track team ... center on basketball squad ... has been a "bird" his entire football career—a Canary in high school, a Golden Eagle in college, and now a Cardinal ... enrolled in the College of Arts and Sciences at B.C. ... wife Jean Marie is an attorney ... the couple resides in Phoenix with daughter Darcy Marie (April 16, 1997). ■

Football is no different than show business. Always "leave 'em laughing!"

There was nothing phony about the smiles worn by the 1997 Arizona Cardinals, second-year Head Coach Vince Tobin, and their fans in spite of a disappointing season!

Why was the aftermath of a 4-12 campaign so easily construed as building blocks instead of rubble?

The reasons were pure and simple.

- Nine games decided in the final minute or overtime (four), including the Cardinals' first five outings and six of their first seven assignments.

- The emergence of rookie quarterback Jake Plummer.

- A palpitating Plummer-led comeback that propelled the Cards to a 29-26 final-seconds, season-ending victory over the Atlanta Falcons at Sun Devil Stadium, giving Arizona its third victory in the nine close endings and heading the local faithful to the off-season with ample cause for optimism.

Sure, there were other reasons to take heart, like increased attendance, the record-setting campaign of wide receiver Rob Moore, an impressive season by his counterpart, Frank Sanders, another Pro Bowl effort by cornerback Aeneas Williams, vastly improved special-teams play spearheaded by punter Jeff Feagles, new (mid-season signee) place kicker Joe Nedney, punt and kickoff returner and wide receiver Kevin Williams, emotional leader and wide receiver Anthony Edwards, unexpected contributions from rookie defensive tackle Mark Smith, seasoning under fire for rookie cornerback—and first-round draft choice—Tom Knight, and steady play by veterans like fullback Larry Centers, linebackers Jamir Miller, Eric Hill, and Ronald McKinnon, defensive tackle Eric Swann, defensive end Michael Bankston, offensive tackle Lomas Brown, and new pass-catching tight end Chris Gedney.

But in the end, the harrowing finishes and local hero Plummer's rapid transition to professional football supplied most of the warm fuzzies.

Close Calls

The signature of the 1997 Arizona Cardinals, like French fries at McDonald's, "Top 10 Lists" on The David Letterman Show, and bluegrass in Kentucky, was their nine "close calls."

Ponder the uncanny, unimaginable—perhaps unprecedented—list of (draining) agony and (scintillating) ecstasy.

Agony #1

August 31 (Week #1, Game #1)

Bengals 24, Cardinals 21 (A)

Three fourth-quarter Cincinnati touchdowns, including the game-winner with 38 seconds to play, overcame a 21-3 Arizona lead to hand the Cardinals a disheartening 24-21 defeat in the Cards' earliest opener in history.

The Bengals gained 130 of their 317 total yards on their final two touchdown drives of 67 and 63 yards. The latter began following a third-down fumble by Centers that Bengal John Copeland recovered at Cincinnati's 37-yard line with 1:18 to play and ended six plays later without benefit of a timeout.

Arizona appeared in command by rushing for three touchdowns for the first time since December 5, 1993, a span of 54 games.

The Cards also held the opposition defense sackless for the first time since the 1993 season finale, a span of 50 games.

Rookie quarterback Jake Plummer seized the moment in 1997.

Ecstasy #1

Sept. 7 (Week #2, Game #2, OT #1)
Cardinals 25, Cowboys 22 (H)

The Cardinals reversed roles one week later when they stormed from behind to win their first home opener since arriving in Arizona in 1988, a triumph that also snapped the Dallas Cowboys' 13-game series winning streak.

Trailing 22-3 in the third quarter after allowing one defensive touchdown by Dallas and five field goals by Cowboy kicker Richie Cunningham to equal the Cardinal opponent record, Arizona quarterback Kent Graham led the furious rally with two touchdown passes—seven yards to Sanders and one yard to tight end Pat Carter. The latter pulled the Cards within two points with 1:06 to play. Moore, whose 47-yard reception keyed the eight-play, 70-yard drive leading to Carter's touchdown, knotted the game with a two-point conversion reception from Graham.

After trading overtime fumbles, the Cardinals needed only five plays—highlighted by completions of 19 and 29 yards to Moore and Centers, respectively—to position kicker Kevin Butler for his 20-yard field goal that glanced off the left upright and through for the game-winner.

It was Arizona's best second-half comeback since overcoming Washington's 21-6 lead in the Cards' 27-24 success on October 4, 1992.

The contest also marked the first time Arizona held Dallas without an offensive touchdown since the first 1990 meeting.

Agony #2

Sept. 14 (Week #3, Game #3, OT #2)
Redskins 19, Cardinals 13 (A)

A capacity crowd at the inaugural game at Jack Kent Cooke Stadium, the Redskins' new home, witnessed a defensive struggle the two old rivals took into overtime for the second consecutive time at Washington and for the third time in the past four meetings.

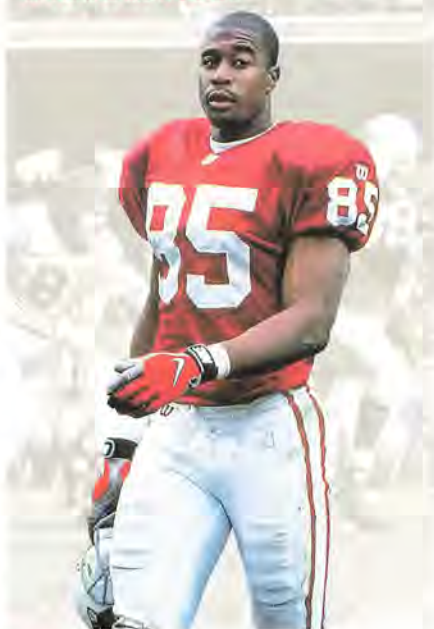

Both offenses sputtered, combining to gain only 562 total net yards, committing three turnovers, converting just 11 of 37 third-down attempts, posting 18 possessions of four plays or less, and punting 17 times.

The Cardinals grabbed a 7-3 first-quarter lead when J.J. McCleskey blocked a Redskin punt and Tommy Bennett fell on the ball in the Redskin end zone, the Cards' first touchdown on a blocked punt in 25 years (Norm Thompson vs. Pittsburgh, October 1, 1972).

Butler, who beat the Redskins twice in 1996 with final-play field goals, tied the game at 13-13 with a 47-yard three-pointer with two seconds to play.

Two plays after recovering a phantom fumble by Cardinal running back Leeland McElroy, pressured Washington quarterback Gus Frerotte found a stumbling Michael Westbrook with a 40-yard touchdown pass to end the game in overtime.

Rob Moore enjoyed a record-setting season en route to the Pro Bowl.

Agony #3

Sept. 28 (Week #5, Game #4)
Buccaneers 19, Cardinals 18 (A)

The Cardinals squandered one of their finest defensive performances in recent memory, allowing playoff-bound Tampa Bay to extend its record to 5-0 and equal the best start in franchise history.

Arizona was dominant defensively. The Card defenders allowed the fewest total yards (167) in 71 games, fewest yards passing (113) in 32 games, fewest yards rushing (54) in 30 games, and fewest first downs rushing (0) in 69 games. Tampa Bay logged 12 possessions; 10 ended in four plays or less. They ran just 47 offensive plays. Twenty-five of their yards were registered on a completed pass off a fake punt. The Buccaneers converted only two of 14 third-down conversions.

However, the Bucs were resourceful with limited opportunities, scoring touchdowns on a blocked first-quarter punt, a 63-yard drive kept alive by a 25-yard pass completion from punt formation from their own 31-yard line, and a short-field 31-yard touchdown pass four plays after intercepting a fourth-quarter Graham pass at Arizona's 35-yard line.

Two errant fourth-quarter field-goal attempts by Butler into the face of a stiff wind, including a 47-yarder on the game's final play, spared Tampa Bay.

Agony #4

Oct. 5 (Week #6, Game #5)

Vikings 20, Cardinals 19 (H)

Playoff-bound Minnesota scored 10 points on its last two possessions, including Eddie Murray's game-winning 38-yard field goal with 10 seconds remaining, to overcome the Cardinals' 19-10 fourth-quarter lead.

Three pivotal Cardinal drives reached deep into Minnesota territory—the Vikings' three- (Graham fumble), five- (Butler's second 23-yard field goal), and six-yard lines (Butler's missed 31-yard field-goal attempt)—but mustered only three points.

The Arizona defense makes another excellent showing. Between Minnesota's seven-play, 72-yard opening-possession touchdown drive and its madcap six-play, 58-yard dash to Murray's game-winning field goal, the Vikings' high-powered offense produced only 223 total yards on 51 offensive plays.

Viking tight end Andrew Glover, who entered the game with only two receptions for the season, was the day's unlikely difference maker, catching six passes for 86 yards, including Minnesota's initial touchdown, an 18-yard pass, and a key 43-yard final-drive reception that set the stage for Murray's heroics three plays later.

Gedney's 33-yard touchdown reception is the longest by a Cardinal tight end since Rob Awalt's 52-yarder at Houston in 1988.

Frank Sanders proved the perfect complement to Rob Moore.

Agony #5

Oct. 19 (Week #8, Game #7, OT #3)

Eagles 13, Cardinals 10 (A)

Arizona's run of close losses continued at Philadelphia.

The Cardinals' offense, behind first-time starting quarterback Stoney Case, sputtered to a scoreless first half despite excellent field position, beginning its first three possessions between the 40-yard lines. Four of the Cards' seven first-half possessions gained one yard or less; Arizona logged only 80 total net yards in the opening stanza.

Nedney, in his first game as a Cardinal, cut the Eagles' advantage to 7-3 with a 23-yard field goal early in the third quarter. The tight-vested affair became a sparring match the rest of the way with neither side scoring in the game's ensuing five possessions.

Plummer replaced Case at 10:26 of the fourth quarter with the ball on the Cards' two-yard line. In his first NFL action, the former Arizona State University star drove the Cardinals 98 yards in 14 plays, capping the NFL's longest 1997 touchdown drive with a 31-yard scoring pass to wide receiver K. Williams to give Arizona a 10-7 lead with 3:07 to play.

Philadelphia tied the game on a field goal with 26 seconds to play.

Plummer had the Cardinals on the march again with the opening possession of overtime, reaching Arizona's 42-yard line before an intentional grounding penalty led to a punt three plays later. The Eagles then drive 73 yards in six plays to set the table for Chris Boniol's 24-yard game-winning field goal.

Ecstasy #2

Nov. 23 (Week #13, Game #12)

Cardinals 16, Ravens 13 (A)

The Cardinals' first meeting with the Ravens and their first appearance in Baltimore since 1981 ended two Arizona losing streaks—an eight-game overall road skid and a seven-game skid against the American Football Conference.

K. Williams shined in the defensive struggle by giving Arizona good field position throughout the contest with six punt returns for 110 yards, and two kickoff returns for 60 yards.

Plummer, who fought through a shaky first half (7-for-15, 64 yards passing), saved his best for last, driving the Cards 55 yards in six plays from their own 20-yard line in the game's final 34 seconds following Baltimore's game-tying field goal to set the table for Nedney's 43-yard game-winning field goal as time expires. Nedney, a perfect three-for-three in field-goal attempts, also booted 22- and 27-yard three-pointers in the first half.

Arizona's only touchdown is a bold fourth-and-goal fourth-quarter pass from Plummer to Sanders with Arizona trailing 10-6 and 8:34 to play.

The Cardinal defense, in limiting Baltimore to one offensive touchdown, forced nine punts, including the Ravens' first six series, and six possessions of three plays and out.

Agony #6

Nov. 30 (Week #14, Game #13)

Steelers 26, Cardinals 20 (H)

Like two boxers, the Steelers, who later reached the AFC Championship Game, and Cardinals traded scores throughout an exciting turnover-free contest that became Pittsburgh's first victory in four trips to Sun Devil Stadium.

The Steelers' relentless running game that accumulated 177 rushing yards was fueled by battering ram Jerome Bettis, who rushed for 142 yards on 36 carries and three touchdowns, including the overtime game-winner, a 10-yard rumble that climaxed Pittsburgh's only overtime possession, a five-play, 52-yard drive that took just 2:51.

The stout Steeler defense posted 10 quarterback sacks to set a Cardinal opponent record and equal the Steelers' mark, limiting Arizona to 48 yards rushing, and stopping the Cardinals nine times in 11 third-down conversion attempts.

Plummer's 12-for-17, 217-yard second-half passing performance rallied Arizona, first to a 20-20 deadlock with 4:20 to play on Nedney's second field goal, a 19-yarder, then to an opportunity to win on the next possession, a 59-yard, eight-play drive to Pittsburgh's 28-yard line that ended when Nedney missed a 46-yard field-goal attempt with 11 seconds remaining.

Ecstasy #3

Dec. 21 (Week #17, Game #16)

Cardinals 29, Falcons 26 (H)

The Cardinals "leave 'em laughing" by scoring touchdowns on their final two possessions to cap a day-long uphill struggle.

Two first-quarter touchdown passes by Falcon quarterback (and ex-Card signal-caller) Chris Chandler staked Atlanta to leads of 7-0 and 14-7. Four field goals by record-setting Falcon kicker Morten Andersen extended Atlanta's lead to 26-14 with 8:41 to play.

The Cardinals rallied with touchdown drives of 69 and 80 yards. The former featured four completions (13, 12, 21, and 21 yards) from Plummer to Moore, including a 21-yard touchdown.

Atlanta's ensuing possession stalled at Arizona's 38-yard line. The Falcons punted into the Arizona end zone, and the Cardinals took possession at their own 20-yard line with no timeouts. Only 1:52 remained. It took Plummer 12 plays to march the Cards to their game-winning touchdown, a one-yard pass to Centers with five seconds to play. Plummer followed with a scramble for the two-point conversion.

A Welcome Snake

Plummer, just one season removed from his storybook college career at Arizona State, assumed the customary role of third quarterback as his rookie season unfolded. Clipboard in hand, Plummer dutifully supported Graham, the starter, and Case, his back-up.

Graham, who entered the season as a starter for the first time in his six-year NFL career, posted six solid performances to start the campaign before suffering a knee injury against his old teammates, the New York Giants, on Oct. 12.

The injury elevated Case to the starter's chair for the following week's game at Philadelphia with Plummer as his back-up.

As the Cardinal offense faltered against the Eagles, Tobin finally turned to Plummer late in the game. His performance turned heads, nearly produced a comeback victory, and earned him his first NFL start the next week at Sun Devil Stadium against Tennessee.

"The Snake" seized the moment to claim the starting job for the rest of the season.

The rest is more fairy tale stuff. In 10 appearances (nine starts), Plummer recorded Cardinal rookie passing records by completing 157 of 296 passes (53 percent) for 2,203 yards and 15 touchdowns with 15 interceptions.

In what amounted to little more than one-half a season, Plummer nearly equaled the season touchdown pass totals of such marquee quarterbacks as San Francisco's Steve Young (19), Dallas' Troy Aikman (19), Detroit's Scott Mitchell (19), Jacksonville's Mark Brunell (18), Baltimore's Vinny Testaverde (18), Washington's Gus Frerotte (17), and Miami's Dan Marino (16).

Amazingly, Plummer's average gain of 7.44 yards per pass completion ranked sixth in the entire league, bettering Denver's John Elway (7.24), New England's Drew Bledsoe (7.10), Seattle's Warren Moon (6.97), Marino (6.90), Pittsburgh's Kordell Stewart (6.86), Mitchell (6.84), Minnesota's Brad Johnson (6.72), Frerotte (6.67), Tampa Bay's Trent Dilfer (6.62), Tennessee's Steve McNair (6.42), Aikman (6.34), Chicago's Erik Kramer (6.31), and the New York Giants' Danny Kanell (5.92) among others.

Enough said?

Well, no!

In his fourth NFL start at New York against the eventual NFC East Division champion Giants on November 16, Plummer's 388 yards passing set an NFL single-game rookie record previously established by Aikman (379 yards) against the Cardinals in 1989.

Plummer's four touchdown passes vs. Washington December 7 were the most by an NFL rookie since Bledsoe also notched four in 1994. Plummer joined Aikman, Bledsoe, and Jim Plunkett as the only NFL quarterbacks to throw four touchdown passes in one game as rookies. (Aikman, Bledsoe, and Plunkett all later led their teams to the Super Bowl.)

Plummer also was named the NFC offensive rookie-of-the-month for November when he completes 76 of 133 pass attempts for 1,156 yards (57.1 percent) and five touchdowns with five interceptions, a passer rating of 82.7.

The Receiving End

The Cardinals enjoyed outstanding years from their stellar wide receiving tandem of Moore and Sanders.

Moore earned his second Pro Bowl trip with career bests of 97 receptions for 1,584 yards. The former is a single-season record for Cardinal wide receivers and ranked second in the NFC. The latter broke Roy Green's Cardinal single-season mark of 1,555 receiving yards (1984) and led the entire NFL!

Additionally, Moore logged eight 100-yard games, more than doubling his previous single-season high. His three touchdown grabs Dec. 7 vs. Washington also were a career high. His 68 first-down receptions led the NFL. And, he boasted 33 receptions for 616 yards, an 18.7-yard average, in November alone.

Defensive Tackle Eric Swann continued his imposing inside play.

Moore also registered 20 receptions of 25 yards or more and five over 40 yards after recording 11 and four, respectively, in 1996.

Sanders, Moore's third-year counterpart, authored his first 1,000-yard campaign with 75 catches for 1,017 yards. The former Auburn outfielder also ranked first in the league with 31 third-down receptions.

Sanders was on the receiving end of the Cards' two longest plays from scrimmage, a 70-yard touchdown reception, his career long, Nov. 16 at the Giants, and a 52-yard snatch Dec. 7 vs. the Redskins.

Sanders now boasts 196 career receptions, most in history in the first three seasons by a Cardinal.

As a tandem, Moore and Sanders (172 receptions) ranked second in the NFL to Detroit duo Herman Moore and Johnnie Morton (184) and became the first pair of Cardinal wide receivers to both crack the 1,000-yard barrier in the same season.

Cover-Up

A. Williams breezed to his fourth Pro Bowl nod with another outstanding campaign.

A starter in 109 consecutive Cardinal outings who has not missed a contest in his 122-game NFL career, Williams, the former college walk-on who attended Southern University to pursue student government, not football, snared six enemy passes to tie for third in the NFL in interceptions. He returned two of the six pickoffs for touchdowns to lead the NFC and raised his career total to six, a Cardinal record (Hall of Famer Larry Wilson, 5, 1960-72).

Williams now boasts 26 interceptions since 1994, most in the NFL!

He was named NFC defensive player-of-the-week for his work against Cowboy wide receiver Michael Irvin following the Cards' 25-22 victory over Dallas on Sept. 7. Irvin's fourth and final catch came with just two minutes elapsed in the third quarter, meaning Williams muffed the perennial all-pro for the final 13 minutes of the third quarter, all 15 minutes of the fourth quarter, and the 8:30 overtime, a total of 36:30 game-clock time. Irvin's four receptions for 18 yards (long of six yards) translated to a 4.5-yard average per catch, his lowest single-game mark since 1991.

Return To Sender

First-year Cardinal K. Williams, the former Dallas Cowboy who signed with Arizona shortly before training camp, shined in his dual role as punt and kickoff returner.

The only player in Cowboy history to score a touchdown rushing (two), receiving (five), and on punt (three) and kickoff (one) returns, Williams epitomized the improved Cardinal special-teams play.

His 59 kickoff returns for 1,458 yards both established team records (Stump Mitchell, 55-1,292, 1981). That spelled a 24.7-yard average, the best by a regular Cardinal kick returner since Terry Metcalf's 27.8-yard average in 1975 and enough to rank third in the NFC.

Williams added 40 punt returns for 462 yards to rank fifth and third, respectively, in team annals. His 11.6-yard average rated fifth in the NFC and was the best Cardinal mean since Johnny Bailey's 13.2-yard effort in 1992.

His 1,920 combined kick return yards also set a Cardinal single-season record.

In the season finale vs. Atlanta, Williams amassed 207 kickoff-return yards, a Cardinal record (203, George Hoyer vs. Philadelphia, Nov. 21, 1971).

Briefly

Feagles, a Pro Bowl first alternate, ranked second in the NFC in net punting average (36.8 yards) and fourth in gross average (44.3 yards) ... his 91 punts ranked third in Cardinal history ... Feagles' 44.3-yard gross average was the best by a Cardinal since Rich Camarillo's 45.3 in 1991 and the third highest in the past 38 years ... his career statistics of 337 punts for a 42.7-yard average both rank third in Card annals ... Graham's two rushing touchdowns vs. Philadelphia Nov. 2 were a first by a Cardinal quarterback since Timm Rosenbach in 1990, a span of 101 games ... Graham's 2.0 percent interception rate (5 int./250 pass attempts) bettered Jim Hart's previous franchise record of 2.1 percent in 1974 (8 int./388 pass attempts) and ranked second in the NFL behind San Francisco's Steve Young (1.7 percent, 7 int./356 pass attempts) ... Graham's five interceptions also were the lowest total by a Cardinal quarterback since 1972 (Hart, 5) and equaled the team best ... Nedney's 16 touchbacks (35 kickoffs) bettered the combined Arizona team total of 11 the previous three seasons ... Smith's six quarterback sacks were the most in the NFL by a rookie interior lineman ... Centers caught 54 passes to rank second in the NFC among running backs ... despite fracturing his leg in the season opener at Cincinnati and missing the ensuing four games, Hill cracked the 100-combined tackle plateau for the sixth time in the past seven seasons ... McKinnon, Arizona's leading tackler (145 combined tackles) in his first season as a starter, logged eight or more tackles in 12 of 16 games and posted a team-high eight double-digit tackle efforts ... first-year Cardinal Gedney's four touchdown receptions were the most by an Arizona tight end since 1988 ... Swann registered a quarterback sack, forced fumble, fumble recovery, or deflected pass in 12 of his 13 appearances ... ironman Bankston extended two streaks—96 consecutive games, and 67 straight starts dating to 1993 ... defensive tackle Bernard Wilson's 66-yard interception return for a touchdown vs. the Eagles Nov. 2 was the longest interception return for six points by a defensive lineman in Cardinal history ... Edwards led the Cardinal special teams with 20 tackles and 69 blocks.■

Anthony Edwards again led the way on special teams.

1997 Game Summaries

Bengals 24, Cardinals 21

Aug. 31, 1997 ■ Cinergy Field (50,298)

Three fourth-quarter Cincinnati touchdowns, including the game-winner with 38 seconds to play, overcame a 21-3 Arizona lead and handed the Cardinals a disheartening 24-21 defeat in the Cards' earliest opener in history. Arizona appeared in command after tallying touchdowns in each of the first three quarters. The initial score, a 17-yard run by Leeland McElroy to cap a seven-play, 69-yard drive, was only the Cards' second opening-drive touchdown in 44 games. The Bengals gained 130 of their 317 total yards on their final two touchdown drives of 67 and 63 yards. The latter began following a third-down fumble by fullback Larry Centers that Bengal John Copeland recovered at Cincinnati's 37-yard line with 1:18 to play and ended six plays later without the benefit of a timeout. The Cardinal defense recorded four sacks (Eric Swann 2, Jamir Miller, Simeon Rice) and one interception (Aeneas Williams). Arizona's starting wide receivers—Rob Moore (7-96) and Frank Sanders (6-105)—shined. Quarterback Kent Graham enjoyed 20-for-36 passing accuracy for 248 yards while guiding an offense that converted eight of 16 third-down opportunities. The Cards also recorded three rushing touchdowns (McElroy, Cedric Smith, and Centers) for the first time since Dec. 5, 1993 (54 games). The McElroy and Smith scores were the second rushing touchdowns of their careers. The Cardinal offense held the opposition defense sackless for the first time since the 1993 season finale, a span of 50 games.

Cardinals 25, Cowboys 22 (OT)

Sept. 7, 1997 ■ Sun Devil Stadium (70,060)

One week after watching a 21-3 lead evaporate into a 24-21 defeat at Cincinnati, the Cardinals reversed roles to storm from behind and earn their first home-opening victory since arriving in Arizona in 1988, a triumph that also snapped the Cowboys' 13-game series winning streak. Trailing 22-3 in the third quarter after allowing one defensive touchdown by Dallas and five field goals by Cowboy kicker Richie Cunningham, Arizona quarterback Kent Graham led the furious rally with two touchdown passes—seven yards to wide receiver Frank Sanders and one yard to tight end Pat Carter. The latter pulled the Cards within two points with 1:06 to play. Wide receiver Rob Moore, whose 47-yard reception keyed the eight-play, 70-yard drive leading to Carter's touchdown, knotted the game with a two-point conversion reception from Graham. After trading overtime fumbles, the Cardinals needed only five plays—highlighted by completions of 19 and 29 yards to Moore and fullback Larry Centers, respectively—to position kicker Kevin Butler for his 20-yard field goal that glanced off the left upright. It was the 16th game-winning three-pointer of Butler's career. The victory was Arizona's fourth straight in overtime and the third under Head Coach Vince Tobin. It also was Arizona's best second-half comeback since overcoming Washington's 21-6 lead in the Cards' 27-24 success on Oct. 4, 1992, and marked the first time Arizona held Dallas without an offensive touchdown since the first 1990 meeting.

Redskins 19, Cardinals 13 (OT)

Sept. 14, 1997 ■ Jack Kent Cooke Stadium (78,270)

A capacity crowd at the inaugural game at Jack Kent Cooke Stadium, the Redskins' new home, witnessed a defensive struggle the two old rivals took into overtime for the second consecutive time at Washington. Both offenses sputtered, combining to gain only 562 total net yards, committing three turnovers, converting just 11 of 37 third-down attempts, posting 18 possessions of four plays or less, and punting 17 times. The Cardinals took a 7-3 first-quarter lead when J.J. McCleskey blocked a Redskins punt and Tommy Bennett fell on the ball in the Redskins end zone. The play marked the Cards' first touchdown on a blocked punt in 25 years (Norm Thompson vs. Pittsburgh, Oct. 1, 1972). A five-yard touchdown reception by the Redskins' Michael Westbrook and a 32-yard Kevin Butler field goal deadlocked the game until late in the fourth quarter when the Redskins drove 75 yards in 15 plays to take a 13-10 lead with 1:13 to play on a 19-yard Scott Blanton field goal. The Cardinals then drove 37 yards in eight plays following Kevin Williams' 22-yard kickoff return to set the table for a 47-yard game-tying field goal with two seconds to play by Butler, who beat the Redskins twice in 1996 with last-play three-pointers. After winning the overtime coin toss, the Cardinals' Leeland McElroy fumbled on Arizona's second play from scrimmage. Two plays later, pressured Washington quarterback Gus Frolotte found a stumbling Westbrook with a 40-yard touchdown pass to end the game.

Buccaneers 19, Cardinals 18

Sept. 28, 1997 ■ Houlihan's Stadium (53,804)

The Cardinals squandered one of their finest defensive performances in recent memory, allowing Tampa Bay to extend its record to 5-0 and equal the best start in franchise history. Arizona was dominant defensively. Tampa Bay logged 12 possessions; 10 ended in four plays or less. The Bucs gained only 167 total net yards on just 47 offensive plays; 25 of their yards were registered on a completed pass off a fake punt. Tampa Bay gained only 54 yards rushing and zero first downs on the ground. It also converted only two of 14 third-down conversions. However, the Bucs were resourceful with limited opportunities, scoring touchdowns on a blocked first-quarter punt, a 63-yard drive kept alive by a 25-yard pass completion from punt formation from their own 31-yard line, and a short-field 31-yard touchdown pass four plays after intercepting a fourth-quarter Kent Graham pass at Arizona's 35-yard line. The Cardinals seized the game's momentum in the third quarter when cornerback Aeneas Williams returned a pass interception 42 yards for a touchdown, followed by a two-point conversion pass completion from Graham to Frank Sanders, but two missed fourth-quarter field-goal attempts by Kevin Butler in the face of a stiff wind left the door open for Tampa Bay. Williams' six-pointer was his fifth career interception return for a touchdown, equalling Larry Wilson's franchise record. Graham completed 31 of 52 passes for 339 yards. He was intercepted twice and sacked six times, including three by Buc tackle Brad Culpepper.

Vikings 20, Cardinals 19

Oct. 5, 1997 ■ Sun Devil Stadium (43,987)

Arizona suffered its fourth last-minute loss when Minnesota scored 10 points on its last two possessions, including Eddie Murray's game-winning 38-yard field goal with 10 seconds remaining, to overcome the Cardinals' 19-10 fourth-quarter lead. The close final score was indicative of the game's mirror-image statistics. The Cardinals built their nine-point advantage on the strength of 16 unanswered points—four Kevin Butler field goals (23, 23, 28, 49 yards) and tight end Chris Gedney's 33-yard touchdown reception, his first as a Cardinal, that capped a 10-play, 93-yard second-quarter drive. However, three pivotal Cardinal drives that reached deep into Minnesota territory—the Vikings' three- (Kent Graham fumble), five- (Butler's second 23-yard field goal), and six-yard lines (Butler's missed 31-yard field-goal attempt)—mustered only three points. The Arizona defense produced another excellent effort. Between Minnesota's seven-play, 72-yard opening-possession touchdown drive and its madcap six-play, 58-yard dash to Murray's game-winning field goal, the Vikings' high-powered offense produced only 223 total yards on 51 offensive plays. The Cards enjoyed a turnover advantage for the first time in 1997 with three takeaways—two pass interceptions (Aeneas Williams, J.J. McCleskey) and one fumble recovery (Matt Darby)—against only one giveaway, a lost fumble (K. Graham). Viking tight end Andrew Glover, who entered the game with only two receptions for the season, was the day's unlikely difference maker, catching six passes for 86 yards from quarterback Brad Johnson, including Minnesota's initial touchdown, an 18-yard pass, and a key 43-yard final-drive reception that set the stage for Murray's heroics three plays later.

Giants 27, Cardinals 13

Oct. 12, 1997 ■ Sun Devil Stadium (36,943)

An unexpected 426-yard explosion by the Giants' offense, ranked last in the NFL, and a lone offensive touchdown by the Cardinals for the third consecutive game, translated into a convincing 27-13 New York victory. Card Pro Bowl cornerback Aeneas Williams knotted the game at 6-6 midway through the second quarter with a 30-yard interception return for a touchdown, the sixth of his career to break the franchise record of Hall of Famer Larry Wilson. Backup quarterback Stoney Case replaced the injured Kent Graham (ankle, knee), who had completed only four of 14 passes for 40 yards with two interceptions, beginning with Arizona's final first-half possession. Case eventually scored the Cards' lone offensive touchdown and the first of his career with a one-yard quarterback sneak with 53 seconds remaining. In between, the third-year pro completed 18 of 33 passes for 222 yards with two interceptions in just his third career appearance, his first in two years, and his first extended playing time. He also fumbled twice, losing the ball on the first, and 30 yards on the other. Arizona's five season-high turnovers—four interceptions, one fumble—led to 10 New York points. The Cards' 27-yard team rushing total was their lowest since registering the same figure vs. Miami in the second outing of 1996. Conversely, the Giants' 239-yard rushing barrage was the most allowed by Arizona's defense since Washington ran for 259 yards in the 1995 season opener. It also marked the first time a Cardinal opponent outrushed its passing total since Seattle ground out 230 yards on the ground versus 198 through the air on Oct. 29, 1995 (31 games). Giant running back Tyrone Wheatley's 103 rushing yards snapped New York's dubious distinction of 23 consecutive games without a 100-yard rusher, the longest streak in the NFL.

Eagles 13, Cardinals 10 (OT)

Oct. 19, 1997 ■ Veterans Stadium (66,860)

Arizona's unimaginable run of close losses continued at Philadelphia where the Eagles handed the Cardinals a 13-10 overtime setback, the Cards' second loss in three overtime contests and their fifth defeat in the final minute or overtime. The Cardinals' offense, behind first-time starting quarterback Stoney Case, sputtered to a scoreless first half despite excellent field position. (Arizona began its first three possessions at its own 48- and 42-yard lines and the Eagles' 42 without scoring.) Four of the Cards' seven first-half possessions gained one yard or less; Arizona gained only 80 total net yards in the opening stanza. New kicker Joe Nedney cut the Eagles' advantage to 7-3 with a 23-yard field goal early in the third quarter. The light-vested affair became a sparring match the rest of the way with neither side scoring in the game's ensuing five possessions. Rookie Jake Plummer replaced Case at 10:26 of the fourth quarter with the ball on the Cards' two-yard line. In his first NFL action, Plummer drove the Cardinals 98 yards in 14 plays, capping the drive with a 31-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Kevin Williams, giving Arizona a 10-7 lead with 3:07 to play. It was Williams' first touchdown reception as a Cardinal. A 38-yard Chris Boniol field goal with 26 seconds left sent the game into overtime. Plummer had the Cardinals on the march again with the opening possession of overtime, reaching Arizona's 42-yard line before an intentional grounding penalty led to a punt three plays later. Philadelphia then drove 73 yards in six plays to set the table for Boniol's 24-yard game-winning field goal. Arizona enjoyed a turnover advantage for only the second time in seven outings with two interceptions and two fumble recoveries against just one lost fumble. Wide receiver Rob Moore posted his fourth 100-yard receiving game (6-101), his career single-season high. Defensive end Simeon Rice recorded his first NFL interception.

Oilers 41, Cardinals 14

Oct. 26, 1997 ■ Sun Devil Stadium (42,333)

The Cards' sixth consecutive loss was the product of seven Arizona turnovers (four interceptions, three fumbles), their highest total in 88 games (Dec. 22, 1991 vs. New Orleans), that led to five Tennessee touchdowns as the Oilers overwhelmed the Cardinals in rookie quarterback Jake Plummer's first NFL start. The Oilers tallied the game's first 27 points, but led only 13-0 late in the first half from two field goals by former Cardinal Al Del Greco and cornerback Denard Walker's 39-yard interception return for a touchdown. Oiler quarterback Steve McNair capitalized on two Card turnovers to seize the game's momentum. On Tennessee's sixth play following a fumble by Cardinal wide receiver Frank Sanders with 52 seconds remaining in the first half, McNair sprinted 35 yards for a touchdown. On Arizona's first play from scrimmage in the second half, Plummer was intercepted by Oiler safety Marcus Robertson, whose 39-yard interception return took the ball to the Cards' three-yard line. McNair covered the final two yards two plays later to pad Tennessee's lead to 27-0. The Oilers gained over one-half of their 283 total yards on four offensive plays—McNair's 35-yard touchdown run, his 55- and 20-yard touchdown passes to wide receiver Chris Sanders, and H-back Frank Wycheck's 34-yard reception from McNair. Plummer completed 21 of 40 passes for 195 yards, two touchdowns, and four interceptions. He also rushed for 34 yards on six carries. He was sacked six times. Wide receiver Rob Moore tallied both Arizona touchdowns with receptions (12, 2 yards) to equal his career single-game best. Sanders' 10 receptions were his career single-game high.

Cardinals 31, Eagles 21

Nov. 2, 1997 ■ Sun Devil Stadium (35,850)

The Cardinals snapped a six-game losing streak with their highest point total and first four-touchdown outing of the season, and the relief work of quarterback Kent Graham, who, after replacing starter Jake Plummer early in the fourth quarter, capitalized on two Eagle turnovers (Cedric Smith fumble recovery on a muffed punt return, Mike Caldwell interception) and led Arizona on two short-field touchdown drives of 24 and 20 yards. Graham capped the seven- and eight-play possessions with one-yard touchdown sneaks, a first for a Cardinal quarterback in 101 games (Tim Rosenbach vs. New England, Nov. 25, 1990). The teams traded bizarre touchdowns early in the first quarter. Arizona defensive tackle Bernard Wilson returned his first career interception 66 yards for his first career touchdown, the longest interception return for a touchdown in history by a Cardinal defensive lineman. The Cards' ensuing onside kickoff ricocheted off Card Kwame Lassiter into the arms of Eagle Willie Clark, who returned the ball 39 yards for a touchdown. Joe Nedney's career-long 45-yard second-quarter field goal regained the lead for Arizona at 10-7. Plummer and wide receiver Rob Moore collaborated to extend the advantage to 17-7 midway through the third quarter with a 31-yard touchdown pass. The Eagles also went to their bullpen for a relief pitcher in the second half, replacing starting quarterback Rodney Peete with Ty Detmer, who promptly connected with wide receivers Mark Seay and Freddie Solomon for third-quarter touchdown passes of 19 and 18 yards, respectively, to stake Philadelphia to a 21-17 lead. The teams then traded interceptions and missed field goals prior to Graham's two touchdown plunges. Arizona also benefited from 15 Philadelphia penalties that equalled the Cardinal opponent single-game record (at Detroit, Sept. 17, 1995). Arizona's three interceptions were its highest total since also pilfering three aerials at Philadelphia on Dec. 7, 1995.

Cowboys 24, Cardinals 6

Nov. 9, 1997 ■ Texas Stadium (64,302)

The Cardinals dropped their eighth consecutive decision at Dallas in a contest dictated by the Cowboys' highly-ranked defense. Despite committing only one turnover, a third-quarter fumble by sacked quarterback Jake Plummer that led to the Cowboys' verdict-sealing final touchdown, a five-yard run by Emmitt Smith, the Cards' offense allowed nine sacks—their highest total in a span of 169 games—and failed to score a touchdown for the second time in 1997. Trailing 10-3 at halftime, the Cardinals converted just three points out of two early second-half scoring opportunities. On the second half's first play from scrimmage, Cardinal linebacker Ronald McKinnon made his third pass interception of the season and returned it 17 yards to the Dallas 20-yard line, but Arizona lost two yards on its ensuing possession and had to settle for Joe Nedney's second field goal of the game, a 39-yarder. Following a Dallas touchdown on its next possession that extended its lead to 17-6, the Cardinals were driving after wide receiver Fred Brock's first NFL reception in his first NFL game, a 29-yarder, spotted the ball at the Dallas 35-yard line. On the next play, wide receiver Rob Moore, who caught six passes for 95 yards on the day, was involved in the game's pivotal play, an apparent 34-yard completion to the Dallas one-yard line that was ruled incomplete. The play would have put the Cards 36 inches away from chopping the Cowboy lead to 17-14 with a quarter and one-half to play. Instead, Nedney missed a 51-yard field-goal attempt two plays later. The beleaguered Plummer scrambled to a team-leading 51 yards rushing (seven carries). Running back Ronald Moore, in his return to the Cardinals, carried five times for 27 yards in a reserve role.

Giants 19, Cardinals 10

Nov. 16, 1997 ■ Giants Stadium (68,316)

The Giants won the war by prevailing in the rushing (201-49 yards) and turnover (3-0) battles, sending the Cardinals to defeat for the eighth time in their last nine outings. However, it was a 56-yard touchdown pass to Giants wide receiver Amani Toomer that staked New York to a 10-0 first-half lead. The Giants weathered the Cards' third-quarter comeback when Arizona knotted the score at 10-10 behind a 70-yard Jake Plummer-to-Frank Sanders touchdown pass and a 34-yard Joe Nedney field goal. New York responded by driving 80 yards in 17 plays, a march capped by a one-yard touchdown pass from Danny Kanell to Howard Cross. Giant kicker Brad Daluiso's missed point-after-touchdown attempt changed the game's complexion at 16-10, but Plummer was intercepted on Arizona's ensuing possession, and Daluiso iced the contest four plays later with a 34-yard field goal. Plummer's 22-for-33 (.667) passing accuracy netted 388 yards, the most in NFL history by a rookie quarterback. Wide receivers Sanders (9-188) and Rob Moore (8-139) became Arizona's first pair of receivers to both better 100 yards in the same game since Moore (8-121) and Larry Centers (7-101) vs. Atlanta on Nov. 26, 1995, and the first tandem of wide receivers to accomplish the feat in a span of 103 games (Ernie Jones, 8-145-1; Ricky Proehl 4-107-1 vs. New England, Sept. 29, 1991). Sanders' touchdown was the longest reception and scoring grab of his career.

Cardinals 16, Ravens 13

Nov. 23, 1997 ■ Memorial Stadium (53,976)

The Cardinals' 16-13 victory in their first meeting with the Ravens and first appearance in Baltimore since 1981 ended two Arizona losing streaks—an eight-game road skid and a seven-game skid against the American Football Conference. The defensive struggle was the Cards' seventh outcome decided in the final minute or overtime. Card kick returner Kevin Williams gave Arizona good field position throughout the contest with six punt returns for 110 yards, the 1997 NFL best, and two kickoff returns for 60 yards. Cardinal rookie quarterback Jake Plummer, who fought through a shaky first half (seven-for-15, 64 yards), saved his best for last, driving the Cards 55 yards in six plays from their own 20-yard line in the game's final 34 seconds following Baltimore's game-tying field goal to set the table for Joe Nedney's 43-yard game-winning field goal as time expired. Nedney, a perfect three-for-three in field-goal attempts, also booted 22- and 27-yard three-pointers in the first half. Plummer, a modest 19-for-34 for 218 yards, one touchdown, and two interceptions on the day, was four-for-five for 50 yards in the decisive drive, including a key 27-yard completion to Rob Moore to the Baltimore 31-yard line with 15 seconds remaining. Arizona's only touchdown was a bold fourth-and-goal fourth-quarter pass from Plummer to wide receiver Frank Sanders with Arizona trailing 10-6 and 8:34 to play. The Cardinal defense, in limiting Baltimore to one offensive touchdown, forced nine punts, including the Ravens' first six series, and six possessions of three plays and out. Arizona was penalized just twice for only 20 yards.

Steelers 26, Cardinals 20 (OT)

Nov. 30, 1997 ■ Sun Devil Stadium (64,322)

Like two boxers, the Steelers and Cardinals traded scores throughout an exciting turnover-free contest that was Arizona's fourth overtime outing of the season and Pittsburgh's first victory in four trips to Sun Devil Stadium. The tilt also was Arizona's sixth setback in eight games decided in the final minute or overtime. Pittsburgh's relentless running game that accumulated 177 rushing yards was fueled by battering ram Jerome Bettis, who rushed for Card opponent single-game and season bests of 142 yards on 36 carries and three touchdowns, including the overtime game-winner, a 10-yard rumble that climaxed the Steelers' only overtime possession, a five-play, 52-yard drive that took just 2:51. Pittsburgh's run game also led to a lopsided 39:22-26:12 time-of-possession advantage. The stout Steeler defense posted 10 quarterback sacks to set a Cardinal opponent record and equal Pittsburgh's mark, limited Arizona to 48 yards rushing, and stopped the Cardinals nine times in 11 third-down conversion attempts. Card rookie quarterback Jake Plummer's 12-17, 217-yard second-half passing performance rallied Arizona, first to a 20-14 deadlock with 4:20 to play on Joe Nedney's second field goal, a 19-yarder, then to an opportunity to win on the next possession, a 59-yard, eight-play drive to Pittsburgh's 28-yard line that ended when Nedney missed a 46-yard game-winning field-goal attempt with 11 seconds remaining. Wide receiver Rob Moore padded his NFL-leading receiving yardage total to 1,348 yards with eight receptions for 188 yards. The Cardinal offense recorded its first multiple-touchdown effort in four games, while the Arizona defense failed to record a turnover for the third consecutive week. Bettis notched his ninth 100-yard rushing effort of the season, while Cardinal rushers failed to reach 100 rushing yards for the 25th straight time, the NFL high.

Redskins 38, Cardinals 28

Dec. 7, 1997 ■ Sun Devil Stadium (35,848)

The Redskins never trailed after jumping to a 17-0 first-half lead. Two of Washington's five touchdowns from its special teams (63-yard punt return by Brian Mitchell to open the scoring) and defense (29-yard interception return by Chris Dishman) proved to be the difference. Mitchell also contributed mightily to the Redskins' second touchdown with a 69-yard reception four plays before quarterback Jeff Hostetler, starting his first game as a Redskin, found fullback Larry Bowie with a three-yard touchdown pass. Mitchell's 69-yard reception was the longest against Arizona in over two years (73 yards, Washington's Leslie Shepherd, Sept. 3, 1995, TD). Pedaling uphill throughout the contest, the Cardinals stormed from behind to threaten three times at 17-14, 24-21, and 31-28. Four touchdown passes by quarterback Jake Plummer, a franchise rookie record, kept the Cards in contention. He became the 12th Cardinal in history to throw four or more touchdown passes in a game. Wide receiver Rob Moore, who posted his fourth consecutive 100-yard receiving day and his NFL-leading eighth of the season with 114 yards on five receptions, caught three of Plummer's touchdown tosses. Moore's career single-game high. Running back Ron Moore, making his first start since returning to the Cardinals, gained 38 yards on 13 carries. The Cardinal defense logged its first forced turnover in four games when cornerback Aeneas Williams intercepted his fifth pass of the season in the first quarter. Plummer broke the Cards' rookie single-season records for passing yards (1,575, Neil Lomax, 1981) and 12 touchdowns (11, M.C. Reynolds, 1958) by raising his season totals to 1,786 yards and 12 touchdowns in seven starts (eight appearances). Kevin Williams tied a franchise record with seven kickoff returns.

Saints 27, Cardinals 10

Dec. 14, 1997 ■ Superdome (45,517)

New Orleans broke open a tight, penalty-marred contest with 17 unanswered fourth-quarter points to post a 27-10 victory over the Cardinals in Arizona's final road game of 1997. The contest was a tale of contrasting halves. Arizona dominated the first half, posting 218 total net yards and 14 first downs while limiting the Saints to 78 total net yards (only nine yards passing) and five first downs. The Cardinals took a 10-3 lead into the locker room at halftime on the strength of rookie quarterback Jake Plummer's first NFL rushing touchdown, a 10-yard opening-drive scramble, and Joe Nedney's 30-yard second-quarter field goal. They also self-destructed on two other first-half scoring opportunities, an extra-effort fumble by wide receiver Frank Sanders at the Saints' 38-yard line following his 29-yard reception on Arizona's possession following Plummer's touchdown, and a sack of Plummer and fumble on a third-and-five situation from the New Orleans' five-yard line with 14 seconds remaining in the second quarter. Turnabout was fair play in the second half as the Saints flexed their muscles for 304 yards total offense (243 pass, 61 rush) while holding Arizona to just 47 total net yards (17 pass, 30 rush). Saint wide receiver Randal Hill, an ex-Cardinal, caught five passes for 124 yards and one touchdown, New Orleans' first, a nine-yarder in the third quarter to knot the score at 10-10. It was the first 100-yard receiving day of 1997 against Arizona. The Cardinals failed to register a sack for the first time in '97, while allowing five sacks to raise their season total to 76, the second highest single-season total in NFL history. Ronald Moore rushed a team season-high 22 times for 79 yards. Pro Bowl cornerback Aeneas Williams made his sixth interception of the season in the fourth quarter.

Cardinals 29, Falcons 26

Dec. 21, 1997 ■ Sun Devil Stadium (25,273)

The Cardinals 'left 'em laughing' by scoring touchdowns on their final two possessions to cap a day-long uphill struggle and post a 26-14 comeback victory over Atlanta in Arizona's third victory in nine 1998 contests decided in the final minute or overtime. Two first-quarter touchdown passes by Falcon quarterback Chris Chandler staked Atlanta to leads of 7-0 and 14-7. Four field goals by record-setting Falcon kicker Morten Andersen extended Atlanta's lead to 26-14 with 8:41 to play. The Cardinals rallied with touchdown drives of 69 and 80 yards. The former featured four pass completions (13, 12, 21, and 21) from quarterback Jake Plummer to Pro Bowl wide receiver Rob Moore, including a 21-yarder for the touchdown. Atlanta's ensuing possession stalled at Arizona's 38-yard line. The Falcons punted into the Arizona end zone, and the Cardinals took possession at their own 20-yard line with no timeouts. Only 1:52 remained. It took Plummer 12 plays to march the Cards to their game-winning touchdown, a one-yard pass to fullback Larry Centers with five seconds to play. Plummer followed with a scramble for the two-point conversion. Moore's 91 receiving yards (seven receptions) raised his league-leading season total to 1,584 yards, breaking Roy Green's franchise single-season record of 1,555 yards (1984). Moore and Frank Sanders (1,017 yards) became the Cards' first pair of wide receivers in team history to crack 1,000-yards receiving. Defensive tackle Mark Smith registered two quarterback sacks to bring his season total to a team rookie record of six.

History

Franchise History

The Cardinals, a charter member of the National Football League that boasts the distinction of being the oldest continuously run professional football franchise in the nation, celebrate the 100th anniversary of their 1898 founding this season.

The Early Days

Founded in 1898, the team boasts a colorful history. Its fans have known the club as the Arizona Cardinals, Phoenix Cardinals, St. Louis Cardinals, Chicago Cardinals, Racine Cardinals, the Normals, and the Morgan Athletic Club over the 100-year span.

The team began as a neighborhood group which gathered to play football in a predominantly Irish area of Chicago's south side, playing under the name Morgan Athletic Club. The team later was acquired by Chris O'Brien, a painting and decorating contractor, and soon its playing site changed to nearby Normal Field, prompting the new name Normals.

In 1901, the team gained longstanding identification when O'Brien, finding a bargain, bought used jerseys from the nearby University of Chicago. The jerseys were faded maroon in color, prompting O'Brien to declare, "That's not maroon, it's Cardinal red!" The club's permanent nickname had been born!

The jersey color and the location of the field led to a new and obvious name, the Racine Cardinals.

In Chicago at the time, football competition was exclusively amateur, but such opposition became increasingly hard to find, so in 1906, the team had to disband.

In 1913, O'Brien reorganized the Cardinals. By 1917 they were able to buy new uniforms and hire a coach, Marshall Smith. That year they lost only two games and were champions of the Chicago Football League.

The war in Europe and a flu epidemic in the United States forced the team to suspend operations once again in 1918. Following Armistice Day, O'Brien organized the Cardinals for a third time. From that day forward, the Cardinals have been a permanent part of the professional football scene in America.

Growth

The Racine Cardinals, their popularity growing in the Chicago area, eventually became one of 11 charter members of the American Professional Football League, forerunner of the NFL, in 1920 for the $100 franchise fee. Immediately after joining the league, O'Brien lured a great halfback, John "Paddy" Driscoll, to the Cardinals for $3,000 a year, a sum considered outlandish at the time. But Driscoll was an authentic superstar, a superior runner, blocker, punter, and possibly the finest drop kicker in the history of football who also coached the team from 1921-22.

One of Driscoll's young running backs was Ralph Horween, a former star at Harvard, who played under the assumed name of B. McMahon. A Cardinal from 1921-22, Horween scored two rushing touchdowns during his three-year career during the days of leather helmets without face masks, numberless sweater jerseys, and $40 paychecks. Horween's claim to fame, however, would occur many years later. In 1996, the retired lawyer, who was born in Chicago on August 3, 1896, became the National Football League's first centenarian! He died in 1997.

In 1922, a team from Racine, Wisconsin joined the NFL, prompting the Cardinals to change their name to the Chicago Cardinals. The same year the Cardinal former owner Charles W. Bidwill, Sr. is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Cardinals also moved into their new home in Comiskey Park on Chicago's South Side.

Under new Head Coach Norman Barry, the Cardinals outdistanced a field of 20 teams to win their first NFL championship in 1925 by virtue of the league's best record. (NFL post-season play began in 1933.).

A Chicago physician, Dr. David Jones, purchased the team in 1929. In his first year of ownership, he coaxed running back Ernie Nevers out of retirement to become player-coach. Still in his prime, the 26-year-old Nevers scored 40 points on six touchdowns and four extra points in a historic 40-6 victory over the crosstown Bears on Thanksgiving Day, 1929.

After guiding the Cardinals to a 16-14-3 composite record in three seasons, the legendary Nevers retired as both coach and player in 1932.

Modern Era

Nevers' departure also marked the arrival of a new club owner. Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., a vice president of the Chicago Bears, purchased the Cardinals for Jones' asking price of $50,000. Bidwill divested himself of his Bears' holdings and a new era began.

However, the team sorely missed Nevers' magic on the field. The Cardinals endured difficult years in the 1930s and early '40s. World War II hit the team heavily. The Cardinals' top passer, receiver, and lineman—Johnny Clement, Billy Dewell, and Joe Kuharich, respectively—entered the service. In 1944 as a war-time emergency measure, the Cardinals combined with the Pittsburgh Steelers to play as one team. It was called Card-Pitt. Co-coached by the Cardinals' Phil Handler and the Steelers' Walt Kiesling, a former Cardinal guard, the team split its home games between Comiskey Park and Forbes Field in Pittsburgh but failed to win a game in 10 tries.

Success finally returned following the war. In 1945, the arrival of University of Missouri quarterback Paul Christman trumpeted the team's conversion to the "T" formation. Fullback Pat Harder and halfback Elmer Angsman were added in 1946.

The 1947 Championship Season

In the resurrectional flush of post-World War II, the 1947 Cardinals stormed to the Western Division title and the NFL championship.

But the title season was bittersweet for the Cardinals' organization. In April, the death of Bidwill, the club's spearhead since taking over as owner in 1933 and who helped guide the NFL through the Depression, deprived the owner of witnessing the club's first NFL crown in 22 years.

But he still earned credit for fitting the final crucial piece into place to complete the Cardinals' famed "Million Dollar Backfield." It was Bidwill's unprecedented signing of University of Georgia all-America running back Charley Trippi, for the then-unheard of sum of $100,000, that finally put the Cardinals over the top, winning their one and only NFL championship via a title game.

To appreciate the accomplishment of the 1947 squad, some perspective is necessary.

Just two seasons earlier, in 1945, the Cardinals as a team were outscored for the entire season by Philadelphia's premier running back, Steve Van Buren, 110-98. But the following year, the third-winningest coach in Cardinals history, the omnitallented Jimmy Conzelman, led Chicago out of the desolate wilderness to a 6-5 mark, the club's first winning season since 1935.

Several key Cardinals were already in place for the championship run. In 1945, the organization drafted Missouri's talented passer, Paul Christman, before adding churning Wisconsin fullback Pat Harder, Angsman of Notre Dame, and brilliant end/defensive back Mal Kutner from Texas in '46. Another great end, Dewell, had returned from military service for the '45 season. The staple of Conzelman's ensemble was a relic from the late '30s—versatile Marshall "Biggie" Goldberg, an intuitive defensive back who was the first real free safety in pro football and the "dean" of the "Million Dollar Backfield." Also a running back, Goldberg, a two-time all-America at Pittsburgh, had seen his productive days offensively, too, but they were mostly behind him when Conzelman began his second reign as the Cards' head man in '46.

Chicago started quickly in 1947 by winning its first three outings, a run that included a 31-7 trouncing of their hated crosstown rivals, the Chicago Bears. In week four, the Cardinals headed to Los Angeles on a trip heavy with fate. They incurred their first loss of the season, 27-7 to the Rams, but lost something far more precious than a game.

Rookie punter Jeff Burkett suffered an appendicitis attack and missed the game as well as the team plane back to Chicago. He spent several days recuperating after the appendectomy before boarding a United Airlines DC-6 bound for home. He never made it. The plane crashed in Bryce Canyon, Utah, killing the young star who was the NFL's leading punter at the time of the tragedy with a 47.4-yard average.

Under the pall of the loss of Burkett, the Cardinals climbed to 7-3 but were on the heels of a two-game losing streak heading to Philadelphia on December 7 for a critical game against the Eagles. Trailing 7-3 at the half, Chicago exploded for six second-half touchdowns (two by Trippi) and held the powerful Van Buren to just 44 yards rushing, to grab a crucial 45-21 road win.

The victory deadlocked the Cards with the arch rival Bears, who, ironically and poetically, stood as the only remaining obstacle between the Cardinals and their first Western Division crown. A showdown loomed for the regular-season finale the following Sunday at hostile Wrigley Field on Chicago's North Side.

If the '47 Cardinals' miracle season could be summarized in a single moment, the opening play of that division decider unquestionably would get the vote. It was the creation of mastermind Conzelman, a pass play designed to give the Cardinals an advantage at the outset. In a best-case scenario, the stratagem would isolate Bears left-side linebacker Mike Holovak one-on-one with Boris "Babe" Dimancheff, a blistering speedster who was Trippi's replacement. Conzelman eagerly looked forward to rehearsing the play all week before the big game, but nature did not cooperate. Dimancheff's wife was expecting, and he missed the entire week of practice to be at her side. He did not rejoin the team until the day before the game.

So it was that the biggest play of the season for the soon-to-be-champion Cardinals never had a single dry run.

Game day dawned!

The stunning game-opening play worked to perfection. Dimancheff ran a flair pattern, turned outside the end, then raced down the center of the field. He outdistanced Holovak, caught Christman's perfect pass, and galloped into the end zone despite stumbling over the baseball pitcher's mound.

The Cardinals also intercepted four passes by legendary Bear quarterback Sid Luckman and converted two into touchdowns for a 30-21 win.

Victories over the Bears were especially sweet. A sore spot with all the old Big Red was their inescapable status as Chicago's "other" team.

The Western Division crown now in hand, the Cardinals prepared to play host to the league championship game a fortnight later against Eastern Division powerhouse Philadelphia.

The NFL's 15th championship game opened with a surprise controversy and was studded with more big-play touchdowns on the ground than any NFL title game or Super Bowl since.

On December 28, 1947, a grim, frozen Comiskey Park on Chicago's South Side gave little indication of the approaching heat of the day's upcoming war. Even the preliminaries generated a spark. Pre-kickoff controversy raged when it was discovered the Eagles, in attempts to get better gripping on the concrete-like playing surface, had sharpened and filed their cleats. A succession of penalties for the blatant rules infraction opened the game, infuriating Philadelphia Head Coach Earle "Greasy" Neale.

The Cardinals quietly had slipped on tennis shoes for the frigid affair.

The game was defined by Chicago's quick-openers, producing three devastating, back-breaking, long scoring runs from scrimmage—two 70-yarders by Angsman and a 44-yarder by Trippi.

In the third period, Trippi circled under a high Joe Muma punt, taking it on his own 25-yard line. Spectacularly side-stepping three Eagle pursuers, Trippi pranced 75 yards for a touchdown, getting hit three times along the way.

Angsman's thrilling fourth-quarter duplication of his second-period 70-yard touchdown strike enabled him to break the NFL championship game record for rushing yards with 159.

But Philadelphia fought evenly throughout with one-eyed quarterback Tommy Thompson setting two playoff records on 27-of-44 passing for 297 yards.

The Cardinals' 28-21 victory, however, wasn't secured until Goldberg's late-game interception.

New Direction

With his passing, Bidwill's widow, Violet, Bidwill, assumed control of the franchise for the next 15 years, a span that included a second consecutive Western Division championship and appearance in the 1948 NFL championship game, a 7-0 loss at Philadelphia, and the transfer of the team from Chicago to St. Louis in 1960.

Upon Mrs. Bidwill's death in January of 1962, team control moved to sons Charles W. Bidwill, Jr. and William V. Bidwill. In 1972, the latter and his family gained sole ownership with William becoming managing general partner. On July 1, 1976, incorporation of the company was accomplished with Bidwill continuing as chief executive officer.

After 14 years in the city, the Cardinals brought their first championship to St. Louis in 1974. The Big Red captured the NFC East Division flag under Head Coach Don Coryell and advanced to the playoffs with a 10-4 regular-season record.

However, the Cardinals lost to the Minnesota Vikings, 30-14, in their first playoff appearance since 1948.

Again in 1975, Coryell provided St. Louis with a division title but another playoff loss, this time to the Rams in Los Angeles, 35-23, ending the Cards' post-season dream in their first outing.

The Cardinals next appeared in the playoffs in 1982 when Head Coach Jim Hanifan's club lost a first-round game at Green Bay, 41-16. In 1984, an offensively explosive St. Louis team narrowly missed the playoffs—and the NFC East title—with a 9-7 record. However, the Cardinals stumbled to a 5-11 mark in 1985, prompting Hanifan's dismissal and the hiring of long-time Dallas Cowboy assistant Gene Stallings as the team's new head coach.

Arizona

After 28 years in St. Louis, the Cardinals relocated to Arizona in the spring of 1988 and made Sun Devil Stadium on the campus of Arizona State University their new home.

Their first season in the Valley of the Sun began optimistically when the team raced to a 7-4 record and a share of the NFC East Division lead. But untimely injuries struck and a five-game losing streak ensued to finish the year, dashing hopes of the club's first post-season berth since 1982.

The Cardinals' new home provided club single-game (67,139 vs. Dallas in the Arizona inaugural game) and single-season (472,937) attendance records in the team's first autumn in Arizona.

Three coaching changes and a name change have altered the face of the Cardinals since their Arizona arrival. Following their first two seasons in the desert, long-time Washington Redskin assistant Joe Bugel arrived as head coach, a position he held for four seasons until Buddy Ryan was named to replace him and also serve as general manager on February 3, 1994. Vince Tobin succeeded Ryan on February 7, 1996.

On March 17, 1994, Bidwill announced his intention to change the name of the team to the Arizona Cardinals. The change was adopted unanimously by vote of NFL owners the following week.

All the Cardinals' franchise attendance records have been established since moving to the desert. The record-setting inaugural season attendance total was eclipsed in 1994 when 497,330 fans, or 62,166 per game, spun the Sun Devil Stadium turnstiles.

The top 10 single-game home crowds in franchise history have watched the Cardinals in Sun Devil Stadium, including the largest, a throng of 73,025 that saw the Cards face Dallas on September 19, 1993.

The 1995 season also marked another milestone when the Cardinals served as the host team for Super Bowl XXX at Sun Devil Stadium on January 28, 1996.

Heritage

The list of former Cardinals enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame grew to 14 in 1996 when former offensive lineman Dan Dierdorf joined the elite group. The University of Michigan product, currently a member of the popular ABC-TV "Monday Night Football" broadcast crew, played every down of his illustrious 13-year (1971-83) career as a Cardinal.

The others are Charles Bidwill, Guy Chamberlin, Conzelman, Driscoll, Kiesling, Curly Lambeau, Dick "Night Train" Lane, Ollie Matson, Nevers, Jackie Smith, Jim Thorpe, Trippi, and Larry Wilson. Wilson currently serves the Cardinals as a vice president. ■

A Century of Memories

More than likely it never entered Teddy Roosevelt's mind, as he stormed up San Juan Hill with his Rough Riders to take the critical battle of the Spanish-American War in 1898 that a football club playing at 52nd and Morgan streets on Chicago's Southwest Side was in the process of establishing the oldest continually run professional football team in history.

At the time, Roosevelt's major triumph in Cuba, along with Pierre and Marie Curie's discovery of radium in Paris, was headline news. The newly assembled football squad of the Morgan Athletic Club was not.

This year the Cardinals' organization, originally formed in 1898 by a visionary South Side Windy City house painter named Chris O'Brien, celebrates its 100th anniversary.

Visionary Painter

The story of the Arizona Cardinals begins with the efforts of this tireless pioneer a century ago. Along with his brother, Pat, O'Brien organized the club as a neighborhood team. For a short while, the group became known as the Normals after moving to the Normal Park playing field at 63rd and Racine.

In 1901, O'Brien acquired a surplus of used game jerseys from the University of Chicago.

Hall of Famer John "Paddy" Driscoll was one of the great drop-kickers in football history.

Their faded-maroon color struck the painter as more of a cardinal-red tint, and so was born the organization's longtime nickname. The team's full name then was changed to the Racine Cardinals to reflect the new location and jersey color.

There were no publicists generating reams of promotional copy during that prehistoric era of pro football. Indeed the very word "pro" was set off disparagingly in quotes by The Chicago Daily Tribune in its microscopic accounts of any early-day local professional activity, no doubt influenced by the esteemed Amos Alonzo Stagg, then in his glory as one of college football's leading coaches at the University of Chicago but an outspoken, avid enemy of the professional game.

As a result, precious few details are known about O'Brien and his team. However, one noteworthy observer from that time and place still remembers.

The Good Monsignor

Monsignor Ignatius McDermott, a legendary figure admired throughout Chicago for his work with alcohol/drug dependent people, sold scorecards for the old Chicago Cardinals back in the mid-1920s. His vivid recollections of O'Brien and the events of the early Cardinals are truly extraordinary.

"Chris O'Brien lived on Racine Street with his wife and son, Ed," the monsignor remembers. "He had a paint shop there. He painted houses in the neighborhood in those days and started the Racine Cardinals football team that later became the Chicago Cardinals. Some young fellas used to hang around on the corner of 55th (Street) and Racine and O'Brien only lived a block away. The team played at Normal Park up on 63rd Street. Today it's a police station and a courthouse.

"In those early days O'Brien started out with prairie football players; fellas who were out of high school and working and had talent as football players. After work they would practice at night. Time marched on and O'Brien began to sign kids coming out of college. He'd play his games at the park on Sunday afternoons.

"Every year, of course, his big game was with the Chicago Bears. George Halas, then working for the Staley Manufacturing Company, had a team going on the North Side he had brought from Decatur, Illinois. They played at Wrigley Field, the Cubs' park. For years, there was always the traditional game on Thanksgiving Day between the two. They would meet at 11 o'clock on Thanksgiving morning. One year they'd play at Wrigley Field, the next at Normal Park.

"There were no training camps or anything like that in those days. Guys were working for a living, and football was their hobby. Since there were no lights at Normal Park, Chris had them practicing at night at Sherman Park, which was at 55th and Racine. It ran three blocks north to 52nd Street and then went from Racine to Loomis, altogether about half a mile. There was a lagoon there where people used to rent boats, and four baseball fields—none of them illuminated, of course.

"In the fall, O'Brien would have the team practice at night near the fieldhouse, inside of which was a swimming pool and a very small gymnasium with a basketball court. Due to the inferior lighting at the park in those days, he'd pick out a spot near the fieldhouse where there was light coming from a couple of lamp posts. Being a painter, he then serviced the team with some of his skill—painting the football white so they could practice at night."

Msgr. McDermott eventually would become more closely involved with O'Brien's Cardinals.

"I sold scorecards at the park on Sunday," he adds. "They were only a dime in those days. Mrs. O'Brien ran the refreshment stand. I think there was only one of them back then, and I don't think they even sold hot dogs. Soda pop and Oh Henry! bars were the big thing in those days."

The 85-year-old McDermott then pinpointed the time frame for these events.

"I got out of grammar school in 1924 and began high school that fall, so it was in the fall of 1924 that I started selling the scorecards at Normal Park," he reflects.

The Monsignor also had his brushes with pro football's royalty, in particular, the game's reigning superstar of the day, the Cardinals' Hall of Fame quarterback/left halfback/punter/kicker Paddy Driscoll.

"Driscoll, in addition to being one of the game's all-time great punters, was an unrivaled drop-kicker," recalls McDermott. "I used to meet him on Thursday mornings when I was off from Quigley Preparatory Seminary. He was coach of St. Mel's High School at the time and he would come down to Normal Park and practice kicking. He'd have two footballs and he'd go from one sideline to the other drop-kicking from the 15- to the 18-yard lines. Then he'd move back to the 22- to 25-yard lines, kicking from the center of the field and all angles."

Legendary Thanksgiving Day Clash

McDermott was in attendance at the legendary 1925 Thanksgiving Day game between the Cardinals and the Bears, the 0-0 scoreless tie that served as the professional debut of Illinois' heralded Red Grange, newly signed to George Halas' Bears.

Everyone expected the famous Galloping Ghost to run wild that day. Instead, they witnessed a kicking clinic from Driscoll, who punted at a phenomenal 25 times, pinpointing most of his kicks away from the redhead or out of bounds. Grange managed to get his hands on just three punts the entire game.

"That day everybody thought Grange was going to run back every punt for a touchdown. Instead, Driscoll turned into a coffin-corner kicker," recalls McDermott.

Author Howard Roberts, in his book The Story of Pro Football, quotes Driscoll as having said, "Kicking to Grange is like grooving one to Babe Ruth."

As the players exited the field after the draw, many of the fans booed loudly. Driscoll, stopping to talk with his wife after the game, said, "I hate to hear the fans get on a young man like Grange. It wasn't his fault." Whereupon Driscoll's wife reportedly answered, "Don't feel sorry for Grange, they're booing you!"

Paddy's Playmates

Though Driscoll gave the appearance at times of being a one-man gang, he had able support in the early '20s from a number of fine Cardinals players in guard "Gob" Buckeye, guard/tackle Willis Brennan, center/tackle/back Nick McInerney, end Lennie Sachs, and later, in 1925, quarterback "Red" Dunn, end Eddie Anderson, tackle Fred Gillies, and halfback Roger "Ike" Mahoney.

Dunn later starred with the great Green Bay championship teams of the late 1920s and early '30s. Mahoney was eulogized in song at Cardinals games by a barbershop quartet called The Cardinal Quartet, that belted out its original tune, "Over the Line with Ike Mahoney." Anderson went on to coaching fame (and in 1961, the author's senior year at Cranwell, would address its varsity football banquet).

Champions Before Title Games

The Chicago Cardinals won the franchise's first league championship in 1925. Perhaps a better way of saying it was they were awarded first place. NFL championship games didn't begin until 1933, and up until that time, crowns were awarded based upon final position in the standings. The Cardinals finished with an 11-2-1 record, edging the Pottsville Maroons by one game.

But there's more to this troublesome story.

Pottsville had beaten the Cardinals 21-7 in their only meeting that year, a contest ironically set up by then-NFL president Joe Carr towards the end of the regular season for the purpose of establishing a rightful league king.

But both Carr and the Cardinals underestimated Pottsville, and the Maroons rode off with the crown. Or so they thought.

Surviving members of the 1947 NFL championship Cardinals reunited last year in Chicago in front of their original team photograph.

The new champions then fatefully scheduled a post-season exhibition game against a team of former Notre Dame all-stars in Philadelphia. That action stepped on the toes of the NFL's Frankford Yellowjackets, who had territorial rights to the area. Frankford filed a protest with Carr, who immediately backed the "Jackets' claim.

Carr didn't want an unknown, independent, first-year team in the league to be champion. He asked O'Brien to schedule another game or two in hopes that a victory would give the crown to the Cardinals.

Chicago agreed to book the now historically significant December 10 game with the Milwaukee Badgers, who already had disbanded for the season.

Unknown at the time was that Milwaukee had stocked its decimated squad with four high school kids from the Chicago area for the game. A furor erupted when post-game news leaked out about the ineligible youngsters, and the Badgers were barred forever from further league play.

O'Brien, humiliated by the events, to his credit refused to accept the championship trophy that winter. It is considered to be the darkest blight on the league office in NFL history and unfortunately taints the Cardinals outstanding season.

Helping The NFL Survive

The following year, in 1926, O'Brien became a key figure in the crucial survival of the National Football League when Grange and his entrepreneurial agent, C.C. ("Cash and Carry") Pyle, formed their own rival pro league. O'Brien was plied with enticing offers from Pyle to jump leagues. Instead, he resolutely held to his support of the NFL, even selling one bonafide superstar, Driscoll, for $10,000 to the Cardinals' greatest rival—Halas and the Bears—in an attempt to alleviate his growing debt. Sadly, he never was able to replace his multitasking star.

Pyle and Grange's American Football League, meanwhile, went belly-up after just one season.

Finally, in the summer of 1929, O'Brien quietly left football, selling his beloved Cardinals to former city physician Dr. David J. Jones. Most historical reports place the sum of O'Brien's sale at $25,000, but in a copy of a letter of agreement from O'Brien to Jones, dug up by the archivists at the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, dated June 14, 1929, the purchase amount clearly reads $12,500.

Though he never realized much personal gain from the creation of his dream, the Cardinals are alive and flying today—pro football's granddaddy of them all; the NFL's venerable centenarian—thanks to the vision, ingenuity, and leadership of a one-time Chicago South Side painter of houses (and footballs), Chris O'Brien. ■

■Notes

NFL approves Cards' move from Chicago to St. Louis on March 13 ... team plays in 34,000-seat Sportsman's Park ... with no regular practice site, the team practices at an open field at a city park ... running back John David Crow breaks Ollie Matson's single-season rushing mark with 1,071 yards ... Crow sets franchise single-game mark that stood for 35 years with 203 yards vs. Pittsburgh on Dec. 18 ... Cards lead NFL in rushing with 2,356 yards (196.3 yards per game), and in rushing defense allowing 1,212 yards (101 yards per game) ... defense also leads league allowing 252.4 yards-per-game, 158 first downs, and just 56 first downs rushing ... wide receiver Sonny Randle leads NFL with club-record 15 touchdowns receiving on 62 receptions ... little-known Utah halfback Larry Wilson, selected in seventh round of draft, converts to safety due to injuries.

■Notes

Cards sign decade-long CFL passing leader Sam Etcheverry, and trade quarterback John Roach for running back Prentice Gautt and wide receiver Taz Anderson ... Gautt and Anderson enjoy productive Cardinal careers ... Etcheverry, who passed for 30,381 yards and 183 touchdowns in nine seasons for the Montreal Alouettes, hurts his arm in training camp ... coupled with running back John David Crow's broken ankle, Cards finish 7-7 ... Head Coach Frank "Pop" Ivy resigns with two games remaining ... Cards win both remaining contests as assistants Chuck Drulis, Ray Prochaska, and Ray Wilsey take over ... during the season Drulis and his prized pupil, second-year safety Larry Wilson, perfect the safety blitz.

■Notes

Violet Wolfner Bidwill, widow of original Card owner Charles W. Bidwill, Sr. passes away ... sons Bill and Charles (Stormy) Bidwill become legal owners and retain their titles of president (Stormy) and vice-president (Bill). ... Wally Lemm, a former Cardinal assistant coach, selected as club's head coach ... Charley Johnson, a "future" draft pick in 1960, becomes starting quarterback in the fifth game of the season and sets team records for pass attempts (308), completions (150), yardage (2,440) ... he also sets single-game mark with 386 yards against Philadelphia on Dec. 16 as Cards (589 yards offense) and Eagles (498 yards) combine for 1,087 total yards, the second-highest total in NFL history ... Bobby Joe Conrad switches from running back to flanker and catches 62 passes to tie a club record set two years earlier by Sonny Randle ... Randle sets a pair of team marks with 16 receptions for 256 yards at N.Y. Giants on Nov. 4.

Notes

NFL expands to 16 teams ... Cards join Century Division of the Eastern Conference with Cleveland, New York, and Pittsburgh ... wide receiver Sonny Randle is traded to San Francisco, ... quarterback Charley Johnson and linebacker Larry Stallings are inducted into the Army two days before the first preseason game ... kicker Jim Bakken leads NFL with 117 points (most for a kicker) on 27-of-39 field goals and 36-of-36 extra points ... he also sets NFL record with nine field-goal attempts (made seven) vs. Pittsburgh, Sept. 24 ... tight end Jackie Smith posts 1,205 receiving yards on 56 receptions for club record and impressive 21.5-yard average per catch ... Cards finish 6-7-1 but witness starting debut of former taxi squad free agent from Southern Illinois, quarterback Jim Hart ... John Omohundro, then an assistant to trainer Jack Rockwell, begins a tenure with the Cards that still endures 31 years later.

Notes

Injuries decimate the team as 11 players undergo surgery ... Cards limp to 4-9-1 mark as offense manages just 193 points, fewest since 1954 (183) ... defense is particularly hobbled by injuries, allowing team-record 389 points that will stand for 15 seasons ... safety Larry Wilson sets still-standing team mark with 88-yard fumble return for a touchdown at Green Bay on Dec. 21 ... Cards and Saints combine for NFL-record 12 touchdown passes in 51-42 New Orleans victory in Busch Stadium on Nov. 2 ... the combined 93 points is just 10 shy of the all-time NFL combined scoring mark as quarterbacks Charley Johnson (Cardinals) and Billy Kilmer (Saints) each toss six touchdown passes to set Card individual and opponent marks.

■Notes

Bob Holloway named head coach ... Cards draft cornerback Norm Thompson, offensive lineman Dan Dierdorf, and wide receiver Mel Gray ... Thompson will start for seven seasons, Dierdorf becomes six-time Pro Bowler and member of Pro Football Hall of Fame, and Gray logs a dozen seasons, highlighted by a stretch of catching a pass in 121 consecutive games from 1973-82 ... Eagles' kicker Tom Dempsey sets Card opponent record with 54-yard field goal on Dec. 12 ... Gray completes rookie season with eye-popping averages of 28 yards on two rushing attempts, 29.7 yards on 18 pass receptions with four touchdowns, and 24.7 yards on 30 kickoff returns.

■Notes

Former San Diego State University head coach Don Coryell, with his fiery disposition and innovative offensive schemes, is named head coach ... he hires Joe Gibbs running backs coach and Jim Hanifan offensive line coach ... running back Terry Metcalf drafted in third round ... Jim Hart is named starting quarterback ... despite 4-9-1 record, Card offense improves dramatically, boosting point output from 193 in 1972 to 286, and gains nearly 800 more total yards on offense ... Cards complete only two of 10 passes at Atlanta on Dec. 9 for single-game franchise low of nine yards as Jim Bakken kicks six field goals in 32-10 win.

■Notes

Despite 10-4 record (6-1 at home), Cards lose tie-breaker with Washington and fail to make playoffs. ... Cards defeated N.Y. Giants to stay alive in playoff race, needing the division-leading Cowboys to defeat Washington in Dallas later that day ... but the Redskins win 27-14 and Cards became first team in seven-year history of the NFC to go 10-4 and not gain a post-season berth ... eight Card victories by seven points or less earn "Cardiac Cards" moniker ... Cardinals and Chargers play preseason game in Tokyo, Japan, the first NFL game played outside North America ... Cards set NFL record with eight lost fumbles at Washington on Oct. 25.

■Notes

The 1981 draft class includes Alabama linebacker E.J. Junior (first round), Portland State quarterback Neil Lomax (second round), and Citadel running back Stump Mitchell (ninth round), a trio that would combine for 26 seasons with the Cards ... all three earn consensus NFL all-rookie team notice ... Lomax named starter for final six games as Cards win four consecutive times to finish 7-9 ... return specialist Mitchell breaks or ties eight club marks and ties two NFL records ... Roy Green doubles as defensive back and wide receiver as the league's first authentic two-way player in more than two decades.

■ Notes

After losing five of first six games, Cards rebound with 7-2-1 mark in final 10 contests and narrowly miss playoffs with 8-7-1 record. ... in first full season at wide receiver, Roy Green establishes team records with 78 pass receptions for 1,227 yards to earn all-pro acclaim. ... defensive end Curtis Greer sets team record with 16 quarterback sacks as Cards lead NFL with 59 traps. ... Cards and N.Y. Giants play to 20-20 tie on nationally-televised "Monday Night Football" game remembered for three missed overtime field-goal attempts by Card kicker Neil O'Donoghue. ... future Hall of Famer Dan Dierdorf announces his retirement after 12 seasons, 160 games, and six Pro Bowls. ... St. Louis (nine) and Kansas City (six) combine for 15 turnovers, two shy of the NFL record, in 38-14 Chiefs' win on Oct. 2. ... Cards lose 28-10 to Minnesota during preseason game on Aug. 6 in London's Wembley Stadium, the first NFL game in England.

■Notes

The Cards, with the NFC East title on line to the winner, travel to R.F.K. Stadium and battle back from 23-7 halftime deficit for 27-26 lead midway through fourth quarter, but a 50-yard field goal try sails wide as time runs out and Redskins escape with 29-27 win and the division crown ... Cards finish 9-7 with seven losses by an average of just over six points ... in the torrid comeback at Washington, quarterback Neil Lomax connects on 25 of 28 passes for 314 yards in the second half alone ... Lomax sets club single-season marks with 345 pass completions in 560 attempts for 4,614 yards (fifth highest in NFL history). 28 touchdowns, and 92.5 quarterback rating ... wide receiver Roy Green's 1,555 receiving yards is most by NFL player in 19 seasons as he averages 45.3 yards per touchdown reception.

■Notes

Though a 3-1 start looks promising, the Cards win only two of their final 12 contests to finish 5-11, spelling the end of Jim Hanifan's six-year (1980-85) tenure as head coach ... with former all-pro running back Ottis Anderson injured, Stump Mitchell averages 96.9 yards rushing in final nine games on route to 1,006 yards and a 5.5-yard average per carry despite starting just eight contests ... quarterback Neil Lomax sacked NFC-high 61 times ... Yugoslavian kicker Novo Bojovic, signed by the Cards during mid-season, kicks a 40-yard field goal to give the Cards a 3-0 first-quarter lead Nov. 24 vs. N.Y. Giants, chases down the football, spikes it in the end zone, then watches with teammates as Giants score 34 unanswered points in 34-3 defeat at the Meadowlands.

■Notes

After a 2-0 start and 5-5 mark after 10 games, Head Coach Gene Stallings resigns after 37-14 loss to L.A. Rams dips Cards' slate to 5-6 ... Cards lose next five games under interim head coach Hank Kuhlmann ... quarterback Neil Lomax forced to sidelines for entire season due to career-ending arthritic condition in left hip ... only four Cardinals start all 16 games as 21 players who started at least one game miss playing time ... Cards sweep first season series against Cowboys since 1970 with 19-10 win at Dallas and 24-20 victory in Arizona ... fullback Ron Wolfley named to unprecedented fourth consecutive Pro Bowl due to kamikaze-like play on special teams.

Notes

Encouragement from 4-0 preseason record and 2-0 start to regular season quickly dissipates as Cards drop 12 of next 14 games to finish 4-12, the most losses in franchise history ... quarterback Timm Rosenbach suffers ruptured anterior cruciate ligament in right knee in non-contact drill during evening practice on Aug. 21 and misses season after reconstructive surgery ... Cards gamble in first round of NFL Draft by selecting defensive tackle Eric Swann despite no college playing experience ... little-known Southern University walk-on cornerback Aeneas Williams, picked in third round, starts 15 of 16 games and his six interceptions share the NFC lead, making him the first rookie cornerback to achieve the feat since the Cowboys' Everson Walls (11) in 1991 ... linebacker Eric Hill returns a fumble 85 yards for a touchdown in season opener at L.A. Rams on Sept. 1, one of a team-record five Card fumble recoveries that day.

■Notes

Despite considerable improvement on both offense and defense, Cards lose six games by six points or less to post a second consecutive 4-12 season ... defense allows fewest rushing yards (1,635) in 24 seasons (1,558, 1968) and fewest points (332) since 1978 (296) ... cornerback Robert Massey becomes 17th player in NFL history to return two interceptions for touchdowns in one game (31 and 41 yards in first quarter Oct. 4 vs. Washington) ... Pro Bowl punter Rich Camarillo narrowly misses becoming the first player in NFL history to achieve a 40-yard net punting average with a 39.6-yard net mark.

■Notes

A 5-3 record and three consecutive victories to finish season 7-9 are not enough to save Head Coach Joe Bugel's job ... rushing offense improves from 26th (1992) to sixth overall and scoring jumps from 24th to fourth ... defensively, six opponents held to 10 points or less, a Cardinal first since 1936 ... first-round draft pick Garrison Hearst suffers season-ending knee injury in sixth game ... Pittsburgh (Kan.) State rookie running back Ronald Moore rushes for 1,018 yards and leads all NFL rookies with nine touchdowns ... Moore becomes only fifth rookie in NFL history to tally four rushing touchdowns in one game (vs. L.A. Rams, Dec. 5) ... franchise-record crowd of 73,025 sees Cards lose 17-10 to Dallas on Sept. 19 ... Cards snap 14-game losing streak at R.F.K. Stadium with a 17-10 victory on Sept. 12, their first success at Washington since 1978.

■Notes

Cards lose seven of final eight games to drop to 4-12, costing Head Coach Buddy Ryan his job ... defense ranks last against the run and in scoring defense despite league highs of 42 takeaways and 23 fumble recoveries ... Arizona's offense leads NFL with 43 turnovers (24 interceptions, 19 lost fumbles) ... lowlight of season at expansion Carolina on Nov. 19 as Cards gain just 96 total yards, their lowest amount in 40 years ... fullback Larry Centers earns first Pro Bowl honor as first running back in league history to eclipse 100-pass reception plateau with 101 catches, a franchise record ... Garrison Hearst owns dubious distinction of becoming first running back in NFL history to score only one rushing touchdown during a 1,000-yard (1,070) season.

Overtime Games

Steelers 26, Cardinals 20

November 30, 1997 ■ Sun Devil Stadium (64,322)

Like two boxers, the Steelers and Cardinals traded scores throughout an exciting turnover-free contest that was Arizona's fourth overtime outing of the season and Pittsburgh's first victory in four trips to Sun Devil Stadium. The tilt also was Arizona's sixth setback in eight games decided in the final minute or overtime. Pittsburgh's relentless running game that accumulated 177 rushing yards was fueled by battering ram Jerome Bettis, who rushed for Card opponent single-game and season bests of 142 yards on 36 carries and three touchdowns, including the overtime game-winner, a 10-yard rumble that climaxed the Steelers' only overtime possession, a five-play, 52-yard drive that took just 2:51. Pittsburgh's run game also led to a lopsided 39:22-26:12 time-of-possession advantage. The stout Steeler defense posted 10 quarterback sacks to set a Cardinal opponent record and equal Pittsburgh's mark, limited Arizona to 48 yards rushing, and stopped the Cardinals nine times in 11 third-down conversion attempts. Card rookie quarterback Jake Plummer's 12-for-17, 217-yard second-half passing performance rallied Arizona, first to a 20-20 deadlock with 4:20 to play on Joe Nedney's second field goal, a 19-yarder, then to an opportunity to win on the next possession, a 59-yard, eight-play drive to Pittsburgh's 28-yard line that ended when Nedney missed a 46-yard game-winning field-goal attempt with 11 seconds remaining. Wide receiver Rob Moore padded his NFL-leading receiving yardage total to 1,348 yards with eight receptions for 188 yards. The Cardinal offense recorded its first multiple-touchdown effort in four games, while the Arizona defense failed to record a turnover for the third consecutive week. Bettis notched his ninth 100-yard rushing effort of the season, while Cardinal rushers failed to reach 100 rushing yards for the 25th straight time, the NFL high.

Eagles 13, Cardinals 10

October 19, 1997 ■ Veterans Stadium (66,860)

Arizona's unimaginable run of close losses continued at Philadelphia where the Eagles landed the Cardinals a 13-10 overtime setback, the Cards' second loss in three overtime contests and their fifth defeat in the final minute or overtime. The Cardinals' offense, behind first-time starting quarterback Stoney Case, sputtered to a scoreless first half despite excellent field position. (Arizona began its first three possessions at its own 48 and 42-yard lines and the Eagles' 42 without scoring.) Four of the Cards' seven first-half possessions gained one yard or less; Arizona gained only 80 total net yards in the opening stanza. New kicker Joe Nedney cut the Eagles' advantage to 7-3 with a 23-yard field goal early in the third quarter. The tight-vested affair became a sparing match the rest of the way with neither side scoring in the game's ensuing five possessions. Rookie Jake Plummer replaced Case at 10:26 of the fourth quarter with the ball on the Cards' two-yard line. In his first NFL action, Plummer drove the Cardinals 98 yards in 14 plays, capping the drive with a 31-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Kevin Williams, giving Arizona a 10-7 lead with 3:07 to play. It was Williams' first touchdown reception as a Cardinal. A 38-yard Chris Boniol field goal with 26 seconds left sent the game into overtime. Plummer had the Cardinals on the march again with the opening possession of overtime, reaching Arizona's 42-yard line before an intentional grounding penalty led to a punt three plays later. Philadelphia then drove 73 yards in six plays to set the table for Boniol's 24-yard game-winning field goal. Arizona enjoyed a turnover advantage for only the second time in seven outings with two interceptions and two fumble recoveries against just one lost fumble. Wide receiver Rob Moore posted his fourth 100-yard receiving game (6-101), his career single-season high. Defensive end Simeon Rice recorded his first NFL interception.

Redskins 19, Cardinals 13

September 14, 1997 ■ Jack Kent Cooke Stadium (78,270)

A capacity crowd at the inaugural game at Jack Kent Cooke Stadium, the Redskins' new home, witnessed a defensive struggle the two old rivals took into overtime for the second consecutive time at Washington. Both offenses sputtered, combining to gain only 562 total net yards, committing three turnovers, converting just 11 of 37 third-down attempts, posting 18 possessions of four plays or less, and punting 17 times. The Cardinals took a 7-3 first-quarter lead when J.J. McCleskey blocked a Redskin punt and Tommy Bennett fell on the ball in the Redskin end zone. The play marked the Cards' first touchdown on a blocked punt in 25 years (Norm Thompson vs. Pittsburgh, Oct. 1, 1972). A five-yard touchdown reception by the Redskins' Michael Westbrook and a 32-yard Kevin Butler field goal deadlocked the game until late in the fourth quarter when the Redskins drove 75 yards in 15 plays to take a 13-10 lead with 1:13 to play on a 19-yard Scott Blanton field goal. The Cardinals then drove 37 yards in eight plays following Kevin Williams' 22-yard kickoff return to set the table for a 47-yard game-tying field goal with two seconds to play by Butler, who beat the Redskins twice in 1996 with last-play three-pointers. After winning the overtime coin toss, the Cardinals' Leeland McElroy fumbled on Arizona's second play from scrimmage. Two plays later, pressured Washington quarterback Gus Ferrette found a stumbling Westbrook with a 40-yard touchdown pass to end the game.

Cardinals 25, Cowboys 22

September 7, 1997 ■ Sun Devil Stadium (70,060)

One week after watching a 21-3 lead evaporate into a 24-21 defeat at Cincinnati, the Cardinals reversed roles to storm from behind and earn their first home-opening victory since arriving in Arizona in 1988, a triumph that also snapped the Cowboys' 13-game series winning streak. Trailing 22-3 in the third quarter after allowing one defensive touchdown by Dallas and five field goals by Cowboy kicker Richie Cunningham, Arizona quarterback Kent Graham led the furious rally with two touchdown passes—seven yards to wide receiver Frank Sanders and one yard to tight end Pat Carter. The latter pulled the Cards within two points with 1:06 to play. Wide receiver Rob Moore, whose 47-yard reception keyed the eight-play, 70-yard drive leading to Carter's touchdown, knotted the game with a two-point conversion reception from Graham. After trading overtime fumbles, the Cardinals needed only five plays—highlighted by completions of 19 and 29 yards to Moore and fullback Larry Centers, respectively—to position kicker Kevin Butler for his 20-yard field goal that glanced off the left upright. It was the 16th game-winning three-pointer of Butler's career. The victory was Arizona's fourth straight in overtime and the third under Head Coach Vince Tobin. It also was Arizona's best second-half comeback since overcoming Washington's 21-6 lead in the Cards' 27-24 success on Oct. 4, 1992, and marked the first time Arizona held Dallas without an offensive touchdown since the first 1990 meeting.

Cardinals 37, Redskins 34

November 10, 1996 ■ RFK Stadium (51,929)

The Cardinals rode a record-setting passing effort by quarterback Boomer Esiason to shock NFC East Division-leading Washington in overtime. Esiason's personal best 522 passing yards were the third most prolific total in NFL history while also setting Cardinal and Redskin opponent single-game records. Arizona's defense came to the rescue, too, holding Washington pointless following all five Cardinal turnovers. New Cardinal kicker Kevin Butler, signed five days earlier, sealed the pulsating victory with his third field goal, a 32-yarder, after he and Redskin kicker Scott Blanton traded overtime misses. The Cards were sledding uphill throughout the second half after Washington snapped the 13-13 halftime tie with two third-quarter touchdowns. A one-yard Larry Centers touchdown plunge cut the deficit to 27-20, but the Redskins answered with Terry Allen's second one-yard touchdown run. Facing a 34-20 hole with 10:37 remaining, Esiason led a furious comeback. He drove the Cards 80 yards in eight plays, a drive culminated by rookie tight end Johnny McWilliams' first NFL touchdown, a 13-yard reception. Esiason had the Cards poised to strike again at the Redskin 25-yard line on the next Arizona possession but tossed his fourth interception. The Card defense held, and Esiason had the ball again at the Arizona 34-yard line with 1:24 to play following Washington's punt. Seven plays, 66 yards, and 1:04 later, the score was tied when Esiason found wide receiver Anthony Edwards with a 12-yard scoring pass. Arizona's 615 total yards were the first 600-yard outing in franchise history and the highest total in the NFL in six years (676, Washington vs. Detroit, Nov. 4, 1990).

Cardinals 31, Rams 28

September 29, 1996 ■ Sun Devil Stadium (33,116)

The Cardinals scored the game's final 17 points on their last three possessions to post a dramatic 31-28 comeback victory and register their first two-victory September since 1991. It also was the first time in 66 games the Cards overcame a fourth-quarter deficit of 14 points or greater. Although the St. Louis line of scrimmage never advanced farther than the Cards' 34-yard line, Arizona was victimized by four long Ram scoring plays—66-yard punt return and 34-, 46-, and 49-yard touchdown passes. The Cards methodically marched to two clock-eating fourth-quarter touchdown drives (93 yards on 19 plays in 10:22, and 82 yards on 12 plays in 3:38) that both culminated in five-yard touchdown passes from quarterback Kent Graham to fullback Larry Centers and wide receiver Frank Sanders, respectively. The latter tied the score with 11 seconds remaining. Two plays into overtime, running back LeShon Johnson raced 66 yards to set the table for kicker Greg Davis' 24-yard game-winning field goal two plays later. Graham established personal bests with 37-for-58 passing for 366 yards and four touchdowns and equalled two team single-game records—37 completions (Neil Lomax, 1984) and 14 consecutive completions (Steve Beuerlein, 1994). Graham also became the 11th Cardinal to throw four or more touchdown passes in a game. Johnson's pivotal overtime dash was the longest non-scoring run by a Cardinal since 1979 (Otis Anderson, 75 yards). Centers' 13 receptions were his single-game best. Arizona also set a franchise record with 23 first downs passing.

Cardinals 40, Falcons 37

November 26, 1995 ■ Sun Devil Stadium

The Cardinals mustered their first 500-yard game (513) and highest point total (40) since 1986 in Arizona's third consecutive home overtime contest, equalling Green Bay's 1987 NFL record. Special teams punctuated the contest. In the second quarter, Atlanta kicker Morten Andersen had a point-after-touchdown conversion attempt blocked, and a 46-yard field goal nullified by penalty. The Cards' game-tying touchdown, a two-yard pass from quarterback Dave Krieg to tight end Oscar McBride with 1:57 to play, followed a muffed Atlanta punt return. After an interception by Card linebacker Seth Joyner on Atlanta's ensuing possession, Card kicker Greg Davis missed a 45-yard field-goal attempt on the final play of regulation. Falcon punter Dan Stryzinski muffed an errant center snap on the first overtime possession, then fumbled the ball to the Cards' Eric England at Atlanta's 10-yard line. Davis ended the game with his fourth field goal on the next play. Krieg's 413 passing yards surpassed 400 yards for only the fifth time in team history.

Vikings 30, Cardinals 24

November 12, 1995 ■ Sun Devil Stadium

For the third time in five games, the Cardinals were extended into overtime. For the second time in '95, it meant sudden death for Arizona. Minnesota wide receiver Qadry Ismail abruptly ended the affair with a 50-yard touchdown pass reception from quarterback Warren Moon 2:16 into the extra stanza. It was Moon's fourth touchdown toss of the afternoon. An early Viking field goal and two second-quarter Moon touchdown passes of 32 and five yards to wide receivers Jake Reed and Cris Carter, respectively, gave Minnesota 17 halftime points. The Cards answered with a nine-yard Dave Krieg-to-Rob Moore touchdown pass and the first of three Greg Davis field goals. The Cardinals inched closer at 17-16 by scoring the only points of the third quarter on Davis' second and third field goals, both from 44 yards. The teams exchanged early fourth-quarter touchdowns—Minnesota on a two-yard Moon-to-Carter connection, Arizona on a two-yard Krieg-to-tight end Wendall Gaines toss. The Cardinals also successfully completed a two-point conversion pass from Krieg to Moore to knot the game at 24-24 with 8:36 to play. It took Minnesota only six plays from scrimmage following the overtime kickoff to end the contest. Leading to Ismail's heroics, the Vikings gained field position with a 29-yard completion to Carter.

Cardinals 20, Seahawks 14

October 29, 1995 ■ Sun Devil Stadium

Turnovers and an improbable late ebb and flow highlighted Arizona's second overtime game in three outings. The Cardinals grabbed a 14-0 halftime lead on two first-quarter touchdowns—an eight-yard pass from quarterback Dave Krieg to wide receiver Rob Moore, and a five-yard fumble recovery and return by defensive end Keith McCants on the tail end of defensive end Michael Bankston's 28-yard interception return and fumble. Seattle logged 333 of its 428 total yards in the second half and overtime and eventually knotted the score on two touchdown passes to fullback MacK Strong. The Seahawks flirted with late leads on two of their first three possessions, the first ending when running back Chris Warren fumbled inside the Cards' 10-yard line after rambling 52 yards. Card cornerback Aeneas Williams recovered in the end zone for a touchback. After Cardinal running back Larry Centers fumbled at the Arizona 23-yard line, a 43-yard Seattle field-goal attempt four plays later was blocked by defensive tackle Eric Swann. The Seahawks returned the favor on Arizona's overtime-opening possession when Greg Davis' 27-yard three-point attempt was blocked. Seattle then drove to Arizona's 33-yard line only to have Card safety Lorenzo Lynch dramatically end the contest with a 72-yard interception return for a touchdown, the longest overtime interception return for a score in NFL history. Seattle fumbled eight times, a Cardinal opponent record.

Giants 27, Cardinals 21

October 8, 1995 ■ Giants Stadium

Late turnovers and a missed field goal punctuated a see-saw overtime battle that ended abruptly when Giant linebacker Jessie Armstead returned an interception 58 yards for the game-winning touchdown. Neither team held more than a four-point lead until late in the third quarter when Cardinal quarterback Dave Krieg completed his second touchdown pass to rookie wide receiver Frank Sanders, a six-yard toss the pair followed with a two-point conversion pass, to take a 21-14 advantage. After the Giants knotted the struggle at 21-21, the pulsating ending began with New York poised to take the lead at the Cards' six-yard line with just over three minutes to play, but Arizona linebacker Eric Hill caused a fumble that safety Terry Hoage recovered. A 47-yard Krieg-Sanders completion put the Cards in position to win, but Greg Davis missed a 50-yard field-goal attempt with 23 seconds left. Overtime began with an exchange of fumbles. Armstead's heroics came three plays into the Cards' second overtime possession.

Bears 19, Cardinals 16

Nov. 27, 1994 ■ Sun Devil Stadium

The Cardinals' third overtime outing in a seven-game span turned into a 19-16 setback when Chicago's Kevin Butler kicked his fourth field goal with 6:45 remaining in the extra period as the Cards forced with 10 game-tying fourth-quarter points. The Cardinals enjoyed the first overtime possession, but their drive stalled at the Chicago 38-yard line. The Bears followed with a 70-yard drive leading to Butler's game-winning field goal, a march highlighted by a 44-yard pass from quarterback Steve Walsh to wide receiver Jeff Graham.

Cardinals 20, Steelers 17

Oct. 30, 1994 ■ Sun Devil Stadium

The Cardinals' second consecutive home sellout crowd—a first since moving to Arizona in 1988—witnessed Arizona's second overtime victory in a three-week span. Card linebacker/long snapper Randy Kirk caused a fumble on the overtime kickoff that Arizona recovered, and four plays later, Greg Davis sent the game-winning field goal through the uprights from 51 yards away.

Cardinals 19, Redskins 16

Oct. 16, 1994 ■ R.F.K. Stadium

Both teams missed long field-goal attempts, but newly-signed kicker Todd Peterson, appearing in his first NFL game as a substitute for the injured Greg Davis, redeemed himself with 4:56 remaining in overtime with a 29-yard game-winner on the Cards' first play from scrimmage following their fifth interception that safety Terry Hoage made and returned 23 yards. The Cards knotted the contest in regulation with 27 seconds remaining on a five-yard pass from quarterback Steve Beuerlein to wide receiver Ricky Proehl.

Cardinals 30, Seahawks 27

December 19, 1993 ■ Kingdome

The Cardinals scored the final five times they touched the football—four in regulation, one in overtime. Place kicker Greg Davis tied the game at 27-27 on the final play of regulation with a franchise-record and personal-best 55-yard field goal. After winning the overtime coin toss, the Cardinals started the game-winning drive at their 20-yard line. Thirteen plays later, including a crucial 12-yard third-and-nine midfield completion to wide receiver Anthony Edwards, Davis delivered again with a 41-yard game-winning field goal.

Cardinals 10, Eagles 10

December 7, 1986 ■ Veterans Stadium

One blocked field goal, two punts, and two missed field goals in overtime led to the 10-10 tie after the Cardinals erased a 10-3 deficit with only 2:39 left in regulation with a 48-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Neil Lomax to wide receiver Roy Green. Included in the Cards' season-high 461 yards total offense were 390 passing yards (30-of-48) by Lomax. Green (6 rec., 100 yards) and J.T. Smith (10 rec., 131 yards) enjoyed outstanding efforts. The Cardinals won the overtime coin toss and drove into field goal range, but Eagle Reggie White blocked Eric Schubert's 40-yard field-goal attempt. The teams traded punts before Philadelphia's Paul McCadden pushed a 43-yard field goal try wide left. Schubert did the same from 37 yards away. On the final play of the extra period, Cardinal cornerback Carl Carter intercepted a pass by Eagle quarterback Matt Cavanaugh and returned it to midfield as time expired.

Cardinals 27, Browns 24

September 8, 1985 ■ Cleveland Stadium

Neil O'Donoghue kicked a 35-yard field goal with 5:27 gone in overtime to give the Cardinals a 27-24 win over the Browns. The Cards jumped to a 17-3 lead early in the fourth quarter on a 48-yard interception return for a touchdown by Lionel Washington. Cleveland stormed back in a torrential rain to score 21 points on its next three possessions to take a 24-17 advantage with just 38 seconds remaining. With the ball on the Cards' 37-yard line, quarterback Neil Lomax connected with Ottis Anderson on a middle screen for 41 yards, found Stump Mitchell for another 15 yards, then tossed a five-yard touchdown pass to Pat Tilley to tie the game at 24-24 with four seconds to play. The Cardinals won the coin toss and drove nine plays for O'Donoghue's game-winner.

Cardinals 20, Giants 20

October 24, 1983 ■ Busch Stadium

The Cardinals and Giants fought to a "Monday Night Football" draw in a game best remembered for three missed overtime field-goal attempts by Cardinal kicker Neil O'Donoghue (44, 19, 42 yards). The teams traded punts before O'Donoghue's first miss. The Cardinals drove 81 yards to New York's two-yard line yard prior to his second misfire, a 19-yard attempt. His third errant boot followed a 23-yard interception return by Lionel Washington to New York's 25-yard line. The game ended when Cardinal cornerback Wayne Smith intercepted Giant quarterback Jeff Rutledge at the St. Louis 33-yard line.

Falcons 33, Cardinals 27

November 9, 1980 ■ Busch Stadium

The Cardinals jumped to a 24-6 halftime lead. Atlanta roared back with 21 points after halftime to win 33-27. Quarterbacks Jim Hart of the Cardinals (344 yards passing) and the Falcons' Steve Bartkowski (378 yards) combined for 722 aerial yards as the teams combined 978 yards total offense—Cardinals 415, Falcons 563. Hart connected on a pair of long touchdown tosses to Ray Combs (38 yards) and Pat Tilley (50 yards) in the first quarter, and Ottis Anderson scored on an eight-yard run in the second stanza before the Falcons' defense stiffened. Atlanta limited the Cards after halftime to minus five yards rushing, 109 yards total offense, and finished the day with five interceptions. Falcon running back Lynn Cain scored twice on runs of five and 10 yards, the latter forcing the overtime period. Atlanta won the coin toss and running back Ray Strong scored on a 21-yard run 4:42 into the extra period to decide the 33-27 verdict.

49ers 24, Cardinals 21

September 14, 1980 ■ Candlestick Park

The 49ers drove 80 yards in the final two minutes to tie the game at 21-21, then kicked a field goal on their first overtime possession to win. San Francisco opened the scoring when running back Paul Hofer scored on a 19-yard pass from quarterback Steve DeBerg in the second period. The Cards answered with touchdown passes from Jim Hart to running back Theotis Brown (13 yards) and tight end Doug Marsh (five yards) to take a 14-7 lead. After a 49er score tied the game, the Cards drove 75 yards in eight plays to lead 21-14, but allowed San Francisco to drive 80 yards in 53 seconds in the last two minutes, capped by Hofer's second touchdown run, a 26-yarder with 58 ticks left in regulation. The Cardinals won the overtime coin toss, but punted following their first possession. The 49ers took the ball 52 yards to the 16-yard line where Ray Werschling kicked a 33-yard field goal with 4:12 elapsed in overtime.

Cowboys 24, Cardinals 21

October 15, 1978 ■ Busch Stadium

Veteran Card kicker Jim Bakken saw a 33-yard game-winning field-goal attempt glance off the left upright with less than three minutes to play in regulation. Dallas won the overtime coin toss and the game 24-21 on a 47-yard field goal by Rafael Septien with 3:28 expired. The Cardinals took a 14-7 halftime lead on scoring runs of two and one yards by Jim Otis. Dallas quarterback Roger Staubach connected with wide receiver Tony Hill from 37 and six yards to give the Cowboys a 21-14 third-quarter lead. The Cards tied the game with a one-yard touchdown pass from Hart to running back Wayne Morris early in the fourth period. Hart suffered a separated left shoulder on a sack by Cowboy lineman Harvey Martin late in the game and the following week saw his streak of consecutive starts end at 64 games.

Cardinals 23, 49ers 20

October 31, 1976 ■ Busch Stadium

Despite a San Francisco ground attack that amassed 265 yards, Card kicker Jim Bakken atoned for a blocked point-after-touchdown attempt that sent the game into overtime with a field goal in the extra period for a 23-20 Cardinal victory. With the Cards nursing a 14-13 lead entering the fourth period due to a missed 49er extra point, San Francisco's Delvin Williams, who logged 194 yards rushing, scored the third of his three rushing touchdowns from one yard to give his club a 20-14 lead. Card quarterback Jim Hart connected with wide receiver Mel Gray on a 77-yard touchdown toss with eight minutes left in the game, but Bakken's conversion was blocked and the score remained tied at 20-20. The Cards won the coin toss and were forced to punt, but running back Steve Jones recovered a fumble on the return by 49er Tony Leonard at the 43-yard line. Card running back Jim Otis carried the ball six consecutive times for 39 yards, including a 23-yarder, to set up Bakken's 21-yard game-winner with 6:42 elapsed.

Cardinals 20, Redskins 17

November 16, 1975 ■ Busch Stadium

In one of the most memorable finishes in franchise history, the Cardinals overcame two fourth-quarter deficits to capture undisputed possession of the NFC East lead with a 7-2 record following a thrilling 20-17 win. Washington took a 14-3 lead into the fourth quarter and held a 17-10 advantage with 1:43 to play before the Cardinals took possession on their own 39-yard line. Quarterback Jim Hart connected with wide receiver Earl Thomas for 19 yards to give the Cards a first-and-goal situation at the Washington six-yard line with 50 seconds remaining. After three incompletions, Hart faced fourth-and-goal with 25 ticks left. Speedy wide receiver Mel Gray lined wide right against Redskin cornerback Pat Fischer and ran a quick slant. The two Pro Bowlers ran stride for stride. Hart delivered the ball to the end zone, and Gray emerged from a tangle of arms, legs, and elbows with the ball, then dropped it when Fischer stripped him. After one official ruled incomplete pass and another touchdown, a conference ensued. Referee Fred Silva emerged and signaled touchdown. Jim Bakken converted the extra point to send the game into overtime. The Cards won the coin toss and drove 55 yards to set up Bakken's game-winning 37-yard field goal with seven minutes elapsed.

Cowboys 37, Cardinals 31

September 28, 1975 ■ Texas Stadium

The Cardinals won the toss. Quarterback Jim Hart's pass was intercepted and returned by Dallas linebacker Lee Roy Jordan to the Cardinals' 37-yard line. Cowboy quarterback Roger Staubach passed to tight end Billy Joe DuPree for a three-yard touchdown at 7:53.

■ Last Meeting

November 27, 1994 ■ Chicago 19, Cardinals 16-0T (H)

The Cardinals' third overtime outing in a seven-game span turned into a 19-16 setback when Chicago's Kevin Butler kicked his fourth field goal with 6:49 remaining in the extra period that the Cards forced with 10 game-tying fourth-quarter points. The Bears controlled the flow of the contest from the outset by taking early leads of 7-0, 13-3, and 16-6 behind a 132-yard rushing attack (40 carries). The Cardinal offense continued to struggle, failing to score a touchdown for the second consecutive week. Arizona's defense tallied its first touchdown of the season to cut Chicago's advantage to 16-13 when defensive end Keith McCants intercepted the first pass of his career and returned it 46 yards for his first career touchdown. After the Cards forced a Chicago punt on its ensuing possession, they drove 55 yards in 13 plays for Greg Davis' third field goal of the day, a 47-yarder, that tied the game with 1:04 left. The Cards enjoyed the first overtime possession but their drive stalled at the Chicago 38-yard line. The Bears followed with a 70-yard drive leading to Butler's game-winning field goal that was highlighted by a 44-yard pass from quarterback Steve Walsh to wide receiver Jeff Graham. Card running back Larry Centers set a then-personal single-game best with 10 pass receptions.

■ Series Notes

The Cardinals and Bears boast the oldest regular-season rivalry in NFL history dating to the 1920s when the two shared the Windy City ... the Bears maintain a 54-25-6 advantage in the series, but the teams have split the last eight meetings ... the Cardinals set a then-franchise record attendance mark of 71,233 in Sun Devil Stadium on October 28, 1990 against the Bears, also the largest crowd in the history of the series ... in preseason play, the Cards hold a 22-9 margin ... last year's preseason contest in Chicago, a 22-10 Bear victory, was originally scheduled for Saturday, Aug. 16 but postponed until the following evening due to a severe thunderstorm minutes before kickoff.

■ Last Meeting

November 9, 1997 ■ Dallas 24, Cardinals 6 (A)

The Cardinals dropped their eighth consecutive decision at Dallas in a contest dictated by the Cowboys' highly-ranked defense. Despite committing only one turnover, a third-quarter fumble by sacked quarterback Jake Plummer that led to the Cowboys' verdict-sealing final touchdown, a five-yard run by Emmitt Smith, the Cards' offense allowed nine sacks—their highest total in a span of 169 games—and failed to score a touchdown for the second time in 1997. Trailing 10-3 at halftime, the Cardinals converted just three points out of two early second-half scoring opportunities. On the second half's first play from scrimmage, Cardinal linebacker Ronald McKinnon made his third pass interception of the season and returned it 17 yards to the Dallas 20-yard line, but Arizona lost two yards on its ensuing possession and had to settle for Joe Nedney's second field goal of the game, a 39-yarder. Following a Dallas touchdown on its next possession that extended its lead to 17-6, the Cardinals were driving after wide receiver Fred Brock's first NFL reception in his first NFL game, a 29-yarder, spotted the ball at the Dallas 35-yard line. On the next play, wide receiver Rob Moore was involved in the game's pivotal play, an apparent 34-yard completion to the Dallas one-yard line that was ruled incomplete. The play would have put the Cards 36 inches away from chopping the Cowboy lead to 17-14. Instead, Nedney missed a 51-yard field-goal attempt two plays later, Plummer scrambled to a team-leading 51 yards rushing (seven carries).

■ Series Notes

Dallas holds a 47-21-1 series lead ... the Cardinals' thrilling 25-22 overtime win last year in Sun Devil Stadium broke a series streak of 13 consecutive Dallas victories and six consecutive season sweeps ... Dallas provided the opposition for the Cards' first regular-season home game in Arizona in 1988 ... the Cowboys prevailed 17-14 ... the Cowboys drew the largest home crowd in Arizona franchise history when 73,025 packed Sun Devil Stadium to witness a 17-10 Cardinal defeat on September 19, 1993 ... at one stretch from 1967-86, Dallas won 27 of 36 games and enjoyed one home stretch of 13-2 against the Cardinals ... the Cards are 9-25 all-time at Dallas and have won only five of the last 30 meetings in Texas ... five of the last six Sun Devil Stadium meetings have been decided by seven points or less.

The Cardinals scored 17 points on three consecutive possessions and forced Lion running back Barry Sanders' first two fumbles in over 800 touches of the ball in an eventual fourth quarter to post their first victory of the season. The furious finish overcame a script remindful of Arizona's two season-opening losses—little offense (73 yards at halftime, six points after three quarters, one-for-12 third-down efficiency) and an uncharacteristically charitable defense (358 yards, big plays—39-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Brett Periman, 47-yard touchdown run by Sanders). Kicker Greg Davis kept the Cardinals alive by equaling his career high of four field goals, the first a 55-yarder that tied his own franchise record. Quarterback Dave Krieg, who was sacked seven times, authored the game's most dramatic moment when he found wide receiver Anthony Edwards on a fourth-and-10 touchdown pass with 2:31 remaining, followed by a two-point conversion pass to wide receiver Frank Sanders, for the winning points. Card running back Garrison Hearst posted the first 100-yard game (121 rushing yards) of his career.

October 1, 1995 ■ Kansas City 24, Cardinals 3 (H)

Steve Bono's 76-yard touchdown run, the longest scoring rush by a quarterback in NFL history, on the first play of the second quarter provided the first of 24 unanswered Kansas City points in the Chiefs' never-in-doubt 24-3 victory. K.C.'s second touchdown seven minutes later, a one-yard tackle-eligible pass from Bono to Joe Valerio, came five plays after a muffed punt return by the Cardinals gave the Chiefs field position at the Arizona 15-yard line. Kansas City controlled the game with a 221-yard rushing effort, requiring Bono to throw only 17 passes (seven completions, 78 yards). Conversely, the Cardinals' rushing attack produced just 56 yards, forcing quarterback Dave Krieg to throw 41 times (25 completions, 308 yards). Arizona missed its opportunity to take an early lead when it was stopped at the Kansas City goal line on a fourth-and-one Larry Centers rust midway through the scoreless first quarter. The Cardinals lost their first two fumbles of the young season and were penalized 11 times (79 yards). Middle linebacker Eric Hill returned from a two-week injury absence (calf) to register 15 combined tackles in a starting role.

December 14, 1997 ■ New Orleans 27, Cardinals 10 (A)

New Orleans broke open a tight, penalty-marred contest with 17 unanswered fourth-quarter points to post a 27-10 victory over the Cardinals in Arizona's final road game of 1997. The contest was a tale of contrasting halves. Arizona dominated the first half, posting 218 total net yards and 14 first downs while limiting the Saints to 78 total net yards (only nine yards passing) and five first downs. The Cardinals took a 10-3 lead into the locker room at halftime on the strength of rookie quarterback Jake Plummer's first NFL rushing touchdown, a 10-yard opening-drive scramble, and Joe Nedney's 30-yard second-quarter field goal. They also self-destructed on two other first-half scoring opportunities, an extra-effort fumble by wide receiver Frank Sanders at the Saints' 38-yard line following his 29-yard reception on Arizona's possession following Plummer's touchdown, and a sack of Plummer and fumble on a third-and-five situation from the New Orleans' five-yard line with 14 seconds remaining in the second quarter. Turnabout was fair play in the second half as the Saints flexed their muscles for 304 yards total offense (243 pass, 61 rush) while holding Arizona to just 47 total net yards (17 pass, 30 rush). Saint wide receiver Randal Hill, an ex-Cardinal, caught five passes for 124 yards and one touchdown, New Orleans' first, a nine-yarder in the third quarter to knot the score at 10-10. It was the first 100-yard receiving day of 1997 against Arizona. The Cardinals failed to register a sack for the first time in '97, while allowing five sacks to raise their season total to 76, the second highest single-season total in NFL history. Ronald Moore rushed a team season-high 22 times for 79 yards. Pro Bowl cornerback Aeneas Williams made his sixth interception of the season in the fourth quarter.

■ Series Notes

This season marks the seventh time in the past nine seasons the teams have met in regular-season play ... the Cardinals maintain an 11-10 lead in the series that dates to 1967 ... the Saints won the first four contests in the '90s before Arizona's 28-14 decision in 1996 ... last year, the Saints won 27-10 at the Louisiana Superdome ... the two teams combined for 93 points in a 51-42 Saints win in 1969, just 10 shy of the all-time NFL record for most combined points in a single game, and set a league standard for most combined touchdowns passing in a game as quarterbacks Billy Kilmer (Saints) and Charley Johnson (Cardinals) each tossed six scoring strikes ... though it was a preseason game, the Cardinals provided New Orleans with its first victory as a new franchise, a 23-14 decision at Shreveport, La. during the 1967 preseason.

■ Last Meeting

November 16, 1997 ■ N.Y. Giants 19, Cardinals 10 (A)

The Giants won the war by prevailing in the rushing (201-49 yards) and turnover (3-0) battles, sending the Cardinals to defeat for the eighth time in their last nine outings. However, it was a 56-yard touchdown pass to Giants wide receiver Amani Toomer that staked New York to a 10-0 first-half lead. The Giants weathered the Cards' third-quarter comeback when Arizona knotted the score at 10-10 behind a 70-yard Jake Plummer-to-Frank Sanders touchdown pass and a 34-yard Joe Nedney field goal. New York responded by driving 80 yards in 17 plays, a march capped by a one-yard touchdown pass from Danny Kanell to Howard Cross. Giant kicker Brad Daluiso's missed point-after-touchdown attempt changed the game's complexion at 16-10, but Plummer was intercepted on Arizona's ensuing possession, and Daluiso iced the contest four plays later with a 34-yard field goal. Plummer's 22-for-33 (.667) passing accuracy netted 388 yards, the most in NFL history by a rookie quarterback. Wide receivers Sanders (9-188) and Rob Moore (8-139) became Arizona's first pair of receivers to both better 100 yards in the same game since Moore (8-121) and Larry Centers (7-101) vs. Atlanta on Nov. 26, 1995, and the first tandem of wide receivers to accomplish the feat in a span of 103 games (Ernie Jones, 8-145-1; Ricky Proehl 4-107-1 vs. New England, Sept. 29, 1991). Sanders' touchdown was the longest reception and scoring grab of his career.

■ Series Notes

One of the NFL's ancient rivalries and the lengthiest for the Cardinals ... the Giants hold a 24-10-1 advantage in the series since 1980 and 70-37-2 overall dating to 1926 ... The Giants have won five of the past six contests, including a sweep of two encounters last year ... the Cardinals snapped a 10-game losing streak at Giants Stadium with a dramatic 10-9 victory at the Meadowlands in 1994 ... a 19-0 shutout at Sun Devil Stadium in 1992 broke the Giants' eight-game series winning streak ... the Giants provided the opposition for the final game of the 1974 season when the Cardinals roared back from a 14-0 halftime deficit for a 26-14 win and their first division crown since 1948 ... the Giants also were the Cardinals' foe in the club's final game in St. Louis, a 27-24 Cardinal victory on December 13, 1987.

■ Last Meeting

December 10, 1989 ■ L.A. Raiders 16, Cardinals 14

The Cardinals lost for the fourth consecutive week and for the third time in as many outings under interim head coach Hank Kuhlmann, a 16-14 defeat to the Raiders at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. The Cardinal defense posted its strongest effort of the season, holding the Raiders without a touchdown until their final possession. Raider quarterback Steve Beuerlein completed only 13 of 30 passes and was sacked four times. The Cards also forced two fumbled and deflected five of Beuerlein's passes at the line of scrimmage. Six Raider drives ended in field-goal attempts (three successful) and a goal-line stand nearly kept the Raiders out of the end zone in the final minute. Trailing 14-9 with less than 10 minutes remaining, the Raiders covered 46 yards on 13 plays to score the winning touchdown, but only after running seven plays inside the Cardinal 10-yard line. Quarterback Tom Tupa made his NFL punting debut for the Cards in relief of injured regular Rich Camarillo. The Arizona rushing attack cracked the 100-yard plateau for the first time in six games.

■ Series Notes

The two teams have met just three times in regular-season play ... the Raiders hold a 2-1 advantage ... the Raiders won 17-10 at Busch Stadium in St. Louis in 1973 and at the L.A. Memorial Coliseum by a 16-14 count in 1989 ... the Cards' lone triumph was a 34-24 win at the Coliseum in 1983 ... the Raiders have won both preseason meetings, 20-9 in 1976 and 26-3 in 1996 ... the 1976 contest, played before a crowd of 33,216 at Sun Devil Stadium, marked the first professional football game played in the stadium that would become the Cardinals' home 12 years later.

■ Last Meeting

November 2, 1997 ■ Cardinals 31, Philadelphia 21 (H)

The Cardinals snapped a six-game losing streak with their highest point total and first four-touchdown outing of the season. The relief work of quarterback Kent Graham, after replacing starter Jake Plummer early in the fourth quarter, capitalized on two Eagle turnovers (Cedric Smith fumble recovery on a muffed punt return, Mike Caldwell interception), led Arizona on two short-field touchdown drives of 24 and 20 yards. Graham capped the seven- and eight-play possessions with one-yard touchdown sneaks, a first for a Cardinal quarterback in 101 games (Timm Rosenbach vs. New England, Nov. 25, 1990). The teams traded bizarre touchdowns early in the first quarter. Arizona defensive tackle Bernard Wilson returned his first career interception 66 yards for his first career touchdown, the longest interception return for a touchdown in history by a Cardinal defensive lineman. The Cards' ensuing onsides kickoff ricocheted off Card Kwamie Lassiter into the arms of Eagle Willie Clark, who returned the ball 38 yards for a touchdown. Joe Nedney's career-long 45-yard second-quarter field goal regained the lead for Arizona at 10-7. Plummer and wide receiver Rob Moore collaborated to extend the advantage to 17-7 midway through the third quarter with a 31-yard touchdown pass. The Eagles also went to their bullpen for a relief pitcher in the second half, replacing starting quarterback Rodney Peete with Ty Detmer, who promptly connected with wide receivers Mark Seay and Freddie Solomon for third-quarter touchdown passes of 19 and 18 yards, respectively, to stake Philadelphia to a 21-17 lead. The teams then traded interceptions and missed field goals prior to Graham's two touchdown plunges. Arizona also benefitted from 15 Philadelphia penalties that equalled the Cardinal opponent single-game record (at Detroit, Sept. 17, 1995). Arizona's three interceptions was its highest total since also pilfering three aerials at Philadelphia on Dec. 7, 1995.

■ Series Notes

The Eagles hold a slight 50-48-2 edge in the series that dates to 1935 ... the teams have split six of the past eight years (1990-91, 93-94, 96-97) ... Philadelphia swept both contests in 1992 and '95 ... the teams figured in consecutive NFL championship games in the 1940s ... last year marked the 50th anniversary of the 1947 Chicago Cardinals' championship season ... they edged the Eagles 28-21 at Frodo Comiskey Park on December 28, 1947 for the NFL title ... the Eagles avenged that loss with a 7-0 victory at Shibe Park in Philadelphia on December 16 to earn the 1948 crown.

December 9, 1995 ■ San Diego 28, Cardinals 25 (A)

The Chargers scored 21 points in a span of 6:18 to blow open an otherwise close contest and overcome six turnovers in the Cards' first appearance at San Diego since 1987. San Diego also dodged two bullets when the Cardinals missed a 37-yard field goal (first half) and fumbled at the Chargers' one-yard line (second half). The Cardinals took a short-lived 14-7 lead late in the second quarter when defensive end Clyde Simmons intercepted a Stan Humphries pass and rambled 25 yards to his fifth career touchdown. The Chargers began their scoring barrage on their ensuing possession, driving 89 yards in 12 plays for Ronnie Harmon's three-yard touchdown pass reception just before halftime. It continued when Andre Coleman returned the opening kickoff of the second half 92 yards for a touchdown, followed by a 38-yard Humphries-to-Mark Seay touchdown pass on the Chargers' next possession. But Arizona made things interesting. Trailing 28-17, the Cards drove 67 yards in 12 plays on their final possession, culminating with wide receiver Stevie Anderson's first Cardinal touchdown, a 12-yard loss from quarterback Dave Krieg. The pair followed with a two-point conversion pass to cut San Diego's lead to 28-25 with 1:43 remaining. Arizona's ensuing onside kickoff was unsuccessful. Card cornerback Aeneas Williams sparked with two pass interceptions, 2 fumble recoveries, 1 fumble caused, and 7 solo tackles.

■ Series Notes

The Cards and Chargers have met seven times dating to 1971 with San Diego holding a 6-1 advantage ... the Chargers won the first two meetings at Jack Murphy Stadium by scores of 20-17 in 1971 and 43-24 in 1976 ... after the Cards posted a 44-14 triumph in St. Louis in 1983. San Diego swept the next four encounters with a 28-24 home-field victory in 1987, victories of 24-13 in 1989 and 27-21 in 1992—both at Sun Devil Stadium—and a 28-25 win at San Diego in 1995.

October 29, 1995 ■ Cardinals 20, Seattle 17 (OT)

Arizona went into overtime for the second time in three outings. The Cardinals grabbed a 14-0 halftime lead on two first-quarter touchdowns, an eight-yard pass from quarterback Dave Krieg to wide receiver Rob Moore, and a five-yard fumble recovery and return by defensive end Keith McCants on the tail end of defensive end Michael Bankston's 28-yard interception return and fumble. Seattle logged 333 of its 428 total yards in the second half and overtime to knot the score on two touchdown passes to fullback Mack Strong. Arizona's overtime-opening possession ended when Greg Davis' 27-yard field-goal attempt was blocked. Seattle then drove to Arizona's 33-yard line only to have Card safety Lorenzo Lynch dramatically end the contest with a 72-yard interception return for a touchdown, the longest scoring overtime interception return in NFL history. The Cardinal defense forced seven turnovers (four interceptions, three fumble recoveries). Seattle fumbled eight times, a Cardinal opponent record.

■ Series Notes

The Cardinals are undefeated in five regular-season outings against Seattle ... the victories have come by scores of 30-24 in 1976, 33-28 in 1983, 34-24 in 1989, and overtime triumphs of 30-27 in 1993 and 20-14 in 1995 ... in preseason play, the Seahawks hold a 7-3 advantage.

■ Last Meeting

September 29, 1996 ■ Cardinals 31, St. Louis 28-OT (H)

The Cardinals scored the game's final 17 points on their last three possessions to post a dramatic 31-28 comeback victory and register their first two-victory September since 1991. It also was the first time in 66 games the Cards overcame a fourth-quarter deficit of 14 points or greater. Although the St. Louis line of scrimmage never advanced farther than the Cards' 34-yard line, Arizona was victimized by four long Ram scoring plays—66-yard punt return and 34-, 46-, and 49-yard touchdown passes. The Cards methodically marched to two clock-eating fourth-quarter touchdown drives (93 yards on 19 plays in 10:22, and 62 yards on 12 plays in 3:38) that both culminated in five-yard touchdown passes from quarterback Kent Graham to fullback Larry Centers and wide receiver Frank Sanders, respectively. The latter tied the score with 11 seconds remaining. Two plays into overtime, running back LeShon Johnson raced 66 yards to set the table for kicker Greg Davis' 24-yard game-winning field goal two plays later. Graham established personal bests with 37-for-58 passing for 366 yards and four touchdowns and equalled two team single-game records—37 completions (Neil Lomax, 1984) and 14 consecutive completions (Steve Beuerlein, 1994). Graham also became the 11th Cardinal to throw four or more touchdown passes in a game. Johnson's pivotal overtime dash was the longest non-scoring run by a Cardinal since 1979 (Otis Anderson, 75 yards). Centers' 13 receptions were his single-game best. Arizona also set a franchise record with 23 first downs passing.

■ Series Notes

Cards' first regular-season return to St. Louis after relocating to Arizona following the 1987 season ... in a preseason return to the Gateway City last year, the Rams prevailed 12-0 in the Trans World Dome ... during the '96 regular season, the Rams traveled to Arizona and were sent home on the short end of a 31-28 Cardinal win in overtime ... the Rams hold a 17-14-2 advantage in the regular-season series dating to 1946 when the two teams were in the NFL's Western Division ... the Rams handed the Cards a 35-23 defeat in a first-round playoff game on December 27, 1975 at the L.A. Coliseum.

■ Last Meeting

December 7, 1997 ■ Washington 38, Cardinals 28 (H)

The Redskins never trailed after jumping to a 17-0 first-half lead. Two of Washington's five touchdowns from its special teams (63-yard punt return by Brian Mitchell to open the scoring) and defense (29-yard interception return by Chris Dishman) proved to be the difference. Mitchell also contributed mightily to the Redskins' second touchdown with a 69-yard reception four plays before quarterback Jeff Hostetler, starting his first game as a Redskin, found fullback Larry Bowie with a three-yard touchdown pass. Mitchell's 69-yard reception was the longest against Arizona in over two years (73 yards, Washington's Leslie Shepherd, Sept. 3, 1995, TD). Pedaling uphill throughout the contest, the Cardinals stormed from behind to threaten three times at 17-14, 24-21, and 31-28. Four touchdown passes by quarterback Jake Plummer, a franchise rookie record, kept the Cards in contention. He became the 12th Cardinal in history to throw four or more touchdown passes in a game. Wide receiver Rob Moore, who posted his fourth consecutive 100-yard receiving day and his NFL-leading eighth of the season with 114 yards on five receptions, caught three of Plummer's touchdown tosses, Moore's career single-game high. Running back Ron Moore, making his first start since returning to the Cardinals, gained 38 yards on 13 carries. The Cardinal defense logged its first forced turnover in four games when cornerback Aeneas Williams intercepted his fifth pass of the season in the first quarter. Plummer broke the Cards' rookie single-season records for passing yards (1,575, Neil Lomax, 1981) and 12 touchdowns (11, M.C. Reynolds, 1958) by raising his season totals to 1,786 yards and 12 touchdowns in seven starts (eight appearances). Kevin Williams tied a franchise record with seven kickoff returns.

■ Series Notes

The Cardinals had won seven of the past eight meetings, including sweeps in 1993-94, and '96 before Washington won both encounters last year ... the Cardinals served as the Redskins' foe in the inaugural game at Jack Kent Cooke Stadium on September 14 last year, a 19-13 Washington overtime victory ... Washington still has won 33 of the last 46 games dating to 1937 ... prior to the '93 sweep, the last time the Cardinals defeated the Redskins twice in the same season was 1974 ... the Cards' victory in the first 1993 meeting, a 17-10 triumph, was their first success at R.F.K. Stadium since 1978 following 14 consecutive losses ... the Cardinals' first contest against Washington in 1988, a 30-21 win September 25, was their first home-field success in Arizona and snapped a seven-game Redskin series winning streak ... Washington then won eight of the next nine encounters.

Sun Devil Stadium

Sun Devil Stadium, home to Arizona State University football since 1958 and the Fiesta Bowl since 1971, added the National Football League to its storied past in 1988 when the Cardinals also took residence "between the buttes."

Super Bowl XXX was played at Sun Devil Stadium on January 28, 1996!

Literally carved from the desert, Sun Devil Stadium sits in a spectacular setting between two mountain buttes in Tempe, Arizona southeast of Phoenix.

Originally erected in 1958, Sun Devil Stadium has been expanded four times (1976, '77, '88, and '89). Capacity for NFL football in 1998 will be 72,994. Improvements costing over $23 million have been made over the past 10 years.

A $1.67 million field renovation (lowering and widening), completed in June of 1992, was the most recent major upgrade. Besides providing significantly more sideline space, the project also changed the look of the stadium by removing the characteristic moats in favor of field-level walkways. Ninety thousand square feet of Tifway 419 sod, the same grass that adorns the Cardinals' training facility, covers a unique layering support system that includes hot-water tubes designed to fool Mother Nature (delay dormancy) and promote growth during cooler months. Although approximately 1,300 seats were lost during the renovation, the project eliminated sight-line problems that had caused obstructed views from lower-row seats.

The bowl (south) end was connected six years ago by Arizona State's six-story Intercollegiate Athletic Complex building and an extension of loge-level seats. A state-of-the-art video replay scoreboard and locker rooms in the north end also were added. The color video replay system, situated in the southwest corner, offers fans instant replays of game action. A complementary matrix board for messages and statistical information sits in the southeast corner.

In 1989, $11.5 million was spent to construct a three-story, 60,000 square-foot building atop the upper deck on the west side containing two 30-suite levels and topped by a modern press box and eight additional private suites. Served by four industrial-sized elevators—one for the media and three for the public—the addition offers working space for 200 sportswriters, broadcast booths, booth space for statistical crews, coaches, public address personnel, security, scoreboard operations, and a rooftop camera deck in addition to suite seating for over 900 fans.

Super Bowl XXX required a number of improvements, including a new sound system, four new light poles at each corner of the stadium, new light fixtures to existing light standards on the east and west sides, and a resodded playing field.

Sun Devil Stadium proved a most hospitable host to the Cardinals in the team's inaugural season in Arizona in 1988 when seven of the Cards' eight regular-season home games broke the club's previous single-game attendance record. The season total of 472,937 fans also easily eclipsed the Cardinal franchise's single-season home attendance mark.

In 1994, the Cards again broke their single-season attendance mark when 497,330 fans, or an average of 62,166 patrons per game, spun the Sun Devil Stadium turnstiles.

The largest crowd in Cardinal history—73,025—witnessed the Cards' September 19, 1993 battle against the eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys at Sun Devil Stadium.

The 10 largest crowds to watch Cardinal home games all have been played at Sun Devil Stadium since the team's 1988 arrival in Arizona. ■

Training Facility

Rising from a former cotton field in south Tempe is the Cardinals' training facility and corporate headquarters.

Covering 14.7 acres of land, the Cardinals' home since September of 1990 is a 94,000 square-foot state-of-the-art facility sporting desert building materials, and three and one-half acres of Southwestern (Sonoran) desert landscaping that leaves no doubt where the team proudly calls home.

Possessing many characteristics that distinguish it as both a football facility and an Arizona landmark, the showcase complex has won numerous architectural and landscape awards. In the spring of 1996, it also served as a location for the filming of the movie "Jerry Maguire" starring Tom Cruise.

The facility incorporates local materials such as copper, desert brick, and clay tile, complemented by desert landscaping which integrate into the natural surroundings.

Environmentally sensitive, it utilizes passive solar energy to light offices and corridors while employing masonry and shadow to eliminate heat.

The interior joins many important concepts. Specificity of design is reflected in the workout areas on the first level where a number of planned activities can occur simultaneously. Facilities are situated along a logical traffic pattern to accommodate a progressive flow of activities.

The first floor consists of player facilities that include the training area, an auditorium, locker room, hydrotherapy (15-player in-floor jacuzzi and cold plunge) and spa rooms, indoor/outdoor weight-training room, offensive and defensive meeting rooms, and film/videotape rooms. They open to three playing fields (one lighted) on nearly five acres of land.

The second floor comprises the administration and operations areas that include the coaching staff's offices. On the second and third floors, natural lighting and breezeways combine with advanced communications technology to create the most flexible office space possible. The integration of current electronic and construction technologies also makes the facility more economical to operate and easier to maintain.

The main building is flanked by a two-story attached building that includes a public area, the ticket office, and the public relations department that houses a media center featuring custom-designed work carrels, private interview rooms, televisions, and a reference library. Another two-story building housing two handball courts completes the complex.

Tifway 419 sod, the same hybrid used for golf course putting greens and the Sun Devil Stadium playing surface, covers seven and one-half acres on the east side of the building and includes three laser-leveled side-by-side practice fields. Underneath lies a complex lateral piping, sub-drainage system constructed with drainage tiles that accommodate as much as three inches of rain water that can be drained from all three fields, making them playable within three hours.

Furthermore, many details are invisible to the naked eye. For example, the fields and team building are set at the same angle as Sun Devil Stadium, the Cards' home field at Arizona State University, allowing simulation of the position of the sun under game conditions. ■

The Cardinals' training facility in south Tempe has won numerous architectural and landscape awards since it became the team's home in 1990.

Media Directory

Cardinal Broadcasting

Tom Dillon, Arizona's sportscaster-of-the-year the past 16 years and a 23-year sports anchor on radio or television in the Phoenix area and Texas, offers play-by-play on all Cardinal radio and pre-season television broadcasts. "The voice" of Arizona State University football, basketball, and baseball on radio or television since 1980, Dillon also plies his trade as a Valley spring training public address announcer, a popular emcee on the banquet circuit, and talking to the control tower while piloting his airplane.

John Mistler, who spent most of his career as a wide receiver playing for two of the game's highest-profile head coaches—Frank Kush at Arizona State University and Bill Parcells with the New York Giants—has served as the Cardinals' color analyst since the team arrived in Arizona in 1988. The Tucson, Arizona product completed his playing career with the Arizona Outlaws of the U.S. Football League. He also is a vice president of business development for Wells Fargo Bank.
